OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

One of the most brilliant social af-fairs of the season took place Thursday when Miss May Pearl Richards was married to Joseph C. McFarland, the ceremony was performed at the Salt Lake Temple. The happy young bride and groom returned to Ogden on the evening train and were met at the depot and taken to the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Hon, and Mrs. Charles C. Richards, on Twenty-fourth street, where they were given a reception. The bride and groom received the guests in the beautiful large parlor, where, standing in front of an exquis-itely designed network of white roses and evergreens. The other rooms were and evergreens. The other rooms were very prettily decorated with cut flow and evergreens. The other fooms were very prettilly decorated with cut flow-ers, smilax, evergreens, potted plants and plams. Purdies' string orchestry discoursed sweet strains of music throughout the entire evening. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining-room and Mrs. Josephine West presided at the punch bowl. The bride wore an elegant costume of creme crepe volle. During the evening about 200 guests were received. The bride is the daugh-ter of Mrs. Mary M. Richards and a granddaughter of the late F. D. Rich-ards. She was one of Ogden's popular schoolteachers and a beautiful talented young lady. The groom is one of Og-den's brightest and most highly es-teemed young business men, employed by the Boyle Furniture company. Mr. and Mrs. McFariand have a pretty little home elegantly furnished, situ-ated on Twenty-sixth street, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Roberts gave a tally-ho party up Ogden canyon Thurs-day in honor of Ralph Roberts of Oklahoma City, About 20 young people enjoyed the delightful drive, they will reside.

The commencement exercises of the Sacred Heart academy held this week were very pleasurable, especially the Alumnae banquet given Friday eve-ning in honor of the graduates. Fifteen years ago Miss Nannle De-vore and Miss Susie Kramer were young lady friends in Girard, Pennsyl-vania. Both came west later on, and now the former is Mrs. James Chipman, Jr., of American Fork, and the latter is Mrs. Albert Cates of Salt Lake City. The ladies met by chance at the home of a mutual friend in Logan this week and renewed their acquaintanceship and exchanged reminiscences of their girl-hood days.

Miss Elizabeth Folkman, a popular young dressmaker, and Michael Ipsen, a well known and highly esteemed young gentleman of Ogden were married Thursday in the Salt Lake Temple. They were given a grand reception on their return home. The contracting parties are both well known here and have many friends who will be pleased to extend their best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Becker returned home this week from a month's trip cast, when they visited Mrs. Becker's parents.
