Many of our people attended celebrations at Hyde Park, Smithfield, Hyrum and Wellsville, at each of which places a rousing time was had. The speakers during the two sessions held were Presidents George Q. Cannon, Joseph F. Smith, Sol. H. Hale, Apostles M. W. Merrill and Elder B. G. Thatchers.

Celebration Graced by a Young Lady Orator—Crop Shortage.

Holden, Millard Co., July 25.—Pioneer day was fittingly observed here yesterday by the execution of an appropriate program. Holden enjoys the distinction of being the only town in the Territory where the day of the advent of the Pioneers. Miss Frances Nixon performed that part in a very creditable manner. The songs and recitations rendered were pleasing and show that not only the talent here, but that it is being developed.

EFFECTS OF DROUGHT.

The scarcity of water has caused a shortage of crops. Of them, the principal product, there will be half of the yield of last year. As most of the people are cattle owners, the question of wintering stock is one that gives great concern. Some have talked of driving their cattle into localities where there is more plentiful and cheaper than here. Others say that if there is a market this fall they will sell most of their stock.

Observances at Manti and Ephraim—Old Folks Entertained.

Manti, Sanpete Co., July 25.—Elder Josiah E. Hickman of the B. Y. Academy delivered one of the best orations of the day at the fifty-third anniversary of the advent of the Pioneers. OBSERVANCES AT EPHRAIM.

The ball game at Ephraim between the Red stockings of that place and the Z. C. M. I. team of Salt Lake City, attracted hundreds of visitors from surrounding towns. The game was a very close one, and resulted in a victory for the city champions by one tally. Another game is being played this morning at Ephraim also provided a splendid entertainment for her old people, in addition to the regular morning program in the Tabernacle. In the afternoon, every person who came over years of age was invited to the Tabernacle, where ice cream and cake were served, and where singing, music, speech making and reciting made things pleasant for the aged.

John P. Dorius and P. C. Anderson, of Ephraim, and Enoch Jorgensen of Manti, L. John Nuttall of Salt Lake City, President Henry Beal and others made the speech.

The drought continues in Sanpete, and there seems to be but little hope of a second crop of lucern. Harvesting has commenced, and will be in full blast before the close of the week.

WILLARD.

Death of a Missionary's Babe—Pioneer Day Observed.

Willard, Boxelder County, July 25.—The sympathy of the community here is extended to Brother Willard and Sister Della Love Nuttall in the death of their little three months old child, who died on the 20th inst. It had been ill almost since its birth. It was buried with appropriate ceremonies on Sunday.

The 25th. The fact that the father is on a mission in Germany and has never seen his child seems to give greater cause for regret.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH.

The Twenty-fourth was celebrated here in the good old way, the day being ushered in by the boom of guns. Old Glory was run up to the top of the Liberty pole and soon the town was all astir. At 8 a. number of wagons representing the Pioneers came from different directions and they, joined by a band of music, proceeded to the square.

Wrote for Mrs. Pinkham's Advice November, 1897

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am a great sufferer, have much trouble through the lower part of my bowels, and I am writing to you for advice. Menstrues are irregular and scanty, am troubled with leucorrhoea, and I ache so through my back and down through my loins. I have spells of bloating very badly, sometimes they will be very large and other times very much reduced. —Mrs. CHAS. E. JOHNSON, Box 33, Rumford Center, Maine, Nov. 20, 1897.

Improvement Reported December, 1897

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to tell you that I am improving in health. I am ever so much better than when I wrote before. The trouble through the lower part of bowels is better and I am not bloated so badly. I was very much swollen through the abdomen before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I still have a feeling of fullness across my chest. I have used three bottles of it and am on the fourth. —Mrs. CHAS. E. JOHNSON, Box 33, Rumford Center, Maine, Dec. 13, 1897.

Enjoying Good Health June, 1899

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Since a year ago I have been taking your medicine, and I am now strong and enjoying good health. I would advise all who suffer with female troubles to try your medicine. —Mrs. CHAS. E. JOHNSON, Box 33, Rumford Center, Maine, June 1, 1899.

The grandest Draper has ever produced. In all, there were 33 different professions and industries represented. The queen's (Miss Mina Garret) float being the most beautiful. The Columbia float was also very neatly arranged. Those, together with the dress makers, milliners, etc., composed the parade which was a good one-half mile in length.

At the given, a very fine and interesting program was rendered, composed of band music, speeches, singing, etc. In the afternoon there were foot races for young and old, horse races, bicycle races, and a match game of baseball between the Pioneers and a team and a portion of it a Draper team (part of the Draper team had gone to Lehi to play the Bankers). The Jordan boys had it all their own way, winning easily with a score of 10 to 0.

In the evening a grand ball was given in Rideout's opera house.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Walter D. Fitzgerald, son of J. W. Fitzgerald, met with a very painful accident July 22nd, while riding along the street his horse became frightened throwing Walter to the ground and fracturing his left shoulder blade. The horse ran against a wagon standing at the curb, and the driver, John J. Morris, was thrown from the wagon and sustained a fracture of the right arm.

Our meeting house is nearing completion and will be in readiness for completion of the new convalescent hospital, 4th and 5th. It is a very beautiful structure and has cost in the neighborhood of $50,000.

The water supply is getting very low and some farms are in a very bad condition. The water for the potato crop are very uncertain.

RICHFIELD.

Characteristic Celebration of Utah's Birthday—Fine Parade.

Richfield, Sevier Co., July 25.—The celebration of the birthday of July here yesterday was an unqualified success from start to finish. W. H. Clark was chairman of the general committee and marshal of the day.

In the industrial procession in the morning was one of the best ever witnessed in this locality. The floats and carriages were all elegantly decorated with the Utah and national colors and the various characters represented were most successful in their presentation.

The procession was led by the silver band, then came the State, city, county, and ward officers in carriages. Following these were a pioneer wagon, pioneer cabin, four military bands, general merchandise, confectionery, and refreshments, harness and saddles, photography, hardware, wood work and lumber, city physician, clowns, rascals, and unclowned by the band, and occupied the whole forenoon.

PIONEER DAY.

The Pioneer day celebration was enjoyed very much by the town folk and by some visitors. A program was given in the forenoon at the bower in the public square, consisting of patriotic songs and speeches, and the good story of the Pioneers and early settlement of our state was told over again. Miss Marie Snow, accompanied by the Misses Leah Bignor, Ivy Greenwood, Jennie Robinson, Alice Eastwood, Zina Forbes and Jennie East-

CARDSTON, CANADA.

Refreshment Rains Assured Bounteous Crops—General Prosperity.

Cardston, Alberta, Canada, July 19.—The gentle rain, refreshing rain has descended upon our country, and Alberta Stake of Zion can be counted on for splendid crops of grain, with gardens unexcelled in any part of the temperate zone; fat stock, with an ever ready market, sheep men rejoicing over their "clip" bringing a good round price, and more miles of good fences, with the corresponding number of inhabitants than can be found in many days' travel.

In Cardston, the Rose & Latham Lumber company have planted a first class planing mill, with good lumber at less than Salt Lake prices. The Cardston Implement Co., with the marketing manager, Thomas Duce, at the helm, and Architect E. F. Rose as builder, is rushing a first class building, 60x10, to completion. Allen & Co. have an extensive addition to their already commodious store. President Card's new home, a good brick house, plain and comfortable, will soon be completed, and buildings galore are springing up in every settlement at a rapid rate.

The weather has been perfect. Many go into the mountains, and by sea and land, and pay a big price to get what we have at home all the time. We noticed on the visitors' list Elder Charlton Jacobs of West Weber, who has a son here; he is delighted with the country and its prosperity. His stay was too brief to suit his many relatives and friends here. Mr. James Eldridge is amongst us occasionally, as he has a large land purchase on the tapis, and knows where to put his money for safe and speedy returns.

Railroads are an assured fact: mines 30 miles west of here called "Swift Current," are being developed by means of means, and are fast developing into the benefit for the surrounding country's benefit.

As per list, and in accordance with law and order of directors made on the 15th day of June 1899, so many shares of each parcel of stock may be necessary will be sold at public auction, on the 15th day of July, 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the County Court House, in Salt Lake City, Utah, to pay the delinquent assessments thereon, together with the cost of advertising and expenses of sale.
