UNION PACIFIC BONDS.

Cheyenne Leader: A prominent railroad contractor was seen at the depot yesterday and stated that during a recent talk with Chief Engineer Berry of the Union Pacific that gentleman said that there would be a large amount of construction work done by the Union its Wyoming division this Pacific on year, and that this work would begin next month. Just what the work left for sale. (Signed) would be he did not state but contract ors believe that in spite of President Burt's formal denial the Athol hill cut-off will be built. If not, then Engineer Berry presumably referred to the awarding of contracts for double tracking portions of the line in Wyoming.

Stove Explodes and Does Damage to the Extent of About $500.

The rooming apartment of C. L. Higgins of First North and West Temple was damaged to the extent of at least $500 last night by the explosion of a gasoline stove. It also came near re-sulting fatally for Mr. Higgins who was standing near the stove when it exploded. He was preparing to heat some water and had just applied match to the burner when the gasoline was thrown all over the room. Mr. Higgins managed to escape with singed hair and eye brows, but the interior of three rooms were soon in flames. An alarm was turned to department No. 4, which was responded to quickly. A few gallons of chemical put out the fire but not before it had done con-siderable damage. J. J. Snell is the owner of the building.
