Low grades of superare rather dull, but better qualities are in fair request, sales having ranged from Another of Sheridan's Telegrams.

NEW ORLEANS, 6.—The follow-ing dispatch was sent to Secretary Belknap, by Sheridan to-day:

"The city is very quiet to-day. Some of the banditti made idle threats last night, that they would assassinate me, because I dared to tell the truth. I am not afraid and will not be stopped from informing the government that there are localities in this department where the very air has been impregnated.

An address to the American people, declaring that Sheridan's recent statements to the Secretary of War are unmerited, unfounded and erroneous, and calculated only to erroneous, and calculated only to serve the interests of the corrupt politicians now making an effort to perpetuate their power in Louisl-ana, was issued to-day, signed by Archbishop Persche, of New Or-leans, Bishop Witmer, of Louisi-ana, and a number of other clergy-demnation of Sheridan—Meeting of Legislature—Compromise Talked of.

The situation in the city is unchanged, there is no excitement.

The congressional committee examined Wm. Vigors, clerk of the Kellogg House of Representatives, who testified that at the first organization of the House on Monday 102 members answered to their names, and on the second organization 54. He could not give the names, as he only kept the tally sheet, and he was so confused by the crowd that he could not keep the tally properly. Of the 54 members answering three had been sworn in since the previous roll call. Subsequently the committee examined Governor Kellogg in reference to the white league, his testimony being a repetition of the statements that he has previously made in published letters and proclamations. He denied, absolutely, the existence of any black league. In the course of his examination he informed the assemble of the course of his examination he informed the course of his more than the examination of the residence of his testimony, he handed to the committee a 'protest which he had received, signed by the fifty-two members declared elected to the legislature before he called for troops to clear the hall of unauthorized persons. The committee concluded the investigation and left for Washington to-day.

A meeting of bank officers, held at the clearing house to-day, passed resolutions condemning, in unmeasured terms, the recent telegrams of Sheridan to the Secretary of War.

The Kellogg legislature met to-day. The House had no quorum;

War.

The Kellogg legislature met today. The House had no quorum; the Senate had twenty-seven present, but no conservatives.

Foster, chairman of the congressional committee, acknowledged the receipt of a proposition from the contending officials to leave the matters in dispute to the arbitration of the committee, and stated that they could not consider the questions unless certainly assured that their decision would be acquiesced in and accepted by all, as final. McEnery and Penn promptly replied affirmatively; Governor Kellogg, it is said, promised to reply by letter to Washington. Lt. Governor Antoine stated this evening, in an interview, that he would consent to no such compromise. Falled.

New York, 6.—Charles G. Goodwin & Sens, cracker dealers, Front Street, have failed; their liabilities are estimated at $100,000.

Another Telegram to Sheridan-Washington, 6.—The tellowing telegram was sent to Sheridan, at New Orleans, to-day:—
"I telegraphed you hastily, to-day, answering your dispatch. You seem to fear that we will be misled by biased or partial statements concerning your acts. Be assured that the President and Cabinet confide in your wisdom, and rest in the be-lief that all acts of yours have been and will be judicious. This I in-tended to say in any brief telegram. "(Signed) "WM. W. BELKNAP,

"Sec'y of War."

Ames Severely Criticized. Vicksburg, 6.—The congression-al committee, to-day, examined about a dozen negroes, whose testi-meny did not differ materially from that of those previously examined.

Judge Frederick Speed, an exfederal officer, appointed circuit clerk by General Ord, and afterwards judge of the criminal court by General Ames, testified that he was a republican, but that he had not acted with the republican party in Mississippi for some time. He attributed the troubles to the maladministration of the late county and city officers, whom he regarded, generally, as corrupt and incompetent. He was very severe in his criticism of Gov. Ames. He said he had beard him say that he would not live in Mississippi if they would give him the whole of it. The statements of Ames to General and the troops were saked for poli-tical effect. If the governor had come here before the late trouble and investigated affairs, and shewn the least disposition to act fairly, all the trouble would have been

FRANCE. Message to the Assembly-Another Ministerial Crisis-Left for Marseilles.

PARIS, 6.—President MacMahon sent a message to the Assembly to-day, urgently requesting the following legislation: first, the passage of a bill creating a second chamber; 2nd, a provision for the maintenance of statu quo until 1880, in the event of MacMahon's death before the apprention of his terms of office. More Condemnation of Sheridan—Appeals to the People. The board of underwriters, to-day passed resolutions similar to those adopted by the Cotton Exchange yesterday, in regard to the Secretary of War.

Man, chairman of the conservative central committee, has issued an appeal to the people, to be calm and moderate, and to avoid all traps it for them by their enemies, and suring them that the sympathy d support of the entire American pole are with them.

In address to the American peodeclaring that Sheridan's restatements to the Secretary of the entire American peodeclaring that Sheridan's restatements to the Secretary of the expension of a second chamber on the order of the day for ene of your next sittings. Conservative interests most imperatively demand its adoption."

The sitting to-day was marked by scenes of the greatest excitement. It is tumored that the ministry have tendered their resignation to the President. The crisis is regarded as serious.

King Alphonos left this morning for Marseilles.
