EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, - January 31, 1890.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

District Court.—The February term of the Third District Court will commence next Monday morning.

Correction.—Last evening the News, stated that the Supreme Court had adjourned until the 4th prox. It was written in copy, "14th of February," but was set up wrong. The 14th is correct.

Municipal Convention.—On Monday night, February 2nd, at 7 o'clock, the People's Convention of Salt Lake City, will be held in the City Hall. The delegates, chosen at the primary meetings last Monday evening, will convene for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted for at the municipal election on Monday, the 9th proximo. Remember, Monday evening, at 7 o'clock, at the City Hall.

Remarkable Coincidence.—"A Bless on Wheels" is the name of a well written item that appears as original in this morning's Journal. Had we not seen the same piece in Thursday evening's News, we would think that Ogden had a Sixth Ward, that Bishop Sperry and James Haer were two of her citizens, and that the forgetful scribe, who clipped said article, was improving in his rhetoric.

Sunday School Meeting.—The regular monthly meeting of the officers and teachers of Sunday Schools will be held at 7 o'clock, next Monday evening, in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms.

The 3rd Ward choir will please furnish music for the meeting. All who feel interested in our Sunday Schools are cordially invited to attend.

L. W. RICHARDS, Secretary.

Smuggling Liquor.—This morning an Italian named Michael Schuppert was arraigned before Justice Pyper, for furnishing liquor to some of the female inmates of the city jail. He brought them some crackers yesterday, and was allowed to go in with the deputy jailer to deliver them. He was there detected in trying to pass the women a flask of liquor concealed among the crackers. He threatened also to cut the throat of the deputy. He was fined $10 for his offense.

The "Soreness" Opera.—The coming performance of the opera of the "Soreness," promises to be a gratifying success. A number of musicians from the 14th Infantry band of Fort Douglas, have been engaged to enlarge the orchestra for the occasion, and vocal and instrumental rehearsals are still going forward with vim and spirit. Remember, it is the first appearance, in public, of Zion's Musical Society, and the performances are set for next Friday night, Saturday afternoon and Monday evening.

Snowville Items.—A correspondent at Snowville, Box Elder Co., writes encouragingly of things in that section. The health of the people was good; the local institutions were in good working order, consisting of a Relief Society, a Young Ladies Association, a Primary, two Sabbath Schools, store, post office, etc. The country was fast filling up with good reliable men and their families, and good order prevailed generally. Weather was cold, snow plentiful, but the range was partially bare and stock was doing pretty well. The letter was dated the 29th inst.

Home Inventions.—Brother Joseph Barrows, of Hanksville, Weber County, called in this morning to exhibit an invention of his own in the form of a fire-lighter, one of the latest and surest things of the kind ever brought to light. It is a combustible composition, manufactured by himself, easy of ignition and perfectly safe and satisfactory in its effects. A small piece of the material is put into the stove and lighted, and the fuel placed upon it. No ordinary kindling is needed, as the flame will readily take hold of coal, and in few seconds create a good fire. The kindler does not snap nor explode like some others, but burns with a quiet, steady blaze, and, as said, is perfectly harmless. Another thing in its favor, is its cheapness. A package of the commodity costs but 25 cents, and is sufficient to kindle from 50 to 100 fires. Brother Barrows is anxious to get agents to place it upon the market. He is also the inventor of a mouse-exPELLER, a non-poisonous powder, offensive to the human inhabitants of a dwelling, but of so disagreeable an odor to mice, that they will shun it and leave the house where-in it is placed. A liquid bed-bug exterminator is also one of his inventions. All are warranted to give satisfaction.

Mutual Improvement—Accident.—A Harrisburg correspondent, under date of the 22d inst., gives us a few items of news from the "Sunny South." The Y. L. and Y. M. M. L. A. of that place had just been organized, were combined, with 24 members, and held meetings every Thursday evening. Alfred J. Randall was president; Hiram Laney and George Earl, counselors; Amelia Laney, secretary. A day school had been in session for six months past. Brother Richard Ashby, of Leeds, while hauling water from above Silver Reef, on the 17th inst., met with a severe but not dangerous accident; as he was on his way, his horse started suddenly and threw him over the end of his wagon, knocking him senseless for a time and bruising him badly.

Our correspondent also asks some questions about irrigation matters, which we think will be fully answered by measures now pending in the Legislative Assembly. We therefore withhold reply for the present.

Bating Concentrated Lye.—The following is from the latest copy of the Silver Reef Miner.

"On Monday last, the 14 months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond picked up a chunk of concentrated lye, which had dropped from a shelf in the kitchen, and ate it. The baby's cries soon attracted the mother's attention, and when it was discovered what the little one had been eating, medical assistance was immediately summoned. Dr. Mantor responded, and administered vinegar, oil and castles, with good effect, all the lye being vomited from the stomach before it had time to dissolve. The little one is getting along nicely now, with every promise of perfect recovery. The roof of its mouth is badly burned, but the doctor thinks the throat and stomach are uninjured. A few days previous to this accident, the little child of Mr. and Mrs. T. Cuts picked up and ate a piece of the same stuff. Remedies were administered in time to prevent the lye from dissolving in the little one's stomach, and it is now in a fair way of recovery.

Leap Year Party.—The young ladies of the Ninth Ward gave a leap year ball in the ward meeting house last evening. The ladies all took their gentleman acquaintances to the ball, acted as floor managers, danced with whomsoever they chose of the sterner sex, and, at the close of the party capped the climax of gallantry and independence by getting the men's overshoes and coats, assisting them on with them, and juggling the brawny fellows off home and bidding them good night at the gate. Of course the ladies did not go home alone, afterward, on seeing their beaux safe to their destination and about to leave them, most of the latter turned around and walked back with the ladies to their own dwellings. As a leap year party, socially and financially, the affair was entirely a success.

Bulldozing Burial—Waived Examination.—From this morning's Journal. Yesterday, at 11 o'clock, the body of Olof Hallstrom was taken from the shop where it had lain since the inquest, and consigned to a grave in the stranger's cemetery. Mrs. Hallstrom, who insisted on seeing the body, did not follow it to the grave. A few of deceased's friends, however, accompanied the body to its last resting place.

Yesterday, at 11 o'clock, Leroy D. Swigart was brought up before Commissioner McKinnon on a warrant sworn to by Charles S. King, charging that said Swigart did, on the night of the 29th inst., assault King with intent to commit murder. E. J. Barnett appeared in behalf of the people. Mr. Swigart, who appeared without counsel, waived an examination, and bonds for his appearance at the District Court were fixed at $500, which were given.

"Contributor" Out.—The February number of the Contributor is out, and, as usual, is attractive and very interesting. The table of contents is as follows: Confidence, V. Moses Thatch; Buoyancy of the Air, the Balloon, Quebec; Mahomet and his Religion, H. W. Young; Thoroughness, H. W. Young; Augustus, H. W. Young; Editorial: Scripture Credo; The Love of Mystery, O. P. Whitney; A "Live Mormon" in Boston, E. F. Cummings, Jr.; Mozart, Monday; Bits of Travel; V. City of Vienna, De Vallibus; Home; II. Gates and Hedges; T. Scottless; Horace Cummings; Amos; Intelligence; District Meeting; Quarterly Conference; Review of Books: "Lives of the Signers," "Ollendorf's Spanish," Poetic Selections.

Sunday Services.—The Sabbath services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be as follows: Sunday Schools at 10 a. m.; Ward meetings at 2 p. m., and at the usual evening hours. Home missionaries will visit the various city wards in the evening.

Priesthood Meeting.—The Bishop of this city will please announce, in their respective wards, the general priesthood meeting of the Stake to be held in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, on Saturday, February 7th, at 11 a. m.

"Messiah" Chorus.—The ladies who have been invited to take part in the "Messiah" chorus, to be introduced in the next Careless or Choral concert, will please meet at Careless' Music Store, next Monday afternoon, at 3.30 o'clock.

No "Exponent" To-day.—The February 1st number of the Woman's Exponent, which should have been issued to-day, will not be ready for distribution till next week. The cold weather has made it impossible to keep our paper mill in operation.

Honor to Whom.—Every paper in the Territory has now published the result of our researches showing that there are five Sundays in February, which event only occurs once in twenty-eight years, yet not one has been generous enough to give us credit.—Herald.

Yes, and it really is too bad. One who would strain his intellect for 28 years on a thing like that, is certainly deserving of some credit.

Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court disposed of the following cases yesterday, the last ones on their docket:

Erwin Davis vs. Flagstaff Silver Mining Company et al.; appeal prayed for and allowed; bond fixed at $500.

Wells, Fargo & Co. vs. Samuel Nielsen et al.; additional findings of fact are made by the court, agreeable to the motion made a few days ago.

George Monroe vs. Jas. Ives; abstract of the record on appeal dispensed with.

Dramatic.—The Twenty-First Ward Theatians intend giving another entertainment in the Ward Meeting-house on Tuesday evening next, when they will present an attractive programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections, concluding with the great temperance drama "Ten Nights in a Bar Room."

This place has been performed several times by the Theatians, in this city, and has given general satisfaction, and as the proceeds of the present entertainment will be used for a charitable purpose, they should be encouraged with a full house. Admission 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children under twelve.
