WAS NOT INTERVIEWED.

Assistant City Attorney P. J. Daly, denies the report that he had stated the effect that he had stated the street car company was not liable for license assessments on its cars under the franchise granted the company by the city council, and says the exact contrary condition is the case. It was further learned from License Assessor Samuel Godman that the company has paid its assessment of $25 each on the 65 cars in regular service on its lines, without any question. Mr. Daly says he has not been interviewed on the matter and can not imagine where the authority for the statement came from.

In regard to the matter of issuing transfers, section IV of the franchise states in plain words that "The price of a single passage shall not exceed five cents, which shall be subject to all transfers and commutation privileges as may exist on the balance of the company's system. Further than this, the city council may, by ordinance, enforce such transfer regulations for the government of the street car company as it may see fit, under the following provision contained in Section V of the franchise ordinance: "That in the construction and operation of said railway the said grantee and its successors and assigns shall at all times conform to such ordinances, rules and regulations as have been or may hereafter be adopted by the city council of said city in relation to operating railways, street railways or tramways in said city, and for each violation thereof they shall be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars. Provided that nothing in this provision shall be construed to prevent the city council from forfeiting this franchise for any violation thereof as provided in this franchise."

According to the above extract, the council has power to regulate the issuance of transfers by the street railway company, and the power to forfeit the franchise for any violation of its provisions or the government of the street railway.

FAVORS THE MOVEMENT.

Pres. Widdowes Writes to Gov. Cutler on Subject of Tuberculosis.

Governor Cutler is in receipt of a letter from President J. A. Widdowes of the state Agricultural college, commending the movement inaugurated by the governor to further a plan for instituting a course in the subject of tuberculosis, its prevention and cure. Dr. Widdowes says the experiment station at Logan has undertaken researches in the subject of tuberculosis among animals, and thinks a course may be instituted for the study of the disease among human beings at the college. He at least heartily approves of the governor's plan, and hopes for the co-operation of medical men and others interested to carry out the project.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The audience which greeted Lew Dockstader last night at the Theater must have warmed the cockles of his heart. People stood on every floor and laughed and applauded until 11:15 and generally seemed to be cut for the night. It was demonstrated once more that the old-fashioned minstrel show is an American institution and if some of the jokes were venerable and a few slightly off color, well, that is to be expected.

We almost laughed

yesterday when we thought of how we told you to buy a raincoat the other day when the sun was shining brightly.

The joke was on us then, but Jupiter Pluvius came to our rescue yesterday. The whole month of May is especially good for raincoat wearers.

It was the same old Dockstader with his quiet infectious humor devoid of vocal or pedal strenuousness, while his old-time right bower, Neil O'Brien, with distinctly different methods also was a hot favorite.

The company is strongest in music, the gem of the evening being Reese V. Prosser's "You Have Changed the Winter in My Heart to Glad Springtime." Low and his "crew" eschewed vaudeville stunts and abide by musical novelties and broad humorous sketches. Pre-eminent among the latter is "A Day at the White House" with Mr. Dockstader in a striking make-up of Roosevelt. He embraces the opportunity to work the telephone on a big family at Murray, the fleet at San Francisco, the local bank robbery, slot machines and that old stand-by with every gagster for the past 10 years, Salt Lake's union depot. The "big stick" and the Fairbank's cocktail also are in evidence. He also makes a pronounced hit with his topical song, "When the Hammer on the Anvil Rings," interjecting some time-honored wheezes on Salt Lake's street cars and other local institutions.

Other acts presented in the performance are "Joining the Elks," "The Land of Nod," "West Point Revue," and "A Quick Lunch," a slap stick playlet with Neil O'Brien in the role of waiter.

The performance goes again this afternoon and evening with indications of the S. R. O. sign being displayed.

CONTAGION CONTINUES.

The scarlet fever contagion continues unabated. Seven cases of contagious disease were reported to the health department during the week just closed, of which 13 were scarlet fever, making a total of 39 cases under quarantine. Two new cases of diphtheria were among the number and two cases of measles. The birth record for the week evened up again between the sexes, the females leading with a majority of one.

Following is the report in detail of the city board of health for the week ending May 8, 1908:

Forty-nine births were reported during the week; 24 males and 25 females. Twenty-nine deaths were reported during the week; 12 males and 17 females, and 10 were shipped here for burial.

There were reported during the week 17 cases of contagious and infectious diseases consisting of 13 cases of scarlet fever, two cases of diphtheria and two cases of measles.

One house account of smallpox, 39 cases of scarlet fever and four cases of diphtheria remain in quarantine at the ending of the week.

FIRE HORSE TO RACE.

(Special to the "News.") Ogden, May 9.—"Buck," the chief's buggy horse in the Ogden fire department, has been entered in the endurance race from Evanston to Denver. This horse is considered one of the sturdiest western horses in the state, and the entire west, in the estimation of the chief, he will be ridden by Noble J. Hinton, a horseman of some prominence in the west.

CADETS HOME MONDAY.

The Short Line passenger department is advised that the cadet special train will be due in Salt Lake at 1:45 p. m., Monday. However, as the cadets are to parade in Ogden and serenade the Ogden High school, it is doubtful if they reach this city much before 6 o'clock.

FLAG DAY APPROACHING.

The American Flag Day association of New York has addressed a letter to Gov. Cutler of this state, inviting him to make proclamation of the observance of Flag day on Monday, June 15, 1908.

Flag day proper falls on June 14, which will this year be the one hundred and thirty-first anniversary of the adoption of the American flag in its present form by the Continental congress, but as the date falls on Sunday, it has been recommended that Monday, the 15th of June, be designated for the observance of the day.

Gov. Cutler will take the matter up on his return and will issue the proclamation toward the latter part of the present month.

SULLIVAN WILL APPEAL.

J. H. Bailey, of counsel for Joe Sullivan, convicted of the murder of Patrolman Charles Ford, takes exception to statements appearing in a morning paper regarding Sullivan's attitude with regard to an appeal to the supreme court. Bailey declares that Sullivan is not at all deterred by the ruling in the state and present his case. He declares that the letter received just before the conclusion of the trial of Sullivan was actually written by Gracia, who, claims Bailey, was then in this state. Mr. Bailey states emphatically that Gracia has not indicated Sullivan did not actually indicate Sullivan was actually written by Gracia. Bailey has secured an order from Judge Armstrong instructing the clerk to permit Sullivan to appear at a conference between Sullivan and his counsel. Mr. Bailey declares that he will more than welcome the appearance of Gracia in this city to testify in the case. A new trial is ordered by the supreme court. Bailey has wired Seattle authorities to secure a statement from Gracia in the event that it appears he will not live.

REAR ADMIRAL EVANS IS HUMAN AFTER ALL.

The massing of the fleet was a magnificent spectacle amid the roar of the big guns, the waving of flags and the applause of the patriotic thousands, who lined the shore. It was an inspiring climax to the rounding out of Admiral Bob's naval career. And into this scene came the Salt Lake High School Cadets to remind the fighting old tar of the ambitious days of his youth when he, too, represented Utah, for it was from this state that he was sent to Annapolis.

It is said, but for the veracity of which we cannot vouch, that one of the High School Cadets presented the admiral with a box of McDonald's famous 400 chocolates; that the admiral grinned and ate some of them with the delight of a boy. It showed that the admiral is intensely human and has an appreciative taste.
