Beecher and the Workingmen.

CAN EIGHT PERSONS BE SUPPORTED ON A DOLLAR A DAY?

To the Editor of the Sun:

Sir—I am a laboring man, at present out of work, and how long it will last I know not. I hope you will publish this for the benefit of my fellow laborers, who, with me, have always considered the Rev. H. W. B. a friend to the poor man. A bitter feeling was created in my heart towards the Rev. H. W. Beecher while reading his sermon delivered in the Plymouth Church, last Sunday night. He says that we, the laboring men, say that $1 a day is not enough to support a wife and six children. It was not enough, he said, if the man sinned, if he drank beer, and if he and his family wanted superior clothing, food and shelter. But, said Mr. B. vehemently, is not $1 a day enough to buy bread? And water costs nothing, and a man that can't live on bread is not fit to live.

Can Mr. Beecher, who receives $20,000 per year, judge how much a laboring man can live on? Could or would Mr. Beecher be able to support a family of eight on $1 a day?

Will any man of sense uphold Mr. Beecher in his theory that a family of eight can be supported on $1 per day without some of them begging or stealing? Does not the city of Brooklyn pay seventeen cents a day for feeding its thieves, house-breakers, and vagrants, without supplying them with clothes, nor yet giving them tobacco or beer? Now, if Mr. Beecher will mutiply seventeen by eight, he will see that it is $1.36. Now, if it costs $1.36 a day to feed eight thieves, how much will it cost to feed, clothe, and pay rent for a laboring man, wife, and six children? Will Mr. Beecher please inform us, as it may be be intended his $1 a day to mean for food alone? Oh, H. W. B., little did you think of $1 per day, when you issued your vehement orders at the Pierrepont House, Brooklyn. I know, and s does the rest of the world knowo that read your sermon in the Eagle, that you were merely pandering to the feelings of the rich members of your church. I regret the acts that are now taking place, but your remarks, Mr. Beecher, have created a strong spirit of mutiny in the hearts of honest, faithful laboring men, more so than the reduction of ten per cent. would have done.

JOHN LAFEVRE, laborer,
56 Division Avenue, Brooklyn.
—New York Sun.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Bill Hanson, better known as "Frontier Bill," while pursuing a herd of mustangs near Hat Creek, was thrown from his horse and knocked senseless, in which state he lay for several hours. When he recovered his horse was gone and his wounds pained him so badly that he could not walk. He managed with great difficulty to crawl on his hands to a pool of water some fifty rods from the place where he fell. He remained here during the next day and night without a mouthful to eat, and the water of the pool having given out, he started out on his hands and knees in search of more. About twelve o'clock on the second day he says he was so hungry and so thirsty and lame and tired that he could go no further, and crawled under a tree, and stretched himself out to die. While lying thus, bordering on the insensible, he heard the leaves shake near him and wearily turned his head in the direction of the noise. To his terror and astonishment he espied a large rattlesnake reaching for him. The sight of the venomous reptile banished hunger, thirst and pain for the moment, and he raised up on his elbow and endeavored to scare the scaly thing away. The snake struck at him twice and then glided away. The adventure aroused him somewhat, and he made another endeavor to reach water. Finally, after much pain and suffering, he crawled into the Cheyenne road, and could get no further. Next morning a ranchman located on Hat Creek found him there lying on his face, insensible and almost dead. He was taken to the ranch and cared for.—Deadwood Champion, July 14.

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows Instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA, 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875

PHILADELPHIA, 1876;

and have thus been awarded highest honors at

Organs sold for cash or on installments, or rented until rent pays. Every Organ warranted to give entire satisfaction to every reasonable purchaser or THE MONEY REFUNDED. ☞ ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.
