

MINING AND REALTY.

Silver Mines Everywhere Being Closed Down.

WHITE METAL STILL FALLING.

Important Notice Land Division—Homestead Patents—Sales of Mines and Real Estate.

The closing down of the Daily West at Park City, announced in yesterday evening's News, was the signal for a break along the line, and today nearly all the chief mines in Utah are under orders for closing, or their owners have decided to take that step.

From Nevada, Idaho, Montana, and many other silver-producing states news of the same nature comes. The cause was the proclamation of the white metal to be 75 cents per ounce. Today's further reduction to 65 cents will still hasten the closing process, and hundreds more will be closed in the long lines of hillsides which now through the city's streets.

To make the situation worse for workers, however, advertisements are now appearing in cities east and west, for thousands of men to come here and obtain employment on the public works.

This latter proceeding is, of course, merely a political trick, but its immediate effect must be to work some harm to the miners, inasmuch as the thousands now being thrown out of employment by the financial crisis.

At Park City, however, the Daily West is still publishing, but it is understood that the owners of the paper are contemplating its sale to the Daily and Evening News.

Mr. H. H. Hays, president of the company which owns the mine, has been working for some time to have the mine closed, but he has been unable to do so.

The following is a list of the mines which are being closed down in Park City: The Daily West, the Evening News, the Daily and Evening News, the Daily and Evening News, the Daily and Evening News.

'TRIBUNE' BOUGHT.

Story of How it Was Purchased by R. C. Chambers Today.

IT CREATES A SENSATION.

What Mr. Chambers' Purchase of the Matter to a 'News' Reporter This Afternoon.

A former wife and standing was in the Tribune, and for a time certain individuals were inclined to believe that it was correct. The report was to the effect that R. C. Chambers, the well known mining man and president of the Nevada company had purchased the Tribune. Those who were ready to receive the information as true said that such a transaction was not at all improbable, but when it was known that John W. Mackay the California millionaire was the principal purchaser of that paper, and that Mr. Chambers had purchased it for a large sum of money, the news was received with a certain amount of surprise.

It is understood that Mr. Chambers' purchase of the Tribune was a result of the fact that he had been unable to obtain the paper from the hands of the late owner, and that he had been forced to purchase it from the hands of the late owner's estate.
