

OUR FOREIGN POLICY DEFINED

"Never Draw Unless You Mean to Shoot," Says the President.

A GREAT NAVY IS NEEDED.

War With Spain Made It Necessary
The United States Be Dominant
Power in the Pacific.

Tacoma, Wash., May 22.—The president's train, which crossed the Columbia river from Oregon today, had a live bear cub attached to a pole on the tender. The president was greatly interested in the little fellow, and boarding the engine, patted its head. The bear failed to appreciate the honor that was paid him, however, and while the train was being shunted on to the ferry, signified his disapproval by uttering baby growls.

WELCOMED TO TACOMA.

Under a favoring blue sky, the President's train rolled into the Northern Pacific depot promptly at 4 o'clock this afternoon. A multitude thronged the streets about the station and rent the air with cheers. Mayor Campbell entered the car and welcomed the president. Little time was lost in the official reception. While the introduction to the committee was made, the guns of the revenue cutter McCulloch, lying in the harbor, gave a salute of 21 guns.

As the president emerged from the canopy of flags at the station and entered the carriage, he was surrounded by Gov. McBride, Mayor Campbell and Secy. Loeb, the crowd broke into cheers, which the president promptly acknowledged. Fifteen minutes later, the president, while an escort of mounted police and cavalry formed a guard.

At Division avenue the escort of G. A. R. and Spanish-American war veterans dropped out of the parade and the president was given a ride through the residence section, passing many of the public school buildings where the children were grouped and gave him an enthusiastic reception. All the business and residence streets were profusely decorated with flags and festoons. Pictures of the president were to be seen on all sides. The streets were packed with enthusiastic people and the demonstrations kept the president leaving his acknowledgments.

Aside from the presidential party the distinguished guests in carriages included, among others, Senators A. G. Foster and Senator Levi Anthony of Washington; Senator Mitchell of Oregon, Congressman Cushman, Jones and Humphrey of Washington; Brig.-Gen. Fugate, Capt. Hamilton, commandant of the naval station at Bremerton; President C. S. Mellen of the Northern Pacific, Capt. Bostwick, U. S. N.; Capt. Coulson, commandant of the revenue cutter McCulloch, and a number of mayors of neighboring cities.

While the drive about the city was in progress the crowd thronged Wright street and the president was to address the people. About the grandstand were massed the G. A. R. and Spanish-American veterans, while a cordon of police kept the way clear. The beautiful attractions of the park had been added the embellishments of Jewish decorations in flags, bunting and triumphal arches. The high school of women and children and the vivid green of the shrubbery combined to make a brilliant scene of life and color. The president, who was seated in the grandstand, bowed and took his seat in a magnificent chair made of oak leaves, a gift to him from the citizens of the city and expressed his admiration to Secy. Loeb.

Without delay, Mayor Campbell stepped forward and greeted the president, who was again greeted with a burst of cheers, which he smilingly acknowledged.

A TEXAS TROOPER.

Looking down at the Spanish-American veterans, the president said he understood a man who was in his regiment in Cuba war in the grandstand and he invited him to come upon the platform. Mayor Campbell then presented Otto Winter, who was a Texas trooper in the Cuban campaign. The president shook his hand cordially and said: "Were you with the Texans? Well, I'm really glad to see you. How are you getting along?" and the president shook his hand warmly again. Then he asked the committee, as a personal favor, that Winter be allowed to accompany the party on the steamer tomorrow on the ride on the sound.

THE SHOTS THAT COUNT.

"The only shots that count are the shots that hit," believe in marksmanship, said the president. "You and I, my comrades, who fought ashore, had a simpler task in learning how to handle our weapons. But of a new sort of marksmanship in advance; if we did not we had our time learning it. But get in a big ship, and any man who has been on any ship is a marksmanship. To handle delicate bit of machinery. To handle the guns in the gun turrets, to handle the ship itself means the training of a specialist. You can take the best men alive and put them upon one of our modern battleships, and unless they have had some training the fact that they are the best men alive will not help them. They have got to have the training; and it was because our officers and men were trained well that when the crucial minute came we not only held them, but we won at a minimum of loss to ourselves and a maximum of damage to the enemy."

PREPARE THE NAVY.

"I ask that you, the sovereigns of the country—for you are the sovereigns, and therefore you are not to be excused if you do not exercise your duty in preparing the navy in time of peace goes on. The last Congress did its duty, no more than its duty, by going on with the building up of the navy, and see to it that the next Congress ends with a record as good. If we stop we go back. The only way to keep on building is to keep on providing that they shall be the best of their kind, and then to provide for the men on them, and for training them in sea practice, will make them in their turn the best of their kind; and I believe—I do not want to boast—I believe that I will give him a chance, at least as good as anyone else; that the man on our ships, in our army, will do everything that we can possibly demand of him. If we give him the chance, and because he is such a good man I ask that you give him the chance. It has been a great and a real pleasure to see you."

SUREST GUARANTY OF PEACE.

"The surest guaranty of peace is an adequate navy. The best possible insurance against war is an adequate navy. I ask for a navy primarily because it is the surest means of keeping peace, and because it is the surest means, surely there can be no American who will tolerate the idea of having anything other than a successful issue. In the fighting in Manila and in the fighting in 1898, in which such ships as the Olympia and the Oregon, named here from the northwestern coast, built on the Pacific coast, did their part, what controlled the issue of those fights—what was done at the moment? No, the preparation that had been made in advance. The ships that won the victories of Manila and Santiago had been built years before, when there was no thought and could have been no thought of war with Spain."

THE SHOTS THAT COUNT.

"The only shots that count are the shots that hit," believe in marksmanship, said the president. "You and I, my comrades, who fought ashore, had a simpler task in learning how to handle our weapons. But of a new sort of marksmanship in advance; if we did not we had our time learning it. But get in a big ship, and any man who has been on any ship is a marksmanship. To handle delicate bit of machinery. To handle the guns in the gun turrets, to handle the ship itself means the training of a specialist. You can take the best men alive and put them upon one of our modern battleships, and unless they have had some training the fact that they are the best men alive will not help them. They have got to have the training; and it was because our officers and men were trained well that when the crucial minute came we not only held them, but we won at a minimum of loss to ourselves and a maximum of damage to the enemy."

STATE OF KANSAS IS STORM SWEEP

Cyclone Strikes Town of Bala,
Killing Two Little Girls.

HOUSES ALL BLOWN DOWN.

A Path Forty Rods Wide Cleared—
Solomon Valley Devastated—
Church at Salina Unroofed.

Topeka, Kan., May 22.—A dispatch from Clay Center says that at 4:30 today a cyclone struck the little town of Bala, in Riley county. Two little girls named Dora and Mary were killed. The storm struck part of Clay county, but as far as known nobody was killed. At Bala nearly all the houses in town were blown away, telegraph wires were blown down and much other damage done. The cyclone cleared a path 40 rods wide, moving just east of Broughton and west of Gatesville, in Clay county. A Union Pacific train at Wakefield narrowly escaped being caught in the storm. Heavy rain and hail followed the cyclone.

SOLOMON VALLEY DEVASTATED.

Ableton, Kan., May 22.—The cyclone swept up the Solomon valley at 4 o'clock this afternoon, then turned eastward and passed between Talmage and Manchester about two miles north of the former. It struck the buildings on the farm of H. C. Harvey, a former representative in the legislature. The family went to the cellar and the falling house injured Mr. Harvey seriously and perhaps fatally. All the buildings were ruined. On Williams' farm the house and buildings were destroyed. On Edward Gibson's farm the buildings except the house were wiped out. The storm then coursed north-east, killing cattle and destroying some barns, until it broke near Iola.

CHURCH UNROOFED AT SALINA.

Salina, Kan., May 22.—The worst hailstorm in the history of Salina visited this place tonight. Nearly every window in the town was broken. The hail broke through corrugated iron roofs on the business houses, and the falling hail injured Mr. Harvey seriously and perhaps fatally. All the buildings were ruined. On Williams' farm the house and buildings were destroyed. On Edward Gibson's farm the buildings except the house were wiped out. The storm then coursed north-east, killing cattle and destroying some barns, until it broke near Iola.

BOY ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

Helen, Mont., May 22.—The police last night arrested Harry Anderson, a colored boy aged 14, on the charge that he set fire to the Montana club building, which was destroyed by the fire April 28. The boy confessed that he did so and that he also started a fire in the building two days previously and had since set fire to two buildings. He stated that he did it to see the fire department run. The boy was employed at the club to run the elevator. In addition to confessing to the police the boy confessed to his father.

NEW PHILIPPINE COINS FOR SALE.

Washington, May 22.—The bureau of insular affairs, with the approval of Secy. Root, has authorized the sale of 1,000 sets of the seven new Philippine coins that recently have been made by the United States mint at $2 per set, the value being 6 cents. The proceeds will be turned over to the Philippine treasury. There has been quite a demand for the sets of coins from collectors.

CASE OF WM. RATCLIFFE.

English Ambassador Wants an Accounting for Destruction of Property
Denver, Colo., May 22.—Gov. Peabody has received a letter from Sir Michael Herbert, the English ambassador to the United States, has demanded an accounting for the destruction of the property of William Ratcliffe at Grand Mesa lake about a year ago.

DEPOT DEMOLISHED.

Vermilion, Kan., May 22.—A cyclone struck here this evening. The Missouri Pacific depot was destroyed.

MUCH PROPERTY DESTROYED.

Ashland, Kan., May 22.—A cyclone more severe than that of yesterday swept through this section this afternoon. Nobody was hurt, but much property was destroyed. Fifteen head of horses belonging to David K. Linger were carried away and destroyed by wind and then killed. Two hundred cattle were killed. Eight farm houses and a school house were demolished.

DEPOT DEMOLISHED.

Vermilion, Kan., May 22.—A cyclone struck here this evening. The Missouri Pacific depot was destroyed.
