LOCAL NEWS.

Sudden Death.—Brother N. S. Larsen of this city received a telegram from his brother, Hans Larsen, of Brigham City, this morning, announcing the sudden death of the latter's wife, Sophronia, who is the daughter of Brother Anderson, of Brigham City, and was much respected. She leaves two children.
 Death of Brother W. N. Goodman.—President Joseph E. Taylor writes us that his brother-in-law, William N. Goodman, whose serious illness we chronicled last week, died at his residence, in St. David, Arizona, on the 10th inst., and was buried on the following day. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
 The Kimberlence Case.—The examination of Mr. Edward Austin, charged with embezzlement of funds belonging to Miss Williams, which was set for 10 a.m. to-day, before Commissioner McKay, has been postponed until 10 a.m. on Wednesday, as counsel for the defendant were not ready on account of other business which required their attention.
 District Court Proceedings.—The case of the United States vs. John T. Lufkin, for perjury, was dismissed, as was also the civil case of Wyman vs. Jack.
 The motion for judgment in the case of the London Bank of Utah vs. Chas. M. Giberson was argued. The defendant asked leave to amend the answer. The motion for judgment was allowed and the case referred to the clerk to compute.
 In the case of H. Heinrichson vs. J. W. Myrick a judgment of $300 and costs was waived.
 Edward P. Ferry vs. Sam Lee's trial before the court in progress.

Disgraceful Conduct.—Many, if not all, of the worshippers who attended the meeting in the Tabernacle last evening were annoyed almost past endurance by the shameful actions of a number of young people of both sexes who occupied seats in the gallery, and who persisted in talking in a tone loud enough to be heard throughout a great portion of the building. The acoustic properties of the Tabernacle are such as to require the utmost silence on the part of the audience for the speaker, especially if his articulation is not good, to make himself heard by all present. Possibly the young people who rendered themselves so offensive last evening, were unable to hear the speakers distinctly where they sat, and inferred from that fact that their conversation would not be heard by others beyond their immediate circle. This is the most charitable construction we can place upon their conduct, which, to say the least, is deserving of severe censure, for under no circumstances is such conduct as theirs, in a place of worship and during divine service, excusable. The action of many persons leaving the body of the hall and rushing up into the gallery at the time when the doors were opened leading into the latter, was also reprehensible. The ordinary rules of good breeding, to say nothing of reverence for sacred things, require that when a person attends divine service he retain his seat and observe order until the service is concluded. If a repetition of the offense is ever committed in that house we hope there will be an usher at hand to promptly show the thoughtless or irreverent parties to the door.
The Work in Alabama.—Elder John C. DeLaMare, writing from Silmabone, Clay County, Alabama, under date of March 6th, states that the prospect before the country is very favorable. Quite a number are investigating the principles of the Gospel, and the Elders have many opportunities of explaining the doctrine of the Gospel to the people privately. But little preaching is done, as the churches and public buildings are closed against the "Mormons," and persecution rages; still the Elders find plenty of friends, and have great pleasure in their labors. Brother DeLaMare is enjoying himself in the performance of his duties as a servant of the Lord. He wishes to remind those of the Elders who promised to write to various persons when in their fields of labor that they should do so, and not disappoint those who expect to hear from them, and thereby cause the brethren there to be unduly lured.

Y. M. M. I. A. Conference.—The Conference of the Mutual Improvement Association to be held in the Assembly Hall this evening promises to be a very enjoyable affair. The Tabernacle choir will be in attendance to furnish the singing; in addition, there will be a programme consisting of a brief lecture by a member of the 20th Ward Institute on "Mental and Moral Culture," speech on the life of David W. Patten, by a member of the 21st Ward association; music by the 8th Ward harmonica band; and the new song "A Last Full Look of Him" will be sung by Evan Stephens, accompanied by Jos. J. Daynes on the organ.
 The exercises will commence promptly at 7:30, and those who purpose being present should go early and secure seats.

Simpson Sentenced.—Saturday afternoon Simpson was arraigned in the District Court for sentence. His lawyer, Mr. Whittemore, moved for a new trial on the ground that the Judge erred in instructing the jury. A somewhat lengthy argument followed, in which the defense claimed that the evidence should have been shown positively that the alleged marriage in England was legal; and that his Honor's instructions to the effect that the defendant's admission of the marriage was insufficient for conviction, were not in accordance with law. He cited several authorities to sustain his position, but the motion was overruled, and the convicted man was sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. He asked for time to get some additional evidence from England, but the request was denied, and he was remanded to the custody of the marshal, and safely lodged in his quarters at the pen. Saturday evening.

New Periodicals.—From Mr. Jas. Harker's pen, "Back" for March 15th, accompanied with a fine lithograph of President Cleveland and his cabinet, all good likenesses, by Keppler, "Harper's Franklin Square Library," containing a succinct account of Chinese Gordon's life by Archibald Forbes; mailed to any address for 25c.; "Harper's Weekly" and "Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper," each containing full accounts of the inauguration proceedings of March 4th; "Leslie's Popular Monthly," the "Family Herald" for March; "Young Ladies' Journal."

A Feminine Sneak.—We have heard of a tall, slim, respectfully dressed woman, gaily about to people's houses ostensibly for the purpose of recommending a certain kind of baking powder, packages of which she occasionally gives away, but whose real object is to pry into the domestic affairs of the parties so visited. At least such is only a fair inference from the impertinent questions she has been known to ask. The advice so frequently given to our readers, to offer no encouragement to strange and suspicious itinerants, is especially applicable when such as she present themselves.

The Surplus Canal.—At a meeting of the directors of the Salt Lake and Jordan Surplus Water Canal company, on Saturday afternoon, it was decided to increase the width of the canal from thirty to forty feet. The cost for the work to be let out immediately, preference being given to stockholders, who are to be allowed contracts to the full amount of the stock subscribed for. The right of way is assured, except in probably two instances, in which the land will be purchased.

Davis Sent Back.—Joseph Davis, the inmate of the Penitentiary, who, with three others, overpowered the guard some time ago, took away his gun and escaped, was sentenced Saturday for the part that he played in the little episode. The charge against him, however, was not for the escape, but for the evidence of his guilt, confessed. He was sentenced by Judge Kane to two years' imprisonment, and was taken back to his old place of confinement.

Sentence Deferred.—The defendants in the Tidwell murder case at Provo, who were found guilty last week, were to have been sentenced to-day at 2 o'clock, but at the request of the counsel for the defense, sentence was deferred until April 7th, to allow them time to move for a new trial.

Small bodies of Russians hold the wells and roads between Sarakhs and Murgab rivers, and there are several hundred Cossacks near Pul-Ikhatum. The most southerly points near Herat are occupied by Russians. A regiment of Cossacks and some Cossack troops are about 8,000 troops of all arms.
