LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

"HANDY ANDY."—The acting of Mr. Murphy, at the Theatre last night, in the comedy of "Handy Andy," was much excellent, and his delineation of the blundering, stupid, but good natured son of Erin was in itself the best that has ever been seen in this city.

Mr. M. is an actor of great versatility, and as clever as versatile. To secure him in Dutch and Negro characterizations would require an actor far above the average standard; but when he comes to the delineation of the verdant "Pat," he is perfectly at home, and keeps his audience in a roar. This was the case last night. His every appearance from the side wings was the signal for renewed fun, which became almost uproarious, and continued until his disappearance. His concert scene from "Help," was received with the accustomed applause, and it is indisputable that as a "comic" he has few equals. His "Comic Help" finished a capital performance, which, judging by the repeated, almost continuous, applause and laughter, delighted a good many.

To-night Mr. Murphy makes his last appearance in this city, when the same act as last evening will be presented, with the additional attraction of the "Comic Help" by "Jean Mac," the famous boxer, the Champion of England, the whole to conclude with a Pooley Mac, and Billy Edwards participating.

To-morrow night the favorite and home-manufactured Salt Lake actor, Mr. James M. Hardie, will commence an engagement here, when the beautiful drama of "True to the Cause" will be presented.

HIGH COUNCIL.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet at the city hall to-morrow morning at ten o'clock. A punctual attendance is requested.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The following periodicals were handed to us this morning, from Messrs. Campbell and Patterson, news-dealers: "Harper's Monthly," for July; "Every Saturday," June 22nd; "Harper's Weekly," June 22nd; "American Artisan," June 12th; "Frank Leslie's," June 22nd; "The Life of Horace Greeley," a copy of.

STOCKYARD NEWS.—Mons. Louis A. Barstow writes as follows:

"Mr. Anson Call of Bountiful, has only thirty mulberry trees on his large farm. They are ten or twelve years old. He will probably produce sixty ounces of healthy silkworm eggs during the present season. They will be worth two hundred dollars. Let him plant as soon as possible, as it will guarantee to him two thousand dollars from that source; a nice sum which can be obtained annually in two months in an easy and pleasant way."

"Farmers of Utah, the French market is now fairly open to the exportation of our most excellent eggs. Plant as many mulberry trees as you can."

MANAGER at the Deseret Telegraph Office for Home Despatch.

INDIAN TROUBLES.—Mr. James C. Brown, of Monticello, called yesterday afternoon. He left Salt Lake last Friday. He informed us that a day or two previous to his leaving, a band of Indians went to the farm of a man named Christiansen, at Twelve Mile Creek, a short distance north-west of Gunnison and stole the latter's best horse from his corral. He followed and tracked them to the place where they were hiding. He says the desperadoes are now in the hands of the law.

THE IOWA EXCURSIONISTS.—We learn by dispatch received last night, that the Iowa excursion party, after a very pleasant trip from Lake side to Cortina, on the steamer City of Cortina, were on the morning of the 15th, at Cortina, where they landed at the latter place by a large number of citizens and escorted in carriages to the opera house, where they participated in a ball given in their honor. They were to leave for home this morning, and expect to arrive at Omaha on Friday. The party are highly gratified with the reception they met with here, and express themselves as having had an exceedingly pleasant trip.

PORTAGE.—W. H. Anderson writes from Portage, Malad Valley, to the Ogden Statesman, June 18th:

"Last night our co-operative store was broken into, the safe broken open, and its contents abstracted by some person or persons unknown. The loss was about $200.00. As near as can be ascertained at present, the thieves were from the north, and the guilty parties are in a safe way to be found. Crops look splendid. Health good."

FROM DWYER'S.—From Dwyer's news depot we have "Harper's Monthly," "Harper's Weekly," "Frank Leslie's Weekly," and "Reynolds's Newspaper," all of the latest date.

PROSTITUTION.—Six arrests for prostitution have been made since yesterday morning.

MEAT MARKETS.—Jacob Ornstein and Philip Kohlberger have each been arrested on a charge of keeping a meat market contrary to law.

Secure Your Tickets.—Those wishing to go to Lake Side to-morrow with the Fourteenth Ward excursion party should procure tickets to-day from Bishop Thomas Taylor, at Taylor and Cutler's, or from Lewis S. Hille, at the Bank of Deseret. The train conveying the party will leave the depot at 8 o'clock in the morning, returning at 7:30 in the evening.

COOLER.—For several evenings past the air has been much cooler, and pleasant than on the evenings of the last month. Last evening was almost cool enough for overcoats.

DICK.—Henry Miller, the aged gentleman who was run over by his water wagon yesterday morning, died from his injuries late last night or early this morning. Doctor Anderson and Richards did all for him that medical skill could suggest, but his injuries, from their severity and owing to his advanced age, were necessarily fatal.

SPANISH FORK.—Bishop Albert K. Thurber, from Spanish Fork, dropped in to see us yesterday. We learn from him that high water had destroyed the dams on the main stream, causing much inconvenience and loss to farmers on account of the water being thus prevented from flowing into the irrigating ditches. This lack of water at a time when it is most plentiful will be the means of a loss to the people of about one-fourth of the season's grain crop. "Limbs of the law" are beginning to establish themselves at Provo, and in several instances badly persons had received lessons which would impress them with the idea that the law they have to do with that fraternity better.

MOVEMENTS OF ELDERS.—By letter from Elder W. C. Staines, under date of the 15th instant, New York, we learn that President Geo. A. Smith was then visiting Topsheld, Mass., the first residence of his anecdotes on this continent, in company with Elder Charles C. Johnson, who is intending to remain there a week. Elder D. H. Wells, Jr., and Geo. H. Knowlton had returned from New York for the week. Elder Jas. S. Brown and his brother had gone to Boston. They had been preaching on Long Island. Bishop John Sharp had not returned from Rome to New York. Elder Staines himself was, at the date of writing, in excellent health and spirits.

IN TOWN.—We had a call this morning from G. C. Kidder, Business Agent of Messrs. Miller and Richardson, Editors and Publishers of the Omaha Herald. Mr. K. comes strongly recommended by our friend, Dr. Geo. Miller, and he is here to secure business for the office. Those who know the courageous and fair course which the Omaha Herald has always taken in dealing with Utah affairs, need no recommendation from us to induce them to hold it in proper estimation; but to those who may not be familiar with it, we can say that it is an excellent newspaper and a consistent and true friend to the people of Utah and her rights.

UPPER WASH.—Bro. W. Willes, who has just returned from Weber county, reports that extensive crops have not been sown there this season, but those which are growing are very good, the wheat being knee high and beginning to head out. Volunteer wheat looks very well. Some of those who have not sown much this season, fearing the grasshoppers, are beginning to wish they had sown more extensively. A few grasshoppers are hatching out, but not near so many as were expected. Those which are hatching are doing much upon the grass, of which there is abundance on the range. Brother Willes visited many of the settlements and found a good spirit prevailing. He saw well of the Sunday school, especially of that at Coalville, which was very flourishing. He found Sunday schools in every settlement but two small ones, and they were talking of re-opening.

UNIVERSITY.—The Academic year of the University of Deseret for 1912-13, closed to-day. The examination was very creditable, 602 students had been enrolled during the year, each sex being equally represented. Delegates Cooper, Rogers, and Campbell and a number of others were present, and the above mentioned gentlemen made brief and suitable addresses. Miss Cook, acting principal, was the recipient from her pupils of a fine group photograph of a number of the latter.

CAUSE OF MURDER BY INDIANS.—By a dispatch from Wm. Hoidin, Indian Interpreter, to President Young, we learn that the friendly Indians have informed him that it is the intention of the Shaverte Indians, who are located on the Sevier river, to make war on the settlers and steal their horses and cattle. The Indians claim that this is the death of some of their leading chiefs. They wish, it seems, to show their grief for their chief in this manner, and to assure them a triumphant entry into their happy hunting grounds. This probably is the cause of the murder by them on last Sunday evening of the settler which we chronicled yesterday. No care or vigilance should be spared by the settlers, such as themselves and their families and flocks against their attacks.
