Why Does It Cure

Not because it contains Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents each greatly strengthened and enriched by this peculiar combination. It effects phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels.

Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, rheumatism, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system.

There is no real substitute for it. If urged to buy any preparation said to be "just as good" you may be sure it is inferior, costs less to make, and yields the dealer a larger profit.

Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form, called Sarsalabs. 100 Doses One Dollar.

NATURE'S REMEDIES FOR DIS-EASE.

Nature provides more effective remedies in the roots and herbs of the field than were ever produced from drugs.

Thirty years ago, Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass. discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy made from roots and herbs, which has proved more efficacious in curing women's diseases than any other medicine the world has ever known, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is looked upon everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

President Josiah Calk preaching the funeral discourse.

Weeks, Sidney.—At Sunny Dell, Fremont county, Ida., Sidney Weeks died April 14 of pneumonia, after a short illness. He leaves a wife and 14 children to mourn his departure. He was born in 1842 in Kent county, England. His parents embraced the gospel while he was a small boy and emigrated to Utah in 1852. His father died while crossing the plains. He and his mother and two sisters resided in Lehi, where they endured the privations incident to pioneer days in Utah; they were without bread for months at a time, living on segoes, thistles, tender branches of trees, and in fact anything that could be mastered. The family were among the first to move to Cache valley. While he was yet in his teens, Sidney took a mission to the states to bring the converts on, in their own teams. At the age of 21 he married Susan Elizabeth Pilgrim, of Cambridge, England, by whom six children were born to him, of whom five survive. In 1879 he married Josephine Harris, a widow. Fourteen children were the result of their union, nine of whom are yet living. In 1885 he was among the first to settle at Lyman, Fremont county, Ida. There were a few settlers at Rexburg two years previous. He was an earnest and conscientious church worker.

In 1856 she came with her sister to Beaver and has resided here since that time. She was the first woman to come to Beaver as a pioneer and has outlived all the women who came with the first company. BOLD DAY LIGHT ROBBERY AT OGDEN

Beairst Store Entered Yesterday Afternoon While Proprietor Attended Track Meet.

OGDEN, May 19.—The first mishap to occur at the races happened yesterday afternoon when Jockey Chris Miller, on A. F. Dayton's horse Tom Shaw, was crowded into the fence and the boy's left leg was broken below the knee. The boy could not stop the horse until he had made the run around the track. As soon as possible Mr. Dayton secured medical aid on the grounds and later the boy accompanied by Dr. Forbes, moved to the general hospital where the broken leg was set by Drs. Forbes, Osgood and Rich.

Miller is a well known jockey throughout the west having ridden Dayton's horse Jack Nunnally when it broke a world's record at San Francisco last winter. He has been a favorite among the horsemen and jockeys at the present meet.

In the same race Cobblehill fell and threw his rider Manders but fortunately the boy escaped with a slight shaking up.

The attendance at the fair grounds yesterday for Ogden day was the largest on record. All of the stores in the city were closed for the afternoon. Manager Murray had a fine card for the day including the Ogden day handkerchiefs which was won by Bogger Reid with seventh second and Ontario Oregon third. The time for the half mile was :49-4-5.

BOLD DAY LIGHT ROBBERY.

OGDEN, May 19.—One of the boldest daylight robberies that has occurred in Ogden in many months was that which occurred at the L. H. Beairst store, in the heart of the city yesterday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 3. The establishment had closed for the afternoon in honor of Ogden day at the races.

About 5 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Beairst returned from the fair grounds and was surprised to find the front door of his establishment open. Upon investigation he found that the inner side door had been shattered, the cash box rifled and $5 in nickels and dimes taken. Books and records were strewn all over the floor and a lot of merchandise in the store. Mr. Beairst was unable to tell last evening if any of his knives and sporting goods had been taken.
