

not been understood. Previous to her going to Margaret Hensen's house to care for it, she had visited it, and so had learned that Margaret was not there. Her reply had reference to previous visits she had made to Margaret's house, but the prosecutor and court understood to have reference only to her going to the house to take charge of it. Mr. Moyle immediately informed Commissioner Greenman that the witness could and would reply satisfactorily, and the examination was resumed. The witness answered the question in a manner which was understood by all concerned. She was questioned further when her sister Elizabeth was recalled and questioned, but no further facts of importance were elicited, and the case was continued till 10 a. m. Monday, Mr. Critchlow remarking that he would have no further use for the two sisters. Miss Emma had purged herself of contempt, or rather was found not to have been in contempt at all.

WEBER COUNTY.

This was the last county on the list, and was reached shortly before 1 p. m.—earlier than the board had anticipated.

Mr. Hiles was present, and on behalf of Mr. Dan Hamer, he stated to the board that he proposed to ask the district court for a writ of mandate requiring the board to canvass the ballots, and not accept the face of the returns. He said that if the board would accept it, Judge Looftborough would defend the action of the board. He did not anticipate any different action on the part of the canvassers, but took this step to preserve the rights of his client.

The board accepted the proposition for Judge Looftborough to take up the issue in this case.
The canvass of the returns was then commenced, and when Poll 2, Second precinct, Ogden, was reached, the nine votes returned by the judges of election as having been cast on "Liberal" tickets for Mr.
Hamer, for county clerk, but not counted for him by the judges, were placed to his credit.

The returns from Weber County were then canvassed with the following result, but were not certified to, pending the action suggested by Mr. Hiles:

Collector—Albern Allen 1723; J.
E. Coolidge 1534.

Selectman—Frederick Foy 1752; Lyman Skeen 1561.

County Clerk—C. L. Hollingsworth 1675; F. D. Higginbotham 1628.

Assessor—Edwin Dix 1781; Nathan Montgomery 1543

Prosecuting Attorney.—L. R.
Rogers 1659; H. H. Rolapp 1603.

Coroner—Marshall H. Allen 1728;
George W. Larkin 1578.

Recorder—John Tyler 1701; Dau
Hamer 1624.

Sheriff—Gilbert R. Belnap 1691; John Keck 1610.

Surveyor—R. W. Faris 1738; Mo-siab Hall 1529.

Treasurer—John A. Boyle 1671;
W. V. Helfrich 1638.

The successful candidates for collector, sheriff and treasurer are People's Party men; the others are
"Liberals."

SALT LAKE COUNTY.

The matter of the Salt Lake County election was taken up.

Judge Judd moved that Messrs.
Arthur Brown and J. L. Rawlins represent the board in the action brought against it by Col. Page.

This was carried, Mr. Anderson and Col. Sells voting in the negative.

Col. Sells read the answer of himself and Mr. Anderson, stating that they would make no defense, as they agreed with the position taken by Col. Page's attorneys.

It was decided to take up Poll 3, Precinct 2, and Bluff Dale, involving the count for treasurer, be taken up, and the ballot boxes were sent for. The board of canvassers then adjourned till August 27 at 10 a. m.

The Board of Canvassers held a brief session on August 27, but it was one of anxiety to the interested parties. The occasion of this was the recount of Poll 3, Precinct 2, of the votes cast for treasurer, owing to a discrepancy between the judges' list and the abstract.

Col. Stone, on behalf of Mr.
Galligher, objected to the ballots being counted. He wanted the result as shown on the face of the returns to be declared, thus leaving a tie, and no attention paid to the evident mistake of the judges of election.

His objection was overruled, and the ballot box was opened, the votes taken out and Chairman Sells took up each ballot, reading the name of each candidate voted for. Judge Smith and Mr. Anderson kept the tally sheets. The ballot was passed to Judge Judd and then to Mr.
Riter, both of whom examined it.
At the outset there were 70 straight votes for Toronto; then came 180 for Galligher; then two for Toronto, two for Galligher, and four for Toronto.
This definitely proved that the abstract signed by the judges of election contained an error.

One ballot had no candidate for treasurer. By a comparison with the total number of votes credited to the candidates, four ballots were discovered to be missing from the ballot box. A further comparison showed that three of these were Galligher's and one Toronto's.

Mr. Brown—We demand that the presiding judge, who had the custody
