A Serious Accident.-On Friday evening last as the force on the city gravel train engaged in repairing the streets of the city were about to guit work, Bishop Seddon, who has charge of the work, observed the train starting without anyone on board to apply the brakes, and in attempting to mount the cars as they passed him, accidentally had his right foot caught beneath the wheels and crushed so badly that the flesh surrounding the instep, torn from the bones and tendons, protruded through the side of his boot. He was immediately conveyed to his home and had the flesh replaced, but has been in a high fever ever since and suffered a great deal of pain. Morphine has been administered to him with a view to easing his pain and producing sleep, which, however, only gives him the headache and adds to his suffering. He was feeling slightly better this morning, and hopes are entertained for his ter, the conduct of two of the men not carly recovery.

The School Question in Idaho .-An Idaho "Mormon," writing from Bingham Co., says:

"During the past week there has been a general discharge of all 'Mor-mon' school teachers by the superin-teadent of schools of the various coun-ties, on the ground that they teach crime to be right. Now the allegation is as faise as it is possible for anything to be; but redress, I expect, is a thing of the past, as justice for 'Mormons' is out of the question here as in other piaces. Some of the districts have asked for a renewal of their teachers' certificates, to continue their schools, but the result is not known yet. "I expect that private schools will take the place of public schools in most of the districts in Bingham, take the place of public schools in most of the districts in Bingham, Oneids and Bear Lake counties, as certified teachers such as the 'Mer-mon' people will employ will be scarce. "Well, I believe the most of us are prepared for almost anything that our enemies can impose. It will cause some districts to close school for a while, but they will start up again in a private way. This place (District No. 3, Bingham Co.) I ex-pect will commence a private school next week. Our teacher, Miss Delia Merrill, an estimable young lady of Springfield, Utah, has had our school in charge the past year, and will con-tinue to teach."

People sometimes forgot there were paters familias whose families are People sometimes forgot there were other people in the world besides themselves, and all would do well to cultivate the feeling manifested by the Lord Jesus—the feeling of love. So strong was this sentiment in the mind of the Father that the Scriptures declared that God is Love, and one of the great fruits of the Spirit of God in His disciples was the increase of love toward their fellow beings. One of scarcely increasing fast enough to suit their notions are anxiously inquiring when there will be a chance to rent that domicile. As an additional coincidence the good old family cow of the next door neighbor lately brought twins and the three cases considered together toward their fellow beings. One of the great labors of the Saints was to have led to the suggestion that the unusual productiveness of the region conform their lives to the requirements of the Gospel, and when Jesus commanded His people to love their enemies. He meant that there should no more be a gospel of retaliation. History was repeating itself to-day, and scenes of the past were being re-enacted; wherever religion had inspired men and women, they had counted all things else as naught, and had trusted in God. The Latter-day Saints were not the only people who had been persecuted for their religious convictions.
