A MOHAIR SUIT ON NEW LOOSE LINES.

This little traveling suit of blue mobals is smartly up to the spring minute in style, and the straight, loose mode) will be much used without doubt for mohair, pongee and linen suits all summer-particularly the last sort, for the simple lines will launder very satisfactorily. There are no lapels but the front buttons sungly to the throat, where a little turnover collar festens with broad ties in a smart how. The skirt also is most simply out and bone buttons like those on the coat outline the front gure.

A meeting of the Decaphters of Utch Pioneers was held in the Lion House on Wednesday, President Mionie H. James president. An interesting and instructive talk on "Pioneer Schools" was given by Mrs. Caudilla Cohb, reciting incidents and conditions which extend when she came herte in 1859. The first echool she taught was in the Fifteenth ward in a small room, without any convenience. Prof. Carl. G. Masser teaching the large ones, Mrs. Cohb the small ones. Their tuition was paid in cabbage, carrots, poistoss, beats, incluses and when they had burier or eggs they were well paid. Their next school was in the Twentieth ward, here they had three teachers, the room somewhat improved but the same say. When the ward people wanted the room somewhat improved but the same say.
