

CLIPPINGS.

—Artemus Ward says: "The world continues to resolve round on her own axletree once in 24 hours, subject to the Constitution of the United States."

—No less than 1,600 steamboats run upon the Mississippi river and its tributaries. The total value of these is estimated at $60,000,000. The Mississippi river drains an area of 1,200,000 square miles, washes the shores of twelve States, and from the Gulf of Mexico to the source of the Missouri it is 4,500 miles in length. Its average depth is fifty feet, and its width over half a mile.

—A missionary residing at Karadine, Ceylon, a place famous for venomous reptiles, says that he has killed within a short time, twenty-six cobra di capellos and twenty-two pudaran snakes. The bite of the former is certain death.

—Among the curiosities of the census in Virginia, it appears that there are neither slaves nor free negroes in McDowell county—in the southwestern portion of the State. There is one free negro in each of the following counties—Boone, Buchanan, Calhoun, Doddridge, Hancock, Logan and Roane. There are two in Marion, Nicholas, and Wotzel and three in Braxton. There are only two slaves in Hancock (one of the "Pan Handle" counties,) and three in Webster. In no other county except McDowell, are there less than ten slaves.

—It is reported that a young Gentleman graduated at Yale, recently, with a white head and whiskers, who entered with auburn locks and no beard. The change took place in one night, on account of the anxiety incident to a biennial examination.

—One hundred and four Musquaque Indians have renounced their savage habits, and settled in Tama county, Iowa, on farms.

—A midwife in Leicester, England, convicted of procuring an abortion, has been sentenced to be hanged.

—A diver at Kingston, Ja., recently recovered one thousand dollars worth of ivory from a ship sunk in the harbor of that city one hundred years ago.

—While Rev. Mr. Randolph was preaching in the Colored Baptist Church, at Marysville, Cal., one Sunday not long since, he was interrupted by two or three of the sisters, who accused him of preaching false doctrine, and they dragged him out of the pulpit by the wool, and beat him over the head with the pulpit Bible.

—A notorious Abolitionist announces that he will lecture on the gallows. The Louisville Journal hopes that he will get the hang of the subject.

—Fifteen thousand applications for Post Office appointments had been filed in the Post Office Department up to the first of April.

—In Paris a billiard table has been invented, which may be used for a dinner table, a chest of drawers, a bed, a bathing tub and a stove. It will enable the lover of the game to eat, drink and sleep with his billiards.

—Ellen Smith has recovered $4,000 of Francis Clementon, of Ohio, for breach of promise of marriage, after twenty years' courtship. Two hundred dollars a year for waiting does not appear to be more than she is entitled to.

—A deliriously drunken planter, Charles Argum, in Sumter County, Fla., a few weeks ago, shot five of his negroes dead while they were at work in the field.

—It is announced in the Mobile Tribune that a purse of $100,000 has been raised by some wealthy gentlemen of Mississippi, which will be given to the first member of the "Mississippi Rifles" who puts his feet on Fort Pickens in time of war.

—The lineal descendant of George Calvert, Lord Baltimore, and the representative of that once noble Family which founded the colony of Maryland, has been for eight years an imprisoned debtor in London.

—Gambling is said to be carried to an extraordinary extent, just now, in Athens, Greece, where there are no less than 5,000 gaming-houses.

—It is said that the police of New York now cost the sum of a million and three-quarters of dollars per annum—and yet it cannot stop a dog-fight!

—The N. O. Delta advises the coinage of cents by the Confederate States Government, with the head of Jefferson Davis on them.

—A Russian serf and criminal who passed himself off as a Polish nobleman, married a Nottingham, Eng., clergyman's daughter and robbed him of $2,000. The clergyman had him before a police magistrate in hopes of recovering his money—his daughter's disgrace it is said—troubled him but little.

—A cowhiding affair took place in Washington, recently. Lady insulted—false friend—indignant husband. False friend was taken in the back yard and whipped severely. When asked why he did not resist, he replied that he felt too guilty to resist the castigation.

—"Do you belong to this church, sir?" queried a gentleman to a friend who was one of the heavy men of the town where the other was visiting, and who seemed much interested in the church they had been attending. "No sir," replied the rich man, "quite the reverse, for the church belongs to me."

ON the Night of the 4th inst., out of my corral, at the point of the West Mountain, one Spanish bay MARE, white strip in face, three white feet, Spanish brand on left thigh, also branded P on left hip; she was heavy with foal.
Also, was taken at same time and place, one mare Pinto COLT, about two years old, red ears, heavy mane and tail, branded P on left hip, and a quite kind of its mother. A long manilla lariat rope was taken with the animals. An Indian was seen with the above animals passing Tooele city, on the morning of the 5th (Sunday), making his way towards Rush Valley. The supposition is that it is the intention of the Indian to find a market for the animals at or near Fort Crittenden.
