Happy Surprise Party in Honor of Bishop Wright.

Special Correspondence, Marsh Center, Bannock Co., Idaho

Marsh Center, Bannock Co., Idaho, Feb. 20.-Last night was the occasion of a very happy surprise party given in honor of our beloved Bishon Lehi Wright. The affair was gotten up by the officers of the Mutual Improvement association. Prest. H. Woodland, in a neat little speech presented the Bishop with neatly bound copies of Cannon's "Life of Joseph Smith" and Taimage's "Articles of Faith." as tokens of the love of the people, who had assembled en mass to do him honor, and express their appreciation of his long and faith-ful labors among them. The bishop was too much overcome to make but a was too much overcome to make but a brief response. A few more songs were rendered and the program for the even-ing was thushed with plonic and danc-ing, and lasted to quite a late hour.

AFTON. WYOMING.

ROOM FOR HOMESEEKERS

In the Flourishing Settlements of Star Valley-Heavy Mortality,

Special Correspondence. Afton, Uinta Co., Wyo., Feb. 24.—Af-ton is a beautiful little burgh located on Swift creek, on the east side of our magnificent valley. The ward contains about one hundred families, mostly Latter-day Saints. The presidency of the Star Valley Stake has its head-quarters here. The Afton ward is in a flourishing condition, thanks to our new bishopric and our ward teachers. The Sabbath school, we believe, to be second to none in any of the Stakes of Zion. We have over three hundred chil-dren enrolled. Sunt. B. Harvar Allows to Special Correspondence.
