ADJACENT CITIES

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - NOVEMBER 9, 1891.

Fourth District Court.

The following business was transacted in "law and motion days" by Judge Miner:

John Simmons and William Peterson, who had previously been sentenced to one year each in the penitentiary for burglary, were ordered released from custody, as sentence was suspended during good behavior.

Ten days' further time was granted the defendant in which to prepare and serve bill of exceptions to the reply memo of the People against Robert Adams.

The motion of Messrs. Rann & Smith to have the O. E. Hot exhibit element case set for Nov. 9th was denied.

Fifteen days' further time was granted defendant to prepare and serve statement on motion for new trial in the case of E.O. Allen vs Logan City.

In the case of Sidney Stevens et al vs G. R. Belnap and others, demurrer to complaint was submitted without argument.

In the case of Davis and Rankin Manufacturing company vs M. L. Ensign et al., G. D. Hodge was appointed referee to take the testimony and report in full to the court.

The divorce case of Margaretta C. Sullivan vs J. J. Sullivan was referred to J. I. Smith to take testimony on motion now pending for alimony, and report to court.

In the case of Edgar Jones vs the Colorado and Utah Canning company, the receiver was ordered to pay the coupon notes of interest due W. S. Beales.

Jacob Lowe brought a damage suit of $500 against Henry Eddington and the Casey Wagon and Machine company for unlawfully removing personal property belonging to the plaintiff.

Broom Hotel Reopened.

Yesterday the once popular hostelry the Broom hotel was reopened to the public, after having been closed for several months. Mr. Hester Broom, widow of the late John Broom, will be represented by George F. Brown and William Broom.

A New Coal Company.

It is said the coal question of this city will have a competitor after all, and that the price will not be advanced. This if true will be very acceptable news to the masses, if not to the classes. The competitor referred to is Judge Smith Stout of Provo, wholesale merchants of this city, who are somewhat interested in the coal industry at Coalville, and who are now entering the field.

General and Personal.

Deputy Marshal Ballantyne has been at Coalville for the past few days disposing of the Smith and Wills stock of merchandise. The firm was closed up under attachments and the stock has now been sold, during the week the book accounts and notes including will be sold to satisfy their creditors.

John Heimendinger loaded up on hot whisky and went to the restaurant kept by J. S. Davis. There he had a good meal, but when Mr. Davis wanted his pay for the meal John refused to settle. Thereupon Davis selfact out and sent Officer Sullivan had the man in tow. This morning the defendant will be interviewed by Justice Clemens.

The county court will be in session this morning for the first time in two weeks.

Ex-Governor Emery is now at the Hoel, where he will remain a day or two before returning to his home in Boston.

Tonight the Republicans of this city will have a parade and torchlight procession, while the Democrats will have a rally of their forces at the Grand Opera house. This is the last effort of the two great parties prior to the election tomorrow.

Mayor Lundy has issued a proclamation to the effect that all saloons and drinking places will be closed from 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Saunders the Utah Canning company shipped a car load of canned tomatoes to Helena, Montana.

Elder Joseph Wamsley of Provo escaped the dust yesterday at the Tabernacle services.

Four cars of Utah potatoes and one of beets and were sent east Saturday over the Union Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald left last week for Iowa, where they will remain a couple of weeks on a visit.

The paving of Twenty-fifth street is nearly completed; probably Mr. Benning touches will be made by tonight, and then the question city can boast of the paved street.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - NOV. 9, 1891.

Political.

On Friday evening the Republicans of Logan held a monster rally in the Tabernacle Opera house. Honorables James T. Hammond and Frank J. Cannon were the speakers. The building was crowded.

On Saturday evening the Democrats held a mammoth meeting in the same place, at which many of their nominees and others addressed the people.

A Debating Society, etc.

The students of the B. Y. college have organized a debating society, and will hold meetings once each week to discuss leading questions of interest to the people who are interested in current events.

On Friday evening, the occasion being the close of the first term of the school year, the students gave a ball.

Death.

Last Tuesday morning Mrs. Mary Williams died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Hansen, at the ripe age of 85 years. The funeral services were held yesterday, and Varin was a numerous attendance.

Natural Gas.

Natural gas is being used by two families at Smithfield to the entire satisfaction of themselves and the envy of their neighbors. One well there, the property of Mr. William Tomkins, is very powerful, and the supply is apparently inexhaustible.

Surveyors at Work.

The surveyors of the proposed Utah & Wyoming railway are still in the valley, and judging from the note taken in surveying the proposed route the company means business. And there is some prospect of overcoming the rapacity of the U. P.

HAS CURED

Insomnia, Incipient Bright's Diabetes, Kidney Troubles, Indigestion, Nervous Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Constipation, Gravel, Rheumatism, Catarrh of the Bowels, Liver Difficulties, Female Complaints, Ulcers and Inflammation of the Bladder.

SEE WHAT IT HAS DONE FOR ME

I am so glad to say that I am free from the deaf. A few months ago I had given myself up as deaf, and by accident heard of Miller's Geneva Mineral Water, from Geneva, New York. I called at the Water House in Portland, Oregon. I told the agent I had been afflicted for many years with what is called Catarrh, or inflammation of the bladder, also diabetes, that I had lost fifty pounds weight in the last year, and that I would soon pass to another sphere. I have spent thousands of dollars on doctors and medicines, and all to no avail, and was using more medicine all the time for the last six years, by the time I had used five gallons of the Geneva Water I was completely well. Oh, hear me, all you that are afflicted and suffering with Chronic Troubles or Bright's Disease of any kind, the Geneva Mineral Water will cure you. It has cured me.

Come and see me and judge for yourself. In Post office Block, Salt Lake City.
