

SOCIAL HOSTESS

Miss Katherine Giddes was hostess at an elaborate affair at the Country club on Tuesday night, the event being a dinner followed by dancing. The table was handsomely decorated with red peonies and red-shaded lights, and present were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Champion, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hamberger, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Callaghan, Miss Mary McShane, Miss Addie Zane, Mrs. Sherman A. White, Miss Allie Miller, Miss Adelaide Nason, Miss Katherine Williams, Miss Kate Judge, P. L. Williams, Jr., Charles Morris, Henry Hallett, C. McDonald, F. C. Schramm, J. S. Critchlow, J. T. Goodwin, J. A. Pollock, E. B. Wicks, Samuel Newhouse, Mr. Admet, George N. Lawrence, Henry McCormick and Jasper McAskill.

Mrs. Heber Lee entertained delightfully at cards yesterday, the rooms being effectively decorated, and a number of friends enjoying the afternoon.

Another enjoyable card party of yesterday was that given by Miss Tinsman at the Emery flats.

Mrs. W. R. Plimann entertained at a pleasant affair this afternoon in honor of her two daughters.

About a dozen friends were entertained by Mrs. W. W. Anness on Thursday in honor of two friends who are visiting here. Mrs. Wenz and Miss Mary Hoag. In the guessing game that was played Mrs. L. Hickey was winner.

From 2 to 5 o'clock Thursday, Mrs. John McVicker received informally at her home in honor of the members of the Gamma Phi society of the U. of U. The rooms were decorated with flowers, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. F. W. Reynolds, Mrs. R. E. Little, Misses Edith Kingbury and the Misses Vivian and Kate Little. About 40 guests were present.

Mrs. E. P. Pondleton entertained at a bridge tea at the post on Thursday, the prize winners being Miss Katherine Judge, Mrs. A. M. Smith, Mrs. G. P. Holman and Mrs. A. T. Easton.

Miss Mamie Hines entertained at an afternoon party on Thursday for her guest, Miss Patterson of Ogden, the time being spent with music and games, and about 20 guests enjoying the event.

Mrs. Clarence Post entertained delightfully yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Mabel Carson.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sowles entertain a number of friends at the Country club.

Mrs. Hubbard Reed gave an elaborate luncheon today at the Commercial club, the table being beautifully decorated in June flowers and about 25 guests being present.

This afternoon Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. J. M. Bidwell entertain at a bridge tea at the home of Mrs. Woodward.

Miss Lela McMillan entertained yesterday in honor of Miss McCreary of Idaho.

Mrs. W. B. Dale entertained informally at luncheon on Thursday.

Miss Erma Eberhart entertained on Thursday in honor of Miss Mabel Carson, the affair being a china dinner party, the bride elect receiving many dainty cups and saucers. A pretty luncheon was the feature of the event, the table being decorated in red roses.

with place cards in the same color, while the rooms were bright with June roses of all shades. Covers were laid for about a dozen guests.

Another pretty luncheon of Thursday was that given by Mrs. M. K. Parsons for her daughter, the decorations being in yellow and about a half-dozen being present.

Mrs. M. H. Kervin entertained at luncheon on Thursday, the decorations being in pink, and covers being laid for 16 guests.

Mrs. Harold Russell was guest of honor at a bridge luncheon on Wednesday her hostess being Mrs. William Reid.

Mrs. John Weil entertained a few friends at a bridge tea on yesterday.

Mrs. H. N. Mayo was hostess at an informal card party yesterday.

Mrs. Allen M. Smith entertained informally at luncheon at the post yesterday.

Mrs. Lewis H. Farnsworth was hostess at a box party at the Orpheum on Thursday, the guests being the faculty and seniors of the Gordon academy.

Miss Bessie Williamson gave a delightful luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Katherine Moffatt, about a dozen guests being present. The table was prettily done in green and white and attached to the place cards were tiny silken bags containing rice. Besides the guests of honor, covers were laid for Mrs. Elwood Knickerbocker, Miss Mabel Crowley, Miss Myra, Charles, Miss Hattie Fernon, Miss Amy Adams, Miss Lydia Smithson, Miss Irma Walker, Miss Katherine McDonald, Miss Ethel Campbell, Miss Mary Moffatt.

Monday evening, June 4, at 250 Eleventh East, Miss Maggie Earl was surprised by a number of her friends, the occasion being her thirteenth birthday. Games and other amusements were enjoyed during the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Maggie Earl, Paula Brown, Lillian Donkin, Merriek Blake, Adalade Earle, Bryant Crawford, Gertrude Prouse, Leo Earl, Rena Prouse, Walter Brownly, Grace Cameron, Joseph Earl, Hazel Wood, Raymond Donkin, Leon Earl, Donald Cameron.

The Misses Scallon entertained about a dozen friends at a pretty luncheon on Monday in honor of Miss Carolyn Holmes, the decorations being carried out effectively in red and green, peonies, ferns and red candle shades being used.

An elaborate event of the week was the luncheon given by the undergraduates of Rowland hall to the faculty and seniors on Monday at the University club. The school colors, yellow and gold, were used in the decoration and about 15 guests were present.

A pretty luncheon of the week was that given by Mrs. E. P. Kimball, Mrs. Walter Romney and Mrs. F. T. Safford in honor of Miss Nathalia Jones whose marriage to R. T. Clark takes place on Tuesday. The table was decorated in pinks and hollyhocks, and the intimate friends were present.

The Daughters of the Morning Battalion will meet at the home of Mrs. I. Workman, 43 south First West, at 3 p. m. Tuesday, June 12, 1906. The program will be a reading from the history by Mrs. Maria J. Taylor, vocal selections of Miss Melissa Swan; history of the flag, Mrs. Julia M. Farnsworth; instrumental selection, Mrs. Gertrude F. Kimball.

The Woman's Democratic club will meet next Wednesday, the 13th, at the home of Mrs. Grosholtz, No. 6 Wayne avenue at 2:30 o'clock and all members are urgently requested to be present.

On next Friday evening, June 15, the members of the Eastern Star will be entertained by Mrs. C. F. Kutnewsky, Miss Martha Kutnewsky and Mrs. W. H. Arnold at the home of Mrs. Kutnewsky, 420 Fifth street.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. F. E. Bailey, accompanied by Miss Irene Young, Miss Renee Redman and Spencer Young, leave next Tuesday for an extended trip to California and old Mexico.

Mrs. F. A. Timby has gone to Adrian and Detroit, Mich., for a three weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Jennie Breckon left Thursday evening for a visit with relatives in Vancouver, B. C.

Miss Alice C. Wilson, Mrs. John G.

next week for a visit with friends in Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Niles have gone to Boston for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard V. Platt left for their home in Los Angeles yesterday, taking with them in their private car, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, who will be their guests for the next few weeks. En route to southern California they will visit San Francisco and view the ruins of the earthquake and fire.

Mrs. Fred Earls and Miss Lena Welby are at the Gordon academy for a few days, Mrs. Earls being on her way to join Mr. Earls in Cortez, Nev., where they will reside for some time.

Mrs. Elias Smith returns tomorrow from Chicago where she has been for some time past. Miss Pearl Weller accompanying her.

Miss Helen Carvick, teacher of expression in the Normal college, Las Vegas, N. M., is a guest of Miss Flora E. Baldwin at the Templeton building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fawkes of the Seaside Display company of this city used with smilax in artistic effect, while the table in the dining room had ribbon bows and streamers, with shaded lights, used with the floral centerpiece. The bride wore a gown of white net over silk, and carried roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss La Prade Hatch, was gowned in white Swiss, and carried pink flowers. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. L. C. Pond, Mrs. Loece and Mrs. A. L. Williams. Others assisting were the Misses Kate McManes, Charlotte Trowbridge, Myrtle Jack, Mignon Menhalter, Irene Kimball and Emily Clawson. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will make their home in Ogden.

A quiet marriage took place on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lyne, when the latter's sister was wedded to Mr. Harley G. Helmick, the ceremony being performed by the groom's father, Rev. D. M. Helmick, of the First M. E. church. The rooms were bright with flowers, and a wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Helmick left to make their home in Pocatello.

One of Thursday's marriages united Miss Emily Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Whitney and Mr. Winslow Fair Smith son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Smith, the ceremony being performed in the Temple and an informal reception being held at the bride's home from 5 to 9 o'clock a large number calling during the hours. The bride wore a dainty gown of filmy white silk with trimmings of duchesse lace and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The rooms were bright with June flowers, and a number of young girls assisted in serving in the dining room, while the little twins, Paul and Virginia Whitney dispensed wedding cake in the hall. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home here.

Miss Ivy Winegar and Mr. Robert H. Marchant were married in the Temple on Thursday.

On Wednesday Miss Mary Alice Hill and F. L. Palmquist were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Loofbourrow by Rev. McLain and the affair being a quiet one. They will be at home to their friends after June 15.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the week was that of Miss Mary Sharp and George T. Budger on Wednesday night, the reception following their marriage in the Temple during the day. Roses, peonies, buttercups and orange blossoms were everywhere and the affair altogether was a delightful one.

Two elaborate church weddings took place on Wednesday, that of Miss Helen Hamberger and Mr. Arthur B. Bhal, which was solemnized at the Temple B'nai Israel with Rabbi Freund officiating, and that of Miss Irma Wager and John R. Milan at St. Mark's with Dean Brewster performing the ceremony, both events being extremely pretty ones. A supper at the Alla club followed the first and a reception at the bride's home the second, and flowers and music made the scenes festive as bridal events should be.

On Tuesday the marriage of Miss Katherine Potter Moffett and Willard Hansen will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. K. S. Moffett, the ceremony to be performed at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. W. D. Padon of the Presbyterian church, the ceremony being followed by a large reception. The bride will be attended by Miss Mary Moffett as bridesmaid, the best man being Bruce Robinson.

Word has been received in this city from Everett, Mass., announcing the engagement on Miss Grace Wakefield Baron and John W. Cannell, who has been a visitor to Salt Lake every summer for the past three years.

The wedding of Miss Nathalia Jones and Mr. B. T. Clark, takes place next Tuesday.

A pretty wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Kate L. Artick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. I. Derrick and S. D. Watson, the ceremony having taken place in the Temple during the day. They will receive the best wishes of their friends.

Miss Della Wake, granddaughter of Rev. R. Wake of this city, will be married next Monday to Mr. C. P. Beal, at the residence of the bride, 1140 Washington avenue at 8 p. m. Mr. Wake and Rev. P. A. Stimpkin of the Phillips Congregational church officiating.

On June 12 the marriage of Miss Mabel Carson and Charles B. McElroy, will take place.

The wedding of Miss Mattie Gillespie and James H. Kirk takes place next Wednesday, also that of Miss Rinda Hamlin and T. W. Hall.

The engagement of Miss Maud May Irvine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Irvine, to David C. Dunbar, is announced, the wedding to take place this month.

The Weber State academy alumni reception and banquet to the graduating class was given Monday evening at the academy building, which was attended by a large number of graduates and invited guests. An interesting literary and musical program was carried out, after which a present was set down to the banquet table, and toasts were enjoyed. Prof. Bradford acting as toastmaster. It was an evening of true sociality and good cheer. Besides the social feature of the evening, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, LeRoy Cowles, '06; vice president, Orlando Woolley, '05; secretary, Edna Cardon, '06; treasurer, James G. Widdison, '03. The halls were beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Miss Jessie Shuriff and S. M. Moore, two popular young people of Ogden, were married this week.

Thursday afternoon, at the home of John Hamner, a happy wedding event took place, when Miss Edna Olsen was married to Rudolph Kaiser, two of the most popular young people of Brigham City. The bride and groom, together with a few intimate friends and Rev. Rankin of the Presbyterian church, came to Ogden on the morning train, and in the presence of a few friends, the ceremony was performed by Dr. Rankin. Miss Rilla Knudson acted as bridesmaid and Joseph Zimmerman was best man. A dainty repast was served after the ceremony. The groom is the popular manager of the Idaho hotel at Brigham City, and the bride is a charming and talented young lady. After spending a few days in Ogden they will return to Boxelder county to receive the congratulations of their many friends.

Judge H. H. Rolap left for the east this week, accompanied by his wife.

One of the pleasurable events of the week was the ball given Thursday evening at Toller's dancing academy in honor of the United Commercial Travelers. The attendance was unusually large. Dainty refreshments were served. The hall was tastefully decorated with the lodge colors—blue, white and orange.

Miss Effie Pearl McDonald of Cleveland, Utah, and James T. Bishop of Ogden were married Wednesday by Elder William Van Dyke.

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Adalain Greenwell, on Monroe avenue Wednesday evening, Miss Winifred Greenwell was wedded to C. Archibald Knowles, Elder C. H. Greenwell, uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony, which was Another pretty reception of Thursday was that of Miss Harriet Dye and William Swan, following their marriage which was solemnized at noon in the Temple. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dye. In the evening, the rooms being beautifully decorated, the parlor was decorated with pink roses and carnations, which barked the mantels and were all about. The dining room was in American beauty roses and red peonies, the table having these for a centerpiece, while candles, shaded in red, were at the corners. The hall was in yellow, roses being used in profusion.

Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dye, Mrs. Barbara Jones, mother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Horne and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hager, while Miss Frederick Little and Mrs. C. C. Little presided in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Weidling, Mrs. Theodore Stringer and Miss Nellie Street. Punch was served in the hall from a Japanese bowl, presided over by Miss Barbara Swan and Miss Lela Horne. About 180 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Swan will be at home after July 1, at 1245 Lincoln avenue.

The ceremony uniting Miss Pearl Kimball and Alfred G. Davis was performed Thursday in the Temple, and in the evening a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kimball, a large number being present. The rooms were bright with a profusion of flowers, roses and carnations being McKinney and Ruth McKinney have returned from a three months' visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir have gone to Cleveland and other eastern points.

Mrs. A. M. Walden has gone to Logan for a short visit.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury and her son James have reached home after an absence of some months in the east and in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKenzie and their daughter, Maud McKenzie, left this week for Los Angeles.

Miss Eleanor Peterson left during the week for Quebec, whence she will sail June 23 for a tour of Europe.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Dickford left this week for a month's stay in Los Angeles.

Miss Elizabeth Fitzgerald has gone to Kimberly to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Clark will spend the summer in Long Beach.

Miss Grace Frost left this week for Chicago, whence she goes with her aunt to Ludington on Lake Michigan to spend the summer.

Miss Edith Sutherland left this week for Tarkio, Mo., to spend the summer.

Mrs. A. F. Kendall and her daughter, May, will leave shortly to spend the summer with friends in Illinois and Iowa.

Miss Anna Murphy will leave the latter part of the month for Minneapolis to spend the summer.

Miss Althea Morton, Miss Lela Campbell and Miss Pearl Adams all left for Los Angeles Thursday over the Salt Lake Route.

Mrs. Mary E. Gilmer left Thursday for a three weeks' trip in the east, accompanied by her granddaughters, Dorothy and Mary Gilmer.

Mrs. Emma A. Beemer and Miss Estelle Beemer left Wednesday for the east, where they will visit with relatives and friends for six weeks. While away they will spend some time in Denver, Chicago, Milwaukee, Boston and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Clark and Miss Lela B. Clark have gone to Los Angeles for a six weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Bickford have gone to the coast.

Mrs. L. J. Kyles left on Sunday for Denver, where she will visit with her sister for several weeks.

Mrs. F. D. Kimball and Mrs. Will Price left Monday afternoon for Boston for a brief stay.

Mrs. Mary Ryan left this week for Los Angeles, where she will spend a month.

Mrs. S. B. Page and Miss Carolyn Holmes left Wednesday for Denver.

Mrs. F. A. Priest, -pays to leave have left for Los Angeles, San Francisco and Yellowstone park, and later will go to Chicago and New York on their way to Europe to be gone a year.

The June bride has been heavily in evidence this week about a dozen having been added to the year's list. Wednesday and Thursday were the popular days, the number of weddings being about evenly divided between them. Next week and the following has each its bridal events scheduled and the season promises to be a notable one in nuptials.

The wedding of Ardella Bitner and Benjamin Tibbey took place in Thursday night at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George W. Dyer, on First street, the ceremony being performed by State President Richard W. Young, and a large reception following. The rooms were bright with spring blossoms, and the bride wore a gown of white tulle, and her bridesmaid, Miss Ada Bitner, was in white dotted Swiss over polka green. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Dyer and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Castleberry. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Tibbey are at home at 227 Sixth street.

Another pretty reception of Thursday was that of Miss Harriet Dye and William Swan, following their marriage which was solemnized at noon in the Temple. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dye. In the evening, the rooms being beautifully decorated, the parlor was decorated with pink roses and carnations, which barked the mantels and were all about. The dining room was in American beauty roses and red peonies, the table having these for a centerpiece, while candles, shaded in red, were at the corners. The hall was in yellow, roses being used in profusion.

Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dye, Mrs. Barbara Jones, mother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Horne and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hager, while Miss Frederick Little and Mrs. C. C. Little presided in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Weidling, Mrs. Theodore Stringer and Miss Nellie Street. Punch was served in the hall from a Japanese bowl, presided over by Miss Barbara Swan and Miss Lela Horne. About 180 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Swan will be at home after July 1, at 1245 Lincoln avenue.

The ceremony uniting Miss Pearl Kimball and Alfred G. Davis was performed Thursday in the Temple, and in the evening a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kimball, a large number being present. The rooms were bright with a profusion of flowers, roses and carnations being

McKinney and Ruth McKinney have returned from a three months' visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir have gone to Cleveland and other eastern points.

Mrs. A. M. Walden has gone to Logan for a short visit.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury and her son James have reached home after an absence of some months in the east and in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKenzie and their daughter, Maud McKenzie, left this week for Los Angeles.

Miss Eleanor Peterson left during the week for Quebec, whence she will sail June 23 for a tour of Europe.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Dickford left this week for a month's stay in Los Angeles.

Miss Elizabeth Fitzgerald has gone to Kimberly to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Clark will spend the summer in Long Beach.

Miss Grace Frost left this week for Chicago, whence she goes with her aunt to Ludington on Lake Michigan to spend the summer.

Miss Edith Sutherland left this week for Tarkio, Mo., to spend the summer.

Mrs. A. F. Kendall and her daughter, May, will leave shortly to spend the summer with friends in Illinois and Iowa.

Miss Anna Murphy will leave the latter part of the month for Minneapolis to spend the summer.

Miss Althea Morton, Miss Lela Campbell and Miss Pearl Adams all left for Los Angeles Thursday over the Salt Lake Route.

Mrs. Mary E. Gilmer left Thursday for a three weeks' trip in the east, accompanied by her granddaughters, Dorothy and Mary Gilmer.

Mrs. Emma A. Beemer and Miss Estelle Beemer left Wednesday for the east, where they will visit with relatives and friends for six weeks. While away they will spend some time in Denver, Chicago, Milwaukee, Boston and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Clark and Miss Lela B. Clark have gone to Los Angeles for a six weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Bickford have gone to the coast.

Mrs. L. J. Kyles left on Sunday for Denver, where she will visit with her sister for several weeks.

Mrs. F. D. Kimball and Mrs. Will Price left Monday afternoon for Boston for a brief stay.

Mrs. Mary Ryan left this week for Los Angeles, where she will spend a month.

Mrs. S. B. Page and Miss Carolyn Holmes left Wednesday for Denver.

Mrs. F. A. Priest, -pays to leave

used with smilax in artistic effect, while the table in the dining room had ribbon bows and streamers, with shaded lights, used with the floral centerpiece. The bride wore a gown of white net over silk, and carried roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss La Prade Hatch, was gowned in white Swiss, and carried pink flowers. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. L. C. Pond, Mrs. Loece and Mrs. A. L. Williams. Others assisting were the Misses Kate McManes, Charlotte Trowbridge, Myrtle Jack, Mignon Menhalter, Irene Kimball and Emily Clawson. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will make their home in Ogden.

A quiet marriage took place on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lyne, when the latter's sister was wedded to Mr. Harley G. Helmick, the ceremony being performed by the groom's father, Rev. D. M. Helmick, of the First M. E. church. The rooms were bright with flowers, and a wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Helmick left to make their home in Pocatello.

One of Thursday's marriages united Miss Emily Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Whitney and Mr. Winslow Fair Smith son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Smith, the ceremony being performed in the Temple and an informal reception being held at the bride's home from 5 to 9 o'clock a large number calling during the hours. The bride wore a dainty gown of filmy white silk with trimmings of duchesse lace and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The rooms were bright with June flowers, and a number of young girls assisted in serving in the dining room, while the little twins, Paul and Virginia Whitney dispensed wedding cake in the hall. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home here.

Miss Ivy Winegar and Mr. Robert H. Marchant were married in the Temple on Thursday.

On Wednesday Miss Mary Alice Hill and F. L. Palmquist were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Loofbourrow by Rev. McLain and the affair being a quiet one. They will be at home to their friends after June 15.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the week was that of Miss Mary Sharp and George T. Budger on Wednesday night, the reception following their marriage in the Temple during the day. Roses, peonies, buttercups and orange blossoms were everywhere and the affair altogether was a delightful one.

Two elaborate church weddings took place on Wednesday, that of Miss Helen Hamberger and Mr. Arthur B. Bhal, which was solemnized at the Temple B'nai Israel with Rabbi Freund officiating, and that of Miss Irma Wager and John R. Milan at St. Mark's with Dean Brewster performing the ceremony, both events being extremely pretty ones. A supper at the Alla club followed the first and a reception at the bride's home the second, and flowers and music made the scenes festive as bridal events should be.

On Tuesday the marriage of Miss Katherine Potter Moffett and Willard Hansen will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. K. S. Moffett, the ceremony to be performed at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. W. D. Padon of the Presbyterian church, the ceremony being followed by a large reception. The bride will be attended by Miss Mary Moffett as bridesmaid, the best man being Bruce Robinson.

Word has been received in this city from Everett, Mass., announcing the engagement on Miss Grace Wakefield Baron and John W. Cannell, who has been a visitor to Salt Lake every summer for the past three years.

The wedding of Miss Nathalia Jones and Mr. B. T. Clark, takes place next Tuesday.

A pretty wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Kate L. Artick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. I. Derrick and S. D. Watson, the ceremony having taken place in the Temple during the day. They will receive the best wishes of their friends.

Miss Della Wake, granddaughter of Rev. R. Wake of this city, will be married next Monday to Mr. C. P. Beal, at the residence of the bride, 1140 Washington avenue at 8 p. m. Mr. Wake and Rev. P. A. Stimpkin of the Phillips Congregational church officiating.

On June 12 the marriage of Miss Mabel Carson and Charles B. McElroy, will take place.

The wedding of Miss Mattie Gillespie and James H. Kirk takes place next Wednesday, also that of Miss Rinda Hamlin and T. W. Hall.

The engagement of Miss Maud May Irvine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Irvine, to David C. Dunbar, is announced, the wedding to take place this month.

The Weber State academy alumni reception and banquet to the graduating class was given Monday evening at the academy building, which was attended by a large number of graduates and invited guests. An interesting literary and musical program was carried out, after which a present was set down to the banquet table, and toasts were enjoyed. Prof. Bradford acting as toastmaster. It was an evening of true sociality and good cheer. Besides the social feature of the evening, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, LeRoy Cowles, '06; vice president, Orlando Woolley, '05; secretary, Edna Cardon, '06; treasurer, James G. Widdison, '03. The halls were beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Miss Jessie Shuriff and S. M. Moore, two popular young people of Ogden, were married this week.

Thursday afternoon, at the home of John Hamner, a happy wedding event took place, when Miss Edna Olsen was married to Rudolph Kaiser, two of the most popular young people of Brigham City. The bride and groom, together with a few intimate friends and Rev. Rankin of the Presbyterian church, came to Ogden on the morning train, and in the presence of a few friends, the ceremony was performed by Dr. Rankin. Miss Rilla Knudson acted as bridesmaid and Joseph Zimmerman was best man. A dainty repast was served after the ceremony. The groom is the popular manager of the Idaho hotel at Brigham City, and the bride is a charming and talented young lady. After spending a few days in Ogden they will return to Boxelder county to receive the congratulations of their many friends.

Judge H. H. Rolap left for the east this week, accompanied by his wife.

One of the pleasurable events of the week was the ball given Thursday evening at Toller's dancing academy in honor of the United Commercial Travelers. The attendance was unusually large. Dainty refreshments were served. The hall was tastefully decorated with the lodge colors—blue, white and orange.

Miss Effie Pearl McDonald of Cleveland, Utah, and James T. Bishop of Ogden were married Wednesday by Elder William Van Dyke.

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Adalain Greenwell, on Monroe avenue Wednesday evening, Miss Winifred Greenwell was wedded to C. Archibald Knowles, Elder C. H. Greenwell, uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony, which was Another pretty reception of Thursday was that of Miss Harriet Dye and William Swan, following their marriage which was solemnized at noon in the Temple. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dye. In the evening, the rooms being beautifully decorated, the parlor was decorated with pink roses and carnations, which barked the mantels and were all about. The dining room was in American beauty roses and red peonies, the table having these for a centerpiece, while candles, shaded in red, were at the corners. The hall was in yellow, roses being used in profusion.