

Thursday, November 10th.—President Cannon, wife, daughter and son started early for the north. The day was spent in the Temple. Apostle John H. Smith and Elder John L. Smith attended a meeting at Santa Clara this evening, as per previous appointment.

Friday, Nov. 11th.—Business pertaining to the Temple was transacted. Visiting and preparations for starting north and east on the morrow occupied the day.

We leave for Toquerville in the morning. Health of the party excellent; weather favorable; a general good time of health in this part of the Territory; everybody pleased with the visit of Pres. Taylor and brethren, and the good kind spirit manifested towards these hardy pioneers. L. J. N.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 11.

Fatal Accident.—We learn from Brother Isaac W. Pierce that last Friday (a week ago to-day) about 12 o'clock, a three year old son of J. W. Jackson, of Glenwood, Sevier Co., fell into the belt of the machine shop and was so badly hurt that he died in a few hours. No blame can be attached to any one, as the little one went to follow his brother who was sent to the shop where the father was working.

Sad Fatality.—About 11 o'clock on November 3rd, Maggie Rebecca, daughter of George and Jane S. Coleman, of Escalante, Iron County, fell, at that place, from a wagon, loaded with adobies and being driven by the father. The girl was run over by one of the hind wheels, crushing the life out of her. All was done that could be to restore vitality, but to no effect—the spirit had fled. There was a general turn out to the funeral.

We learn these details from Brother E. M. Greene.

Immigrants Arrived.—As stated in yesterday's News that they would, the immigrants reached Ogden at 1.20 this morning. At that point a portion of the company remained, while others went north. One hundred and fifty-seven left Ogden this morning, and with the exception of a few that stopped at Centerville and Wood's Cross, reached this city shortly before 1 o'clock.

The company were healthy and had a prosperous journey by sea and land. Elder L. R. Martineau had charge, and was assisted by the other returning Elders.

Goose Creek Items.—We are informed by a person who has just come from that place, that there are about 100 families in Goose Creek Valley, Cassia County, Idaho; that game is very abundant, he having killed thirteen head of deer himself; that the crops the past season, as a general thing, have been very good, and general peace and prosperity prevail.

The little child of Brother Tolman, who was so severely injured by the explosion of gunpowder in the stove, a short time ago, is recovering rapidly from the effects of the accident.

Bad Gunshot Wound.—On Monday about 3 o'clock a young man by the name of James Jakeman, of Glenwood, Sevier Co., accidentally shot himself through the hand and wrist with a shot-gun loaded with duck-shot. He had started to go out to shoot ducks and stopped at the co-op store, placing the gun against the steps at the door. Afterwards while standing on the steps he reached down taking the gun by the muzzle, he drew it up and the hammer caught against a step, causing it to be discharged, the entire load passing in at the palm of the hand and coming out through the upper part of the wrist. The wound was dressed by Brother E. Payne and afterwards Mr. George Ogilvie, of Richfield, was called in and at present it is thought that no bones were broken and the patient is doing well.

For these particulars we are indebted to Bro. L. W. Pierce.

Home Again.—We were greatly pleased to receive a call to-day from Elder Lyman R. Martineau, who presided over the company of immigrants that arrived to-day. He left Utah on the 19th of May, 1879, for England, and has therefore been away about two years and a half. He labored in the ministry, preaching the gospel in the Liverpool Conference during the first half of his mission, and occasionally worked in the business department of the Church office in that city. When Elder Cope was released to return, a year ago, he was placed in charge of the business department, which responsible position he held until he left for home. Being acquainted with his labors and ministry, we say, without hesitation, that they have been in every way highly commendable, and have resulted in much good. He has been the means, in his personal ministry, of bringing quite a number of people into the Church. He returns in good health and spirits, after performing an honorable mission.

A CENTENARIAN DEAD.

ROMANTIC INCIDENTS OF HIS CAREER.

A romantic character breathed his last, in the 13th Ward of this city, at 8.30 last night. We refer to William Falconbridge, a centenarian. He was born October 24th, 1780, at Fritchley, Derbyshire, England, and was consequently turned 101 years of age.

When a young lad he was apprenticed to a stocking maker, in or near his native town. His employer aroused the indignation of the ignorant populace by introducing machinery into his trade, and a furious mob demolished his premises.

After this event the same man bound his apprentice hand and foot and sold him to the English naval press gang, which, in early times, was used to force men into the king's service. He was taken on board the Salvadora, of Lord Cochrane's fleet, and served as cabin boy during a protracted cruise on the coast of Spain.

He was transferred from that vessel to one of the ships composing the fleet of the famous Lord Nelson, and fought under him at the noted battle of Trafalgar, being one of those to whom the historic words, "England expects this day that every man will do his duty," were directed.

Subsequently, while the fleet lay at Plymouth, Brother Falconbridge saw the great Napoleon, as a prisoner of war, when about to be conveyed to St. Helena, pacing the deck of the Bellerophon.

Returning to England, Brother Falconbridge joined the 43rd Regiment of Infantry, where, in the same regiment, he found his father, from whom he had been separated many years—a very romantic circumstance.

He embraced the gospel and came to this country about twenty years ago, and has always faithfully adhered to the faith he espoused. Like English sailors generally, he was of a lively, jolly disposition, and had a heart flowing over with kindly sympathies.

The funeral services will be conducted at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms at 11 a. m. on Sunday. All friends generally, and old English tars especially, are invited to attend.

A LAMENTABLE OCCURRENCE.

DORA DURANT DIES FROM THE EFFECTS OF AN ACCIDENT.

Last Sunday night Dora Durant, eleven years of age, died at Rush Valley, Tooele County, under peculiar circumstances. On the 19th of September last she was standing in the doorway of a house which had been vacated by its tenants. While in that position there was a blinding flash and smoke, accompanied by a terrific explosion. The unfortunate girl's clothing was set on fire. She retained her presence of mind, however, and managed to reach a spring near by, into which she plunged, and in that way extinguished the flames in which she was enveloped. This brave and self-possessed action was not done in time to save her from being fearfully burned nearly all over her body, but especially in the right side. She lingered in great suffering from the time of the accident until Sunday evening when she finally succumbed to her injuries.

The quantity of gunpowder that exploded is said to have been about thirty pounds, and how it came to explode is a mystery. It is stated that some children had been playing in the building immediately preceding the occurrence, and it is supposed they had been using matches.

The parents of the girl, William Durant and wife, brought the remains of their daughter to this city, and they were buried in the cemetery yesterday.

Dora was an extraordinary child. The family formerly lived in Mill Creek ward, and the girl, when about five months old, created something of a sensation in this city, by her extraordinary size for her age. Her size was so remarkable that hundreds visited her home; to see her. At the time of her death she had gained the ordinary proportions of a young woman, though but eleven years old.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 12.

Good News.—A private telegram from Apostle C. C. Rich, states that he is feeling considerably better than when he was last heard from.

Fair and Exhibition.—At Santaquin, Utah County, a children's fair and exhibition were to be held to-day. A lady, who was present at the rehearsal for the exhibition last night, says that it was sure to be a very creditable affair.

Ladies' Societies.—As stated in the News in the early part of the week, a number of prominent ladies connected with various organizations of the sex left this city for Utah County, last Monday afternoon, being joined by Sister Smoot at Provo.

On Tuesday, they attended meetings at Payson, in the morning, afternoon and evening, all of which were well attended, the last one being especially crowded.

On Wednesday afternoon and evening meetings were held at Spanish Fork, where the same interest in the proceedings was manifested; also on Thursday, at 11 a. m. The same evening an overflowing and interesting meeting was held at Santaquin, and at the latter place two excellent meetings were held yesterday.

This morning Sister Wells came home, Sister E. S. Taylor having got back on Wednesday. Sisters E. R. S. Snow and Louie Felt went to Goshen.

Next Tuesday there will be three meetings connected with the Ladies' Societies in the city of Provo.

At every place the ladies visited they were cordially welcomed, and the brethren attended and took a hearty interest in the proceedings.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

DAVID D. MORGAN IS CRUSHED TO DEATH UNDER TEN TONS OF COAL.

About three o'clock yesterday afternoon David D. Morgan, a coal miner, employed by Messrs. David and A. L. Williams, at the Pleasant Valley mines, was instantly killed, while at work. The deceased was a very capable miner, and for that reason had been offered work for which increased pay was given, and none but experienced miners are allowed by the Williams Brothers to do it. It is to take out the coal from the roof of the mine that is left by the more inexperienced hands. He appeared pleased to have the opportunity of doing this kind of labor, being confident he could work it without danger. Yesterday, however, something over ten tons of the coal fell from the roof and buried him. When he was found by his fellow-workmen, a short time afterwards, only one arm protruded from the mass under which he lay crushed. He was extricated with all possible dispatch, but he had breathed his last, having been, to all appearance, instantaneously killed.

This morning the body was brought to this city accompanied by Mr. David Williams and five of the fellow-workmen of the deceased. The widow of the Mr. Morgan lives in the 13th Ward, and as she had not been apprised of the lamentable occurrence, on the arrival in this city, one of the men was sent on ahead of the body to break the sad news to the unfortunate woman.

David D. Morgan was about 54 years old, a native of Wales, although he lived 25 years in Pennsylvania. He came to Utah about a year ago. He bore the reputation of being a quiet, orderly and respectable citizen. We understand that no blame for the accident is attachable to any one.

It would be supposed from its popularity that only one substance is now known to the world for the relief of rheumatism, and that is St. Jacobs Oil.—St. Louis (Mo.) Dispatch.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 14.

Coming Home.—Elder James H. Hart left Omaha, yesterday, homeward bound.

Home Again.—President George Q. Cannon arrived in the city yesterday, from his trip to the South.

Information Wanted of a family named Owen, who left Owen Street, City Road, Manchester, England, about 20 years ago. Any information concerning them will be thankfully received by an old friend of the family. Address this Office.

From the Southern States.—A company of Saints from the Southern States, 60 in number, passed through Omaha on Saturday evening, bound for Utah. They are in charge of Elders Hill, Moyle and Laker.

Another company of about the same number, in charge of Elder John Morgan, passed through St. Louis on Saturday morning, on their way to Colorado.

Destructive Fire in Stockton.—There was a destructive fire at Stockton, Utah, which commenced late on Saturday night, and prevailed during the earlier part of Sunday morning. It originated between Mr. Wilson's store and the Stockton House, and is considered the work of an incendiary. Nearly one half of the business part of the town is destroyed, the flames having taken in all the buildings between General Connor's residence and Bracken & Young's store.

Back Again.—To-day we had the pleasure of meeting Elder Alexander Burt, of this city, just returned from Scotland, where he labored 16 months as a missionary. His first ministry in that country was in Edinburgh and vicinity, and the latter portion of his time abroad was spent in Ayrshire. While operating as a missionary, he had the satisfaction of baptizing nineteen new members. He returns in excellent health, pleased that he had the privilege of preaching the gospel abroad.

Good.—Brother James L. Bunting, Counselor to the President of Kanab Stake, has been in town for a few days and will leave for home to-morrow. He reports everything prosperous in the section where he is located. Crops, especially fruit, have been abundant. Seven thousand pounds of dried fruit, sold in this city by him a day or two since, arrived from Kanab to-day. Several of the newly arrived immigrants, go south with him to-morrow. Brother Bunting has been continuing his mission work since returning from England by leaving no stone unturned to get the people among whom he labored in that country out to Utah. He has been successful in several instances. He does not forget his friends.

Returned Missionaries.—This morning we received a call from the following brethren, who returned on Friday from missions to England:

Elder R. F. Gould, who left Utah October 20th, 1879. He labored until his return in the Liverpool Conference. He, in company with Elder J. W. Vickers, raised up a branch of the Church at Ashton, near Wigan. Subsequently he also raised up another at Warrington.

Elder J. W. Vickers, who left Utah October, 1879, labored in Liverpool Conference, associated with Elder Gould, the first part of his mission. The latter part of his ministry was in the Norwich Conference. He enjoyed his labors.

Elder Grundway Parry went to Pennsylvania October, 1879, where he labored six months, then went to England, labored in the Welsh Conference, and afterwards in the Sheffield Conference. He enjoyed his mission.

Elder David M. Evans left this city in April of the present year and labored in the Wigan district of the Liverpool Conference. His health being very poor he was released to return in consequence.

The Missing Names.—When the names of the last company of emigrants that sailed from Liverpool Oct. 22d were published, we stated that a portion of the list had not reached us. It has now come to hand, and we herewith publish it that the record may be complete:

John and Elizabeth Spackman; Thomas, Hannah, Mary A. and Sarah E. Stevens; Jessie Carter; Jeanie Thompson; Emily Cutler.

A SUICIDE FOILED.

O. P. DEAN CONFESSES TO HAVING KILLED WM. FREELY.

We learn from the Ogden Herald that a man who registered at the Keeney House, in that town, attempted suicide by poison between four and five o'clock p. m., last Friday. After the act was discovered the proprietor of the hotel summoned Dr. M. Jones, who called Dr. A. S. Condon to his assistance. Emetics were prepared, but the patient refused to take them and force had to be used. Several strong men were called upon to assist. They threw him upon the bed, held him firmly down, and while the would-be suicide's nostrils were pressed close and his mouth forced open, the emetics were poured down his throat. In course of time the deadly drug was removed from the stomach, and the danger of death averted.

A reporter elicited the following statement from the would-be self-murderer:

"He said, 'John Hill is a name I have assumed, and by which I have been known for nearly three years. My true name is Oziah Pinkney Dean. My home is in Alma, Arkansas, where I have a wife and two children, a boy and a girl. I have a sister who married a man named Freely, who was in the habit of abusing her in a savage manner. His treatment continued so long and severe that after many ineffectual attempts to induce him to refrain from his cruelties, one day in January, 1879, I killed him and fled from the country. Since that time I have traveled and worked in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, California, and in the Wood River Country, from which place I came to Ogden yesterday.'"

Mr. E. Purcell, No. 11 Ann street, New York, used Jacobs Oil for rheumatism with entire relief—writes a New York journal.—Richmond (Va.) Christian Advocate.
