R. Y. A. Summer School.
Provo, Friday, July 20.—Opened with appropriate exercises.
Principal B. Cliff Jr. made the following announcement:
On Saturday the German, physics and physical culture classes will meet in extra session. The biology class will take an out-door lesson in the meadows and on the hill.
The training school for the young normal teachers has now been five days in session and the adjustments are perfect.
N. J. Nielsen was training teacher this morning in the fourth reader grade. Mr. Tullis, of Hannah Park, natural teacher, discussed the blackboard with mentally solved, orally explained, and correctly written opposite each of the four parts of the problem. Difficulties encountered by the students in preparing the lesson were discussed outside of the room, which was already saturated by the intensive method.
A few minutes of the size and subdivision, given for the remainder of the time of the summer lesson.
Mr. Christensen, of Ogden, took the class for the next twenty minutes.
The lesson was a review of yesterday's reading lesson in the second reader.
A very accurate drawing on the blackboard, and a toy engine that the instructor, as the teacher in his very perfect explanation. The nature of the parts, and the principle of working of the piston, were drawn from the pupils. The children were delighted, and all the training and normal teachers assembled in room 47 and the following criticism was offered by training teacher Mrs. Will. "I have noticed that there is a too rigid adherence to rule. A certain rule should be broken at one and discarded. They are to guide, but must yield to discretion at times. For example, if a pupil is asked to put a number problem on the board, and give a proper result, but states it improperly, a teacher should not jump at it and erase, and go on talking about something else. There are many ways of meeting such a difficulty. Suppose you stand in front of it, and say the result is right but there is a better way of stating it, then erase and make the proper statement, and the child will feel that he has been constructively treated. A teacher to the rule to such a case is a violent interruption of the rule of discipline, guidance and flexibility."

Miss Ella Larson, training teacher, and "she had noticed that too much time was spent in unimportant trifles before the children leading to distinct results was noticed. In other words, much ground was given over that the natural teacher failed to crystallize the central thought.
Miss Larson, training teacher, criticized position before the class, and the much motion weakened personal influence, excepting nervousness.
The lesson was on the coordinate plane, and familiar examples for number work, material for spelling lessons, etc. The teachers therefore are working as efficient a whole, and must make their plans together. After the general criticism each teacher is privately criticized by the training teachers on personalities that the individual only has a right to.

SHAKESPEAREAN COURSE.
Mr. Davis—The chief aim of the Shakespearean course is to lead the student to read Shakespeare understandingly, and for the purpose of character study. Each student reads in two different passages, and understanding of the character of the student may become thoroughly familiar with the extensive vocabulary and familiar and accurate phrasing, and the manner of thinking of the time of the great poet. A rapid review of United States history is included.

FEDERAL CENTRE.
Mr. O. W. Ahlberg, R. 10—There are more than fifty students who are taking physical culture regularly. The first object is to correct the evils of inactivity, habits of sitting long at study as well as to equalize the circulation, and train up the muscular system. The first test exercise is a leg exercise, which tends to draw the blood from the head; second, with exercise to strengthen the stomach and shoulders; third, arm exercise to strengthen and cool, which brings the blood back to the center; fourth, balancing exercise, which thoroughly equalizes the flow of blood; fifth, exercise that puts the back, trunk, and muscles. A jumping exercise was introduced in the activity in the whole body follows. A respiratory exercise is done every day's other of exercise. This is all good the beneficial student. This series of seven different exercises must all be done in each physical culture lesson, as the subject of exercise is the direct exercise of the part of the body designed to be benefited by it. This series prevails in every grade, but in the class time last week exercise in given for the head, back, arms, legs, etc., while in the higher grades the number and complexity of exercises are increased according to the age of the pupils, with the eighth grade they have seven or eight different exercises of the head, arms and back exercises, etc. There are what are known as medical gymnastics for the correction of defects of body that would cause under the head of disease, and another series designed to make athletes; but those in lower grades are simply educational gymnastics. The defective gymnastics are what may be called educational gymnastics, and are intended as a matter of recreation.

They develop grace and beauty of motion and give great pleasure to the teacher. A skillful performance might almost be considered the poetry of motion, making visible the soul within.

The R. Y. Academy recognizes the fact that they have nothing of equal value to give attention to exercise for health and good health is not an accident. The instructor of this department guarantees that the pupils who devote less minutes at each hour to physical culture will do more good in the city outside of school than in the entire hour without it, and come out of school at the end of the year with improved health.

NOTES.
The faculty has a decision entirely to the students, as to whether school should be held on July 24th, Pioneer day. They were almost unanimous in their desire for school. It will be informal and class exercises will be held.
The main part of the history class are observing an excursion to the top of Mount St. Helens, at the north of Provo.
They will go to Pleasant Lake Friday evening, spend the night there and be off by train for the next morning.
Prof. Cliff and party are booked at the Hotel of Rock Canyon, four miles west and about one mile straight up in the air from Provo. They ride to school each week.
The class in child study is attracting a great deal of attention from older students.

MATTERS AT HASTI.

Cases in the Courts—The Jury's Appraisal Report.
WESTERN ATTORNEYS.
The case of Henry, defendant vs.
Henry Jensen et al. and J. H. White-lock vs. Henry Jensen et al. both for damages on account of alleged false imprisonment, were dismissed on motion of plaintiff's attorney.
The case of James Lee vs. H. N.
Hayes et al. occupied the balance of the day.

The evidence showed that plaintiff sold defendant forty-five acres of land with water right for forty acres. There is still a balance due of $800, which defendant refuses to pay because they discovered that instead of forty acres they were allowed but nine. The plaintiff brings evidence to show that he has sold forty acres of land for a great many years and has the best claim on the creek.
The jury were interested to return a verdict for plaintiff.

The case of Frank H. Chipman, an indent, vs. U. P. Ry. Co., was heard before the jury.
This case is one in which suit is brought to recover $24,000 for damages sustained in an accident. The evidence went to show that the little girl, between two and three years old, while going along the railroad track, caught her foot in the spokes of a car wheel, and the train cut it off her leg. The jury returned a verdict against defendant for the sum of $10,000.
The case of N. M. Metcalfe Co. vs.
Mr. Pleasant Equitable Corp., occupied the rest of the day.

FRIDAY.
At 11:00 the jury came into court and presented the following document: MAY 23, 1904.
To Hon. H. W. Smith, judge of the First district court.
The jurors examined and in absence of the present term of court held in Maui, feeling under obligation to your honor for your kindness and consideration of our comfort and welfare, and desiring to express our appreciation therefor, hereby unanimously returned our verdict and return of damages over to you to be paid to us to be paid to the jury during the present term of court.

If not improper, we desire this document expressive of our feelings spread upon the minutes of the court.
WILLIAM H. HARRISON,
Chairman.
ALFRED BROAD,
Secretary.
The judge expressed his thanks for this testimonial of good feeling, and trusted they would be successful in their every day affairs and bring to their aid the same summary, faithfulness and integrity they had shown in their connection with this court.

NOTES.
This morning the jury were dismissed for the term. The case of N. M.
Metcalfe Co. vs. Mr. Pleasant Equitable is still in progress.
Mrs. Judge Smith, Mrs. Judge Han-derson, Mrs. Judge Harkness and Mrs.
Judge Bennett are visitors to Maui.
Work on the P. V. V. to Maui will commence at an early date. None but local carpenters will be employed.
