The Senate, in executive session catified the treaty with the Khedive of Egypt, and the convention relating to the boundary lines between this country and Mexico. The treaty with the Khedive extends to the United States the commercial privileges which Great Britain enjoys by virtue of the treaty between Egypt and Greece, made about a year ago. The treaty made with Mexico recognizes the principles of international law in the set-tlement of disputes which may occur over the changing bed of the Rio Grande river.

Nominations.

A number of nominations were sent to the Capitol to-day, but arrived after the adjournment of the Senate. It is understood that they consisted of nominations under the State Department, but the particulars were not dis-closed. Prominent Tennessee democrats assert, however, that ex-Congressman Atkins was named in the list as commissioner of Indian affairs, and t is rumored that John B. Stoll, of Indiana, was named for the position of
