

Thurs. 10.—Peter A. Bergquist, of Salt Lake City, arrested on a charge of unl. coh. —The Wyoming Admission bill signed by the President.

Fri. 11.—Jas. E. Caine, son of Hon. John T. Caine, was assaulted by two foot pads in Salt Lake City, and struck in the head by one of them, from the effects of which he died Aug. 13, 1890. —By the giving way of a ferry bridge at Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, a number of people were drowned. —Two hundred and fifty houses burned and several lives lost at Waldan, Russia.

Sat. 12.—Gustave Thomasson, P. A. Newberger and William Neve, of Cache County, arrested on charges of unl. coh., together with their alleged plural wives. About the same time Jens Christiansen, of Newton, Cache Co., David Lewis, Hans J. Nielsen and John Andrews, together with their alleged plural wives, were arrested on similar charges. —Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, and Dorothy Tennant married in Westminster Abbey, England.

Sun. 13.—The branch of the Church at Pocatello, Idaho, was organized into a Ward with Carl J. Cannon as Bishop. —A terrible cyclone swept through Minnesota, striking and wrecking an excursion boat on Lake Pepin. The vessel capsized and over eighty people were drowned. —John C. Fremont, the noted Western explorer, died in New York. He was born at Savannah, Georgia, Jan. 21, 1813.

Mon. 14.—The election of a board of school trustees for Salt Lake City, under the new law, resulted in the election of eight "Liberals" and four People's Party men. —Frank H. Dyer resigned his office as Receiver of confiscated Church property to the Utah Supreme Court.

Tu. 15.—M. M. Stone appointed examiner of the administration of Receiver Dyer, in place of Rosborough. —By a terrible explosion at King's powder mills, near Cincinnati, Ohio, several persons were killed and wounded, and much property destroyed. —A fire at Milwaukee, Wis., destroyed a million dollars worth of property.

Wed. 16.—The Utah Supreme Court appointed Henry W. Lawrence, Receiver of escheated Church property, in place of Frank H. Dyer, resigned. —William H. Freeman arrested in Salt Lake City on a charge of unl. coh. —An unknown man threw himself in front of a train on the Rio Grande Western Ry., near American Fork, Utah Co., and was run over and killed. —Painters set fire to a church in Brockton, Mass., and nearly the whole town destroyed.

Thurs. 17.—Anders Madsen, of Mantua, Box Elder Co., emerged from the Utah Pen.

Fri. 18.—Eugene Schuyler, American Consul General, died at Cairo, Egypt.

Sat. 19.—John Morgan, of Mill Creek, Salt Lake Co., and John W. Snell, of Salt Lake City, arrested on charges of unl. coh.

Sun. 20.—A freshet in Summit County caused by a cloud-burst, resulted in the loss of considerable property. —Dr. "Edward Isaacson," who had quietly returned to American Fork, Utah Co., was attacked by a number of disguised citizens, who intended to inflict summary punishment upon him, but he escaped and soon left the town for good.

Mon. 21.—The sixtieth anniversary of the Belgium independence and the twenty-fifth of the reign of King Leopold was celebrated with great pomp in Belgium.

Tu. 22.—Four persons perished by the burning of a tenement house in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Wed. 23.—William W. Corlett, the leading lawyer of Wyoming, died at Cheyenne.

Thurs. 24.—Utah's Pioneer day was generally and heartily celebrated throughout the Territory.

Fri. 25.—J. C. A. Weibye, of Mantl, Sanpete Co., released from the Utah Pen., having served his term for unl. coh.

Sat. 26.—South Lawrence, Mass., devastated by a cyclone and eight people killed.

Sun. 27.—Carl F. Carlson, of Mantl, released from the Utah Pen., having served a sentence of one year for living with his wives.

Mon. 28.—The Utah Supreme Court, in the matter of the estate of George Handley, deceased, rendered a decision to the effect that polygamous children could not inherit from the father.

Tu. 29.—Receiver Henry W. Lawrence ordered by the Utah Supreme Court to sell the Church sheep in his possession. —Michael Clark, of Kaysville, Davis Co., arrested on a charge of unl. coh.

Wed. 30.—Seneca Falls, N. Y., visited by a disastrous fire; loss $700,000.

Thurs. 31.—Wainut, Ill., and Braddock, Penn., partly destroyed by fire.

AUGUST.

Burglars did effectual work in Salt Lake City, and "hold ups" were an almost everyday occurrence. —Valleyrien, a Danish paper, published in Salt Lake City, suspended publication. —In Central America, a desperate three days' battle occurred between Salvadorian troops and the rebel forces under General Rivas, resulting in the latter's defeat. Later, peace was restored between San Salvador and Guatemala. —Cholera raged in Spain.

Fri. 1.—B. W. Brown, of Lehi, released from the Utah Pen., on commutation of sentence by President Harrison.

Sat. 2.—John Hamer killed by James Griffin, at Ogden. —The steamship Wisconsin sailed from Liverpool, England, with 86 Saints on board, in charge of Leonard J. Jordan. The company landed in New York on the 13th and arrived in Salt Lake City a few days later.

Sun. 3.—At the quarterly conference held at Logan, Cache Co., Orson Smith was sustained as President of the Cache Stake of Zion, with S. M. Moien, of Hyrum, and Isaac Smith, of Logan, as Counselors.

Mon. 4.—The election for county officers in Salt Lake County resulted in the election by the People's and Workingmen's Independent Party of Recorder, Sheriff and Treasurer. The other officers elected were "Liberals."

Tu. 5.—George M. White, of Mill Creek, Salt Lake Co., killed by falling from a hay stack.

Wed. 6.—William Kemmler suffered the death penalty by electricity at Auburn Prison, N. Y. This was the first execution of that kind in America and was not so successful as had been expected.

Thurs. 7.—A. O. Anderson, of Glenwood, released from the Utah Pen. —John Hendrickson and Thomas Kirby arrested in Cache County on charges of unl. coh.

Fri. 8.—Great strike on the New York Central Ry., which continued until the 14th ending in the defeat to the strikers.

Sat. 9.—Thomas L. Obrey, of Paradise, Cache Co., released from the Utah Pen. —Joseph Moser, of Logan, and Fred. Theurer, of Providence, Cache Co., arrested on charges of unl. coh.

Sun. 10.—Elder Wandle Mace died at Kanab, Kane Co., Utah. —William McKellar, of Leamington, Millard Co., emerged from the Utah Pen.

Mon. 11.—The British steamer Holcyon collided with another steamer and sank near Vigo, Spain; 13 drowned.

Tu. 12.—National G. A. R. Encampment at Boston, with President Harrison and other notables in attendance.

Wed. 13.—James E. Caine died in Salt Lake City, from the effects of injuries received from footpads July 11th last.

Thurs. 14.—Caleb Crahtree, of Wellsville, released from the Utah Pen., having served a term of three months for living with his wives.

Fri. 15.—Frank Gooch, of Logan, arrested on a charge of fornication.

Sat. 16.—Lawrence W. Groo, committed suicide in Salt Lake City. —The steamship Wyoming sailed from Liverpool, England, with a company of emigrating Saints, in charge of J. Ostlund. The company arrived in New York Aug. 26th, and in Salt Lake City, Sept. 8rd.

Sun. 17.—The strike on the New York Central Ry., resulted in bloodshed at Albany, N. Y.

Mon. 18.—Mrs. Catherine Singleton, 77 years old, of American Fork, Utah Co., was struck by a Utah Central Ry. train while crossing the track, and instantly killed. A similar fate befell Mrs. Clara Hewitt while crossing the U. P. Ry. track near Ogden. —

Hiram H. Webb released from the Utah Pen.

Tu. 19.—William A. Empey, one of the Pioneers of 1847, died at St. George, Utah. —James Pitkin, of Cache Co., and John Sutton, sen., of Montpelier, Bear Lake Co., Idaho, arrested on charges of unl. coh. —About two hundred houses destroyed at Wilkesbarre, Penn., by a cyclone.

Wed. 20.—Nathan Hanson, of North Point, Salt Lake Co., arrested on a charge of unl. coh. —William Grant, of American Fork, Utah Co., released from the Utah Pen., having served a second term for unl. coh.

Thurs. 21.—Joseph H. Felt, of Salt Lake City, arrested on a charge of unl. coh.

Fri. 22.—By a terrible railway accident at Cascade, Cal., two conductors and two brakemen were killed.

Sat. 23.—The steamer Baltimore sailed from New York with the remains of the late John Ericsson, bound for Sweden.

Sun. 24.—At the San Juan Stake conference held at Monticello, San Juan Co., a ward organization was effected at that place with Frederick J. Jones as Bishop.

Mon. 25.—Peter Okeberry, of Gosben, Utah Co., Mads Jorgensen, of Provo, and Teaneum Pratt, of Spring Glen, Emery Co., released from the Utah Pen., having served terms for unl. coh. —Elder Orin N. Woodbury died at St. George, Utah.

Tu. 26.—A serious collision occurred between Socialists and the police in Berlin, Germany.

Wed. 27.—Walter Duckmouth run over and killed by an electric car, in Salt Lake City.

Thurs. 28.—Two murderers hanged in Columbus, Ohio.

Fri. 29.—In the contest case between J. H. Rumel (People's) and H. Page (Liberal), candidates for the county recordership, in the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Judge Zane decided in favor of Rumel, to whom certificate of election consequently was issued. —Simon McKenzie accidentally shot and killed his wife and oldest boy near Paradise, Cache Co.

Sat. 30.—Several fires, of incendiary origin, occurred at Brooklyn, N. Y.

Sun. 31.—John Erickson, a saloon keeper, committed suicide in Salt Lake City, by shooting himself through the head. —President Anson Call died at his residence in Bountiful, Davis Co. —John Killian released from the Utah Pen.

SEPTEMBER.

Numerous complaints and protests entered against Assessor Clute, of Salt Lake City, because of his unreasonable heavy assessments. —Ex-Senator Isaac P. Christiancy, who years ago used his influence against the Saints, died in Lansing, Michigan, in perfect obscurity. —Apostle Brigham Young, succeeded Apostle George Teasdale in the Presidency of the European Mission. —By the foundering of the Erigorau, a Turkish man of war in the Pacific Ocean, five hundred lives were lost.

Mon. 1.—The new county officers, elected for Salt Lake County, filed their bonds and entered upon their duties of office. —The town of Oxford, Iowa, destroyed by fire.

Tu. 2.—The Salt Lake City council passed the building and medical ordinance.

Wed. 3.—The city council, of Salt Lake City, sat as a board of equalization on the high taxation.

Thurs. 4.—John Warwood was arrested at Bountiful, Davis Co., on a charge of unl. coh. About the same time Henry Hughes and Trotwood Stumph, of Mendon, Brigham Pond, of Lewiston, Elrick Trapper, of Providence and Benjamin Hemms, of Hyde Park, were arrested on charges of breaking the Edmunds law. —The Agricultural college at Logan dedicated. —Twenty-five Missouri editors visited Salt Lake City.

Fri. 5.—John Wolverline scalped by Indians near Spokane Falls, Wash.

Sat. 6.—Bishop H. M. Payne, of Aurora, Sevier Co., released from the Utah Pen., after undergoing a sentence of six months for unl. coh. —By a railway accident on the Rio Grande Ry., near Florence, Col., five persons were killed and thirty-seven wounded. —Eighteen laborers were killed at Spokane, Washington, by the premature explosion of a blast. —The steamship Wis-