Mombasa, British East Africa, April 22.—Theodore Roosevelt and the members of his party are to leave Mombasa at half past 2 o'clock this morning on a special train for Kapi

Focus on the Athi river. Sir Alfred is already there awaiting the coming of his guests. The party probably will remain at the ranch for one week, making it the base for shooting expeditions and then move on to Nairobi. Mr. Roosevelt, his son Kermit, Ed-

The expedition, were entertained at dinner last night by the members of the Mombasa club. The acting governor of the protectorate, F. J. Jackson, in proposing the health of Mr. Roosevelt, read the following telegram from King Edward:

Continuing, Mr. Jackson said Mr. Roosevelt had left "the big stick" at home and after seven strenuous years as president of the United States had come out to Africa to make use of the rifle.

In conclusion he promised the distinguished visitor an immense variety lull highland musical honors. He began with a tribute to the British people for their energies in civilizing the uncivilized places of the earth. He said he was surprised at what he had heard of the progress of British East Africa, but he warned his hearers they could not expect to achieve in a short time what it had taken Americans 50 generations to accomplish.

by the authorities on the spot and commented upon the fact that the people at home knew little of affairs abroad. In this connection he instanced the United States and the Philippine Islands.

Continuing, Mr. Roosevelt expressed his great pleasure at the welcome given him yesterday by the British cruiser Pandora whose rails and

In conclusion, Mr. Roosevelt referred briefly to his future plans and gave some of his first impressions of the country.

Before leaving Mr. Roosevelt telegraphed to King Edward, thanking him for the message of greeting read by Mr. Jackson at the dinner given in Mr.

FROHMAN'S PLANS.
Will Convert New York Empire Theater Into Repertoire House.
New York, April 22.—Theater-goers

He will convert the Empire theater into a repertory house coincident with his plan to make such a change at the Duke of York theater. Mr. Frohman's decision means the revival of high class stock productions, which have given so many prominent stars to the stage.

the company was abandoned six years ago and since then the house has been devoted to long-run plays.

Pocattello Died from Exposure.
(Special to the "News.")
Pocattello, 143, April 21.—The discovery of some bones, fragments of cloth, a gold watch and some pieces of bone, has been made in a gulch between three and four miles from town, by the children of a farmer. Some of the things have been identified as those er and has since never been heard of in spite of every effort to account for his disappearance. He left a wife and child and as he was in good circumstances no reason can be ascribed for his going. It is presumed that he wandered away and died from exposure.
