THE COMMISSION.

Washington, June 23.—General Butler, representing the Burton Car Company, addressed the Inter-State Commission to-day. He attacked the testimony of General Manager Stone of the Burlington. of the Burlington road. He also cited authorities in support of his claim that the roads had no right to make di-criminations.

Butler was followed by Wirt Dexter, for the Burington road, the substance of whose argument was that the Burton Company is a common carrier, seeking to intrude its cars upon the tracks of respondents.

Mr. Green, for the Lake Shore road, offowed with a denial of the several digations of the Burlington Com-Jo.n S. Blair, for the Union Pacific and the Missouri Pacific, argued the question of jurisdiction and the justice of the rates charged the Burton peo-

INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE. OMADA, June 23 -At to-day's session of the Pacific Investigating Committee, Traffic Manager Kimball being asked when he would produce the diary to refresh his memory regarding his attendance on legislative bodies, said he did not intend to produce it, as it was his private diary. He asked for the minutes ahead of the Galatea, and the line to make references.

1) S. Barringer, of the Omaha Ele-D. S. Barringer, of the Omana Elehe Union Pacific paid his company

ebates to enable it to meet competi-lyn and because other roads paid them to its competitors. The rebates had been two cen's per hundred at some wints and six at others. Of these UNION PACIFIC only stood forty per cent, the re-mainder being refunded them by the other roads in combination with it; his company had for two years past received a continuous repair of one per cent, per handred at the Omaha transfer

Kimball was recalled, and testified that Unarles Francis Adams was stockholder in the Argentius Sangiting Company of Kansas City, but this had not helped test company any. They had had occasional rebates, but did little business with the Union Pacific. Rebates had also been given the Boston & Colorado Smelting Company, with which ex Senator Hill was connected, but the latter always complained.

Chicago, June 23—At a meeting of the Central Traffic Association to con-sider the serious cut in rates to the seaboard made by the Wabash, it was resolved that chairman Fank and the eastern trunk lines be appealed to for action to protect the western connections, and to prevent the demoralizarates of the Wabash. COLURADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 23.

TRAFFIC ASSOCIATION.

-The General Freight Agents' Associ-ation met in convention at Manitou this morning, with J. M. Johnson, first assistant ganeral freight agent of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, in the chair, N. G. Iglehart, of the Chicago & Northwestern, secretary.

THIRTY-FIVE ROADS

were represented at the meeting. Several articles of woodenware were added in the classification of carriage and a few matters of detail considered but no business of general importance transacted. No changes were made in the classification of wool. Several new members were admitted, and the convention adjourned to meet in St Louis in November. The party took s special train for Denver at 4 p.m.

McGiynu Speaks,

BUFFALO,June 28 .- Father McGlynn, case as that of a man who had been sentenced, being forced to appeal information concerning Mrs. Brooks. n an interview to-day, presented his sentenced, being forced to appeal without any idea but that the result was a foregone conclusion, and that he would be snubbed and insulted by the propaganda. He assaults the church in Rome as a "Romish ma-chine," and closes as follows: "The engineers of the machine who are profiting by its power and its found her and rescued her from a prisemoluments, are really laughing in on cell, where she had been for three their sleeves at us for our excessive mouths. Also, you wanted to know if generosity in contributing Peter's pence to the support of a whole army of lackeys, flunkeys, both lays and cierical, who surround the Pope with a barbaric pomp scarcely equalled by that of any imperial despotic court."

Washington Points. WASHINGTON, June 23 .- The collector of customs at Sitka, Alaska, recently submitted to the Treasury De partment the question submitted by resident of Kodiah, whether he can lawfully engage with a schooner and crew in killing for seals in "Alas-ka waters" not near Pryogeor Island. Assistant Secretary Maynard informs the collector that inasmuch as section 1956 of the Revised Statutes, prohibits the killing of any fur seal within the limits of Alaska Territory, or in "the waters thereo!" The Butterfield Romance. Vassar, Mich., June 23 .- The disappearance of Mrs. Brooks is again to the fore with a more romantic story than at first. Several weeks ago L. C. The following reply was received on Monday: "Your letter of the 6th is received and contents noted. You say you were at the Brookses and read my letters to them, and you wanted to know if I had employed a detective to hunt up Aunt Johanna. I have, and he has months. Also, you wanted to know if she had drawn No, she had not drawn any of what was coming to her, but had a present of a draft of $60,000. Then her lawyer gave her $20,000 in cash. She had that when I saw her in St. Louis about the 19th of February. She is heir to about $300,000, with use for over one vear. A detective has had the luck todid that much. It can't be got without a private mark which was agreed on when they last met the lady that has the care of it. It was to make her sign that mark that they tortured her so far, but she would not sign it, and I think she is very gitty. The detective writes me that they kept her six days without a mouthfull to eat, and applied all manner of tortures that are cruel. I shall see that she is taken to ber family; shall try to get her there by the 4th of July, if her mind is so that we can move her, for now she is crazy. They killed her bey before her eyes; that turned her brain.
