AMERICAN FORK.

AMERICAN FORK, - March 10, 1904.

Barn Burned.

H. E. Hunter had his barn and contents burned down last night. About fifty tons of hay, two sets of harness and some other things were consumed. The barn was a frame building, and the loss was estimated at $1,500. The cause of the fire is believed to have been the work of vandals.

Miscellaneous Notes.

The roads are quite bad in many places.

"Hill fruit" has taken a sudden tumble in keeping with the dull times.

Spring has come and a few plows have started to turn over the soil. The busy season is at hand.

Bishop William D. Robinson and wife are leaving for the meeting house in and planting the plant out in some of the orchards.

Considerable snow is about. Altho it is not so much as it was yesterday, it is still enough to make the roads slippery.

The Sunday school teachers at Pleasant Grove gave a grand ball and lunch last night for the benefit of the Baptist school. It proved a social and financial success.

Assessor Lund is distributing tax blanks throughout the county. These papers are to be returned by the property owners to the assessor's office.

A couple of Laid Indians were arrested here last night for disturbing the peace. The justice fined one $10 and the other $5. A few more Americans have been arrested for disturbing the peace.

Where Grandfather's Farm.

The owners of works of art not only in England, but throughout Europe, are anxious to see the exhibition of the famous collection of the Grandfather's Farm.

On the other hand, if the owners of the collection are not so anxious to see the exhibition, they are not so anxious to see the exhibition.

The exhibition of the collection of the Grandfather's Farm is a very interesting one. It is a collection of the works of art of the Grandfather's Farm.
