GENERAL.

NEW YORK, 26.—A dispatch from Albany says Wilbur H. Peckham made application to-day to Judge Barnard for an order for the arrest of Tweed, and it was granted. Tweed will be taken in custody to-morrow, and it is understood he will be conveyed to Albany for trial.

The proceedings against Tweed are the principal topic of conversation to-day. Tweed is very reticent as to his future course.

Wm. M. Evarts' great speech last night awakened special enthusiasm among the workers for reform. His able address meets the approbation of all honest people throughout the city.

Barnard has ordered that no arrests for civil actions shall be granted for obtaining property under false pretenses, unless the same be in writing, subscribed by the persons proceeded against; nor any orders for arrest against any person for libel, assault, slander or false imprisonment, except upon the person or against the character of a female.

The president of the Fireman's Fund insurance company of San Francisco, who is now here, states there is no doubt about the company continuing business.

The Rosenweig-Bowlesby case drew a large crowd at the court room to-day. The testimony corroborated the main facts elicited before the coroner's jury. All the evidence was not concluded to-day.

AUGUSTA, 26.—Advices from York County, S. C., state that arrests have been made and numbers of men are leaving the county, their deserted families suffering. Business of all kinds is suspended.

LOUISVILLE, 26.—This evening, J. Daly, a private soldier at the Taylor barracks in this city, shot through the head and instantly killed L. Williams, another private, who had been too intimate with Daly's wife. Daly had been drinking and shot Williams without warning. The murderer was turned over to the civil authorities and is now in jail.

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—Much excitement was created here this afternoon by the announcement that the eastward bound Central Pacific train had broken through the San Joaquin bridge and gone into the river and that many lives were lost. The latest special dispatch says that four cars were smashed, the track torn up for fifty feet, and one passenger, unknown, fatally injured, another's leg broken and many less seriously injured. The accident occurred half a mile west of the bridge where there is an embankment fifteen feet high. Governor Morton and party who were in a special car at the rear of the train were unharmed. The westward train has not yet arrived here and no news of the injured are received.

NEW YORK, 27.—The Times states that Tweed has been busy for the past few weeks trading away his personal and real estate. His stocks have nearly all been sold or transferred. All his houses and lots in this city are made over to his relatives. Over four millions' worth of his real estate has thus been transferred within the past few days, and, yesterday, he made over to Richard M. Tweed, his son, real estate to the value of nine hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, including his Fifth Avenue residence.

Complaint was made against Tweed and others before Judge Leonard, and a demand made for judgment for the people of over six million dollars' bail. Ingersoll, Garvey and Woodward have fled, thus leaving Tweed alone to answer the complaint.

There was considerable excitement in political circles last night relative to Tweed's arrest, but he is not yet apprehended.

Col. Wiley, chief of the U. S. detective forces, yesterday, effected the most important arrest of counterfeiters ever made in this country, in the persons of three notorious counterfeiters, one of whom, Ballard, is the only man in this country who possesses the secret of manufacturing government paper material. The capture includes a $10,000 transfer press, believed to be the only one outside the treasury department, with full sets of steel and copper plates for thousand, twenty and two dollar bills. Also full sets of plates for fractional currency, stamps for the Treasury seal, fac simile types for raising notes and $46,000 counterfeit money.

NEW YORK, 1.30 p.m.—Sheriff Brennan has just received from the Albany deputy sheriff, the warrant for the arrest of Tweed, and the arrest will be made in half an hour. Tweed is prepared to furnish bail to any amount.

2.45 p.m.—Tweed has been arrested and held to bail in one million dollars. Jay Gould and Commodore Garrison are the bondsmen.

of murder in the first degree. A motion for a new trial will be argued on November 21st. Medlicott is professionally confident of his eventual liberation.

BANTAS, 26.—The through passenger train, passing this station at 11.30, jumped the track this side of the San Joaquin bridge. There are thought to be but eight or ten wounded by the railroad accident. The brakeman was severely injured, probably fatally. A lady and two Chinamen were seriously injured. The car occupied by Senator Morton and escort was the only one not thrown off the track. Five cars were turned over and badly smashed. Dr. Thomson was on the train and rendered prompt assistance. The number of wounded is not known. The accident happened at the same place where the westward bound express ran off last year. A loose tie is said to have been the cause. The section man tried to stop the train, but had no flag, and failed. A German named Swall, living near Ellis station, had both his legs broken.

LOS ANGELES, 26.—The Chinaman who commenced the shooting on Tuesday night was captured to-day. The coroner's inquest adjourned until tomorrow. Four arrests of rioters were made this p.m. There is direct testimony implicating them as having been concerned in the hanging of Chinamen. The special grand jury is ordered to meet on the 31st inst. Some of the prominent rioters left the city to-day.

WASHINGTON, 27.—Vincent Collyer, who has recently returned, represents the Apaches of Arizona and New Mexico to be in a starving condition and eager to accept offers of peace. Coule, a chief of the Apache Mohaves, was so reduced by starvation that he could not speak for several hours. They complain against the whites for taking possession of their country whenever they want government posts. They were hunted by scouts and shot at. The Canada River, Alimosa and New Mexico Indians were invited and came in manifesting friendly dispositions. Collyer pronounces it untrue that depredations were committed from Camp Grant, or that he had interfered with the movements of Gen. Crook.

NEW YORK, 27.—In the Rosenweig trial to-day, the mother of the deceased testified that the handkerchief found on the victim belonged to her daughter.

The committee of citizens, appointed by the board of supervisors, who have been engaged for weeks examining the frauds in the city accounts, to-day submitted a report of their labors. The summary of the figures of this report gives the amount charged to the cost of the new court house still unfinished, and the county court offices. The repairs, furniture, &c., in all, are $13,413,593.29; the cost when completed could not exceed $3,000,000. The immense sum charged is made up of $8,184,706.16 directly charged to the court house building and its furniture; and $5,282,220.10 charged to the county court's offices, nearly all of which are in the same buildings. The repairs and furniture, including $641,900.40 paid for $18,876.90 worth of carpets; $2,960,186.01 paid for $308,551.50 worth of furniture; $914,330.65 paid for $73,752 worth of plumbing; and $768,212.23 charged for advertising, printing, blank books, and stationery since Jan. 1st, 1869. The whole account shows that $24,000,000 was paid for what was really worth $4,750,000, making a loss to the city of $19,250,000.

The committee assert that within two years and eight months one half of the entire revenues of the city and county have been abstracted.

A Berlin dispatch says $12,000 has been collected there for the Chicago sufferers.

The arrest of Tweed is the general topic of conversation, and the reformers begin to think the matter practically commenced. Tweed's bail, of two millions, was promptly furnished. The bondsmen were carefully examined by the sheriff. They are Jay Gould, who qualified for one million, Benj. Fairchild, a Tammany auctioneer, Terence Farley and Bernard Kelley, Tammany politicians, three hundred thousand each, and Hugh Hastings, of the Commercial Advertiser, one hundred thousand. The sheriff said he has orders to arrest Ingersoll, Woodward and Garvey, but couldn't find them. The charge is on a suit by corporation counsel O'Gorman, against Tweed, and is for violation of official trust in settling liabilities against the city while president of the board of supervisors, and that he is guilty of gross frauds upon the city.

Judge Barnett declares distinctly that Garvin didn't subpoena any persons before the grand jury in the case of Mayor Hall, they being mainly ignorant of the facts, hence no bill was found. He also says the prosecution against Hall is only suspended.

CHARLESTON, 27.—Advices from the upper portion of the State report increasing terror on account of the numerous arrests under the President's proclamation. The Yorkville Enquirer thinks the wholesale arrests have had a very depressing effect on business generally. The grand jury of Chester Co., composed of six whites and six negroes, find that the allegations in the President's proclamation have no foundation.

CINCINNATI, 27.—Private dispatches received here to-day say General Robert Anderson died at Nice, France, last evening. He had gone to Nice three weeks ago, hoping to recover by the change. His family was with him. The remains will be brought by the United States vessel Guerriere to this country for interment. It is known here that the recent reports concerning his alleged impecuniosity are entirely without foundation, inasmuch as he received full pay as brigadier general, and a handsome income besides.

NEW YORK, 28.—A proposition is made to close all the stores here on election day and generally suspend business.

Chas. O'Connor states it can be clearly shown that Tweed and his associates fraudulently obtained, from the Broadway bank, without color of right, some five millions, and that recovery can be obtained against Tweed, unless interfered with by corrupt legislation, within ninety days. Woodward was the corrupt agent through whom Tweed worked. An opportunity will be shortly given to show how the warrants were obtained from Connolly's office. Connor does not believe that Mayor Hall either had a dollar, or knew what was going on, but blames the Mayor for standing by others, and acting as a child after the facts were known. The burden, it is proved, lies against Tweed. If Ingersoll does not leave he will be arrested and probably lose all his property.

O'Connor's effort is to protect what is left and prevent the occurrence of robberies. He says Tweed hopes to get into the Legislature again and have more corrupt bills passed to get him back to his office in the Board of Public Works, and carry on his former corrupt transactions. This, O'Connor says, must be prevented. Tweed shall have all the investigation he wants.

A levy was made yesterday on the straw goods factory of Vanderhoff & Beatty, for seventy-five thousand dollars interest in that firm, owned by E. A. Woodman upon the suit of Jackson & Schultze, in behalf of the citizens, committee for the city. Levies will be made to-day on the property of Ingersoll, Garvey & Tweed as a company of defendants. Chas. O'Connor declines the candidacy for the Assembly.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY.

ARRESTED.—On Saturday afternoon U. S. Marshal Patrick arrested William H. Kimball on a charge of being accessory to the murder of one Buck, near the Warm Springs, in 1858. The prisoner was taken to Camp Douglas.

NOW IS THE TIME, and it may not last long, for men to prove that they fear God more than they fear fine or imprisonment or even the fulsome piety of a sorrowful judge.

In the argument on admitting Mayor Wells to bail, heard this morning in the District Court, the prosecuting attorney concluded as follows:

"I think that this Court has no legal authority to admit these parties to bail, and, therefore, having no legal authority, I am unwilling that they should be admitted however much my sympathy might prompt me to act otherwise, because my sympathies are always in favor of a man who is in trouble and arraigned for crime, and I would always rather defend than prosecute a man. It is only in extreme cases and when the public benefit requires it, and I think that a certain class of crimes ought to be prosecuted for the benefit of the public, would I ever appear in the capacity of a prosecutor."

These remarks, coming from such a source, called forth a general snicker from the audience. The idea of the speaker having any sympathy with an accused man, especially if the accused was a Mormon, was decidedly ludicrous and every one who knew him laughed. The echo of his words had scarcely died away, when they were palpably falsified by the speaker himself. No sooner had Judge McKean delivered his ruling, which we publish in another column, than this person seized his hat and came in a most angry and contemptuous manner, as though on the point of leaving the court room. He plainly showed the audience how much sympathy he had with the prisoner. The expression on his face was that of brutal malignity, as though nothing less than the annihilation of the accused would satisfy him.

We had an evidence this morning in Court of the high estimate the prosecution place upon President Daniel H. Wells. The assistant prosecuting attorney, the expression of whose face—we say it with all due respect—reminds us of a heavy villain in a melodrama, blurted out, when bail was mentioned, that it ought to be $500,000. This is only five times the amount required of Jeff Davis. We think President Wells was honored by the expression.

SHOT DEAD.—On the night of Friday last a man was shot and killed by Philip Jones, while in the act of stealing and running of the latter's horses. An inquest was held on the body, on Saturday, by Coroner H. S. Beattie and a jury, when the following verdict was rendered:

Coroner's Inquest.

Territory of Utah, County of Salt Lake, South Cottonwood Precinct, Oct. 28th, 1871.

We, the jury, having been duly empanelled and sworn to inquire into the cause of the death of an unknown person, whose body lies here, from the testimony before us, on our oaths, do say the deceased, a man about thirty-five years old, and five feet eight inches in height, came to his death, Oct. 27th, at about 10 o'clock p.m. by pistol shots from the hand of Philip Jones, while in the act of riding away the said Jones' horse.

H. S. BEATTIE, Coroner.

A copy of the evidence given at the inquest and a full description of the deceased are in possession of the Coroner.

BENEFIT OF MR. PHIL. MARGETTS.—

The ever humorous Phil. takes a benefit on Friday night, when, doubtless, the house will be filled. Phil. is popular both on and off the stage. A very attractive bill is being prepared for the occasion, and all the best talent within reach will be brought into requisition. That very artistic and clever actress, Miss Coudock, will give a recitation, and Mr. Charles A. Gould, the champion skater, will appear in one of his skating acts. One of the pieces which will be presented is "The Rose of Ettrick Vale," in which that talented and favorite actor, Mr. David McKenzie, will appear as "Wandering Steenie." Miss A. Adams will personate "the Rose," and Mr. J. A. Thompson, who has not been on the boards for some time, will also appear in the same play.

ESTRAY!

I have in my possession a red and white Steer branded J. U. on left shoulder under slant in left ear. If the above described animal is not claimed within ten days from date, it will be sold to pay expenses.

MIDWIFERY!

I INTEND re-opening my School at Cedar City, where I will teach the Ladies who may wish to learn the science of Midwifery in the Danish and English language. The first term will commence on the first of December this year and the next term on the 20th of February, 1872. It is especially important that young women in our community acquire a knowledge of this science that death may not occur for the want of skillful aid. Those wishing to attend my school, will please send in their names immediately. Terms $0 dollars, [including board.] paid in advance, one half cash and the rest in produce.
