Facts That Came Out at a Pleasant Alta Club Dinner-Great Organist Plays for the Choir.

A very fine and most enjoyable complimentary dinner was tendered last evening, at the Alta club, to J. Lewis Browne, Mus. Doc., of Atlanta, by President J. J. Guinan of All Hallows college. There were 14 persons present, including the honored guest, Father Murphy of All Hallows college, Gov. and Mrs. Wells, Miss Emma Ramsey, Anton Pedersen, Prof. J. J. McClellan, J. E. Hansen of the "News," Murray Schick and Kenneth Kerr of the Tribune, Charles C. Wentzler of the Herald, and C. A. Leigh of the Telegram. Arthur Pedersen was unable to be present. Father Murphy was toastmaster, and presided in his usual happy vein, always saying something new on introducing each speaket, Dr. Browne was decidedly felicitious in his remarks. He spoke feelingly and appreciatively of the warm, cordial welcome that had characterized his visit to Salt Lake City, after an absence of 13 years; and he referred with animation to the reputition of the salt lake had for the salt lake the place of Prof. McClellan. He said he would do so simply because she was a great artist and that he desired to assist her in making her home concert a success. Accordingly Dr. Browne and Pather Guinan will take this evening's train for Payson to attend the concert and will return tomorrow morning. Prof. Thomas Radeliff, A. G. O., Prof. he referred with animation to the reputation Salt Lake had for its musical talent. He stated that although Atlanta had a population of 125,000 people, neither that city nor the state could boast a singer like Miss Ramsey; and he proposed taking Miss Ramsey; and he proposed taking Miss Ramsey to Georgia with him and giving a concert in which she should be the principal and honored figure. Well, the Maroons defeated the Lobsters at Ogden yesterday afternoon, but whether it was premeditated and with malice aforethought, is left for the fans to judge. The fact remains, however, that the Lobsters were beaten and that by a score of 10 to 2. Timely hitting on the part of the Maroons did the trick, and to Manager Christic, who "butted into" the game, belongs the credit for the victory. Out of five times at bat, he pounded out three hits. One a three-bagger, a two-sacker and a nice little single. The opposing pitchers were Nash and Thomas and the latter had the better of the argument. One bad feature of the Thomas and the latter had the better of the argument. One bad feature of the game was the dust storm that prevailed during the whole contest and interfered with the players greatly. Fulmer played third for the Lobsters and did some ex-ceptionally fine work. The summary foi-
