

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1895, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

5 O'clock
EDITION.

SIGNAL FIRES.

Indian Messages Blazing
on the Mountains.

SALT LAKERS GO HOME.

A Band of Hooligans Gone to the Scene of Trouble.

THE RONIN DEFY THE POLICE.

A Hooligan Conflict May Break Out
At Home.—The Situation
Has Escalated.

Anti-Indian Riots in New Mexico.

PALMIRA, Idaho, July 25.—Signal fires are lighted on the mountains.
The Indians send ponies back for more ammunition.

INDIANS ALREADY RETURN.

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 25.—Boyz
of Sherman's family and other Salt Lake
people who are advertising in this section for presents will return home on assumption of the Indian state.

ASSUMPTION IN THE SITUATION.

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 25.—The conflict in southwestern Wyoming
where the Indians are at the warpath and injured many.

Adjutant General Officer, Wyoming,
a sorry valuing in bear that a negotiation occurred between the
soldiers and Indians in Jackson Hole, Wyoming.

A band of Sioux Indians, under the leadership of Jim Balliett, has arrived at the seat of power.
If they reach the belligerents in the Fort Hall valley before troops get there, they undoubtedly will be assaulted.

INDIANS DEFY THE POLICE.

Washington, July 25.—Indians
Agent, Fort Hall, Idaho, Indians resented the order of the agent that the police not interfere with the military when it comes to the protection of the Indians.

Adjutant General Officer, Wyoming,
a sorry valuing in bear that a
negotiation occurred between the
soldiers and Indians in Jackson Hole,
Wyoming.

INDIANS DEFY THE POLICE.

INDIANS ALREADY RETURN.

INDIANS DEFY THE POLICE.

INDIANS DEFY THE POLICE.