THE LEE TRIAL

Address of E. D. Hooper, Esq., of Denver, to the Jury, in the Second District Court, at Denver, August 1st, 1875.

Gentlemen of the Jury, look at this man Klingensmith, and say if you believe him to be a murderer...

Not even old age, and the soothing influences of time, with its gentle tread, can stamp out or efface the damning marks of crime upon his forehead...

Added from the circumstances already enumerated and which tend to show that Klingensmith is unworthy of belief, there is another circumstance of a more convincing nature...

Suppose the witness should come up and stand and testify, and after having detailed a story which was calculated to fasten the guilt of a horrible crime upon the prisoner at the bar...

Hardware Dept. The Family! The No. 6.

Twenty-five years in successful use and still the popular Family Machine! The beauty of its work and wide range of application on all kinds of material, sewing with either cotton, silk or linen thread, and its never getting out of order, have made it the pride and joy of nearly one million homes!

Its claims for simplicity of construction, ease of operation and management, quietness of movement and durability, are beyond controversy. Give it a trial and you will buy no other. Thorough instructions given in its use.

The No. 7. This machine is especially designed to fill a want long felt by manufacturers of clothing, and is constructed upon the same principle as the No. 6. It is capable of higher rate of speed than shuttle machines, is lighter running and can be regulated for work quicker than any machine heretofore used by tailors.

By a simple change of the presser foot it can be used for all kinds of Family Sewing or Dressmaking. Give the No. 7 a trial and you will buy no other. Thorough instructions given in its use.
