LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 60 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p.m. to-day. Beautiful day.

THEATRE.—This evening, Miss Marian Mordaunt will appear as "Elly O'Connor" in Boucicault's popular Irish drama, the "Colleen Bawn." Miss Kent as "Ann Chute," Mr. Bogswell as "Hardress Cregan," Mr. Harris as "Miles Na Coppaleen," Mr. Thorne as "Danny Mann." Miss Mordaunt will be likely to enact this role in a spirited manner, as she does not lack force and energy.

On Friday evening a taking programme for the benefit of Miss Mordaunt.

On Saturday afternoon an "Only DarEng" matinee.

That very superior actress, Miss Augusta L. Dargon, is announced for an early appearance.

DULL.—A gentleman who arrived from Pioche on Tuesday says business is somewhat dull at that place, there being nearly a hundred men who are out of employment.

OF CALIFORNIA.—The William Anderson mentioned in the NEWS yesterday as having been arrested at Ogden is late of California, the same who, in connection with his partner, was arrested on a charge of swindling a San Francisco firm.

MUSICAL.—Mr. Van Nostrand, at one time organist at Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, and at Trinity Church, New York, and, previous to coming to this country, leader of the orchestra of the Grand Opera House, Berlin, Germany, arrived in this city a few days ago. He visited the Tabernacle and examined the grand organ. He played a few airs on that instrument, and being the possessor of a fine soprano voice, he accompanied therewith. He expressed great admiration for the organ, stating that it was one of the finest he had ever seen.

RUNAWAY.—Last evening, about 5 o'clock, a team ran away from the yard of Folsom, Romney & Co's. factory. The animals took the side walk, and dashed against a lamp post at the Council House corner, breaking it to pieces, and then came in contact with a corner post which stopped their career. Had not the speed of the animals been checked by striking the lamp post before coming in collision with the corner post, doubtless the wagon would have been made a total wreck. Every man who leaves an unattended or unhitched team on the street should be fined to the full extent of the ordinance for such case made and provided.

ANOTHER PRISONER RELEASED.—As was generally expected, Judge Hawley turned J. R. Turbett loose, yesterday. The case was resumed at three o'clock in the afternoon, and the proceedings were probably as peculiar, not to say farcical, as anything of a judicial character that has transpired in this country during the last quarter of a century or so.

Judge Snow appeared on the part of the City and Mr. Wells Spicer for Turbett. As a general rule the counsel on each side submit their arguments to the magistrate, that the latter may decide the case upon its merits. Instead of this being the case in the matter in question, however, Judge Hawley enacted the duplicate role of counsel for the defense and sitting magistrate, thereby dispensing almost totally with the services of Mr Spicer, this latter gentleman merely making a very few exceedingly pointless remarks, which he repeated four times over.

Judge Snow had made no preparation to argue the matter, yet he displayed both tact and ability on the spur of the moment, and successfully and incontrovertibly drove Judge Hawley, while the latter was playing the role of Turbett's counsel, from several positions in which he imagined himself safely intrenched.

The first position assumed by Judge Hawley in favor of Turbett was that the proceedings against the latter, in the Justice's Court, were illegal and consequently null and void, because they were commenced in the name of the "people of Salt Lake City" instead of in the name of the "people of the United States in the Territory of Utah." His position was based upon a statute adopted by the Legislature, March 6th, 1852. Judge Snow knocked this on the head by producing later legislative enactments, among them being the charter of Salt Lake City, adopted Jan. 13th, 1865, which gives the city authority to "sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, &c., in all actions whatsoever." Judge Snow argued that, "in all actions whatsoever" was surely sufficiently broad in application to cover the quasi-criminal one under consideration.

Being driven from this position, Judge Hawley, while acting as Turbett's counsel, next took the ground that the proceedings against the latter were illegal, because in docketing judgment in the case the Justice had omitted to specify the nature of the charge against Turbett, and to show that this was the case he read the latter portion of the judgment as entered. Judge Snow, however, took the record and showed that Judge Hawley did not go far enough back in his reading, for if he had commenced at the top of the page he would have found that Turbett was charged with "selling liquor on Sunday." That our readers may understand the matter clearly we publish the subjoined copy of the entry, from Justice Clinton's record:

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 14th, 1873.

Salt Lake City, vs. James R. Turbett, for selling liquor on the Sabbath day.

A warrant was issued, directed to the city Marshal, made returnable forthwith.

Warrant returned endorsed: I return this warrant, having served the same, by arresting the within named Turbett, who is now before the Court.

JOHN Y. SMITH,
Deputy Marshal.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 14th, 1873.

The above entitled suit was continued, by consent of parties, until two o'clock on Wednesday, Jan. 14th, 1873.

At the above time the parties appeared in court, the case was called up and a trial was had, when the court was satisfied that said Turbett was guilty as charged, and adjudged and ordered that Salt Lake City have and recover from the said James R. Turbett, the sum of one hundred dollars, and that said Turbett be imprisoned in the City prison.

Sixty days' notice of an appeal was given.

A mittimus was issued, directed to the City Marshal. JEFFR. CLINTON, J. P.

Driven from this point, Judge Hawley next took exception to the fact that the record, in stating that Turbett was sentenced to imprisonment for sixty days and to pay a fine of $100, did not also state that he should stand committed in default of payment of the fine. He said Turbett had served out his sixty days imprisonment, and as the judgment was defective, in that it did not provide for his committment in default of payment of $100, he could see no alternative but to set the prisoner at liberty.

Judge Snow said it might be an erroneous judgment, but it was not necessarily a void one, and consequently did not come under habeas corpus, but must be remedied by writ of error.

Judge Hawley then informed the prisoner that he was discharged, and there was a general smile among the few spectators, not as evincing satisfaction at the liberation of Turbett, by any means, but at the peculiar way Judge Hawley has of dealing with such matters, although the result of the proceedings was anticipated by those who had given the case any attention. It was patent to everybody present that Judge Hawley, from the beginning, had his mind made up with regard to the decision he should give in the matter.

PISCICULTURE.—Mr. Livingston Stone, deputy United States commissioner on fisheries, with Hon. A. P. Rockwood, superintendent of fisheries in this Territory, called in this afternoon.

Prof. Spencer F. Baird, United States commissioner at Washington, has offered to furnish salmon eggs and young shad small fry for stocking Great Salt Lake, if arrangements can be made here for the proper reception and maturing of the young fish and spawn. Mr. Rockwood states that he is prepared to receive the eggs, etc., and will engage to hatch and take care of them for distribution in the public waters of the Territory.

Mr. Stone has been eight months in California, upon similar business. He now returns east to procure a variety of fishes from the Atlantic Coast to introduced in the waters of California. He leaves for the East to-morrow, and will take with him, from Mr. Rockwood's ponds near this city, specimens of different sizes of the native trout for the Smithsonian Institution, Washington.

Fish culture is a useful business, and is exciting much interest just now throughout the Union. It is to be hoped that the efforts of the U. S. Commissioner and those who assist him in this enterprise of distributing and cultivating choice varieties of fishes will be crowned with success.

HAY.—Seven or eight teams from the country this morning, loaded with hay, caused the haymarket to present a livelier appearance than it had for several days previously.

CROSSINGS.—The laying down of the paved crossings on First South and other streets in the vicinity is going on rapidly. Mr. Henry Grow, the contractor, pushes the business.

A FINE ORGAN.—Mr. C. W. Sayner has at his store a specimen of the best quality of Estey organ, called the "Boudoir Estey." It is probably the handsomest instrument of the kind ever brought to this Territory, being of black French walnut, chastely and elegantly carved. It has all the latest organ improvements. The instrument has been sold, but will remain at the store a few days, where it can be inspected by anybody desiring to see it

THIRD DISTRICT JUDICIAL COURT,
Chief Justice McKean Presiding.

Court opened at 10 a. m., to-day. The first case before the court was that of Cullen C. Eddy et. al. versus Humphrey Rogers. Messrs. Marshall and Royal counsel for plaintiffs, and Mr. Wells Spicer counsel for defendant. It appeared, from the statement of Mr. Royal, that the defendant gave to plaintiff a promissory note for $2,100 in consideration of having received a specified interest in The Tintic Mine, Fond du Lac, Eureka Hill, and Eureka lode, and certain other mining property of Parson Lake, & Co. and others; that the plaintiff had not received payment of this note; and that the defendant refused to honor his own signature by paying the aforesaid promissory note.

Counsel for plaintiffs made a long and able speech for his client.

Counsel for defendant made it appear that a fraud had been perpetrated on his client; that the plaintiffs had obtained this promissory note of $2,100 under false pretences; that Cullen C. Eddy represented to the defendant that he had a one-sixth interest in the Tintic mine, which he would sell to him for $2,100; and on the strength of these representations Mr. Rogers gave to the plaintiff a promissory note for $2,100, in payment therefor. Cullen C. Eddy after stated that it was necessary for defendant to get from a certain Wm. D. Matthews the title to the aforesaid one-sixth interest in the Tintic mine, and it appeared that plaintiffs had not nor ever had a one-sixth interest in aforesaid Tintic mine, and all that he gave to the defendant was certain quit claims and subsequently contract deeds, having nothing to do with the Tintic mine; that this so called property, sold to the defendant for this promissory note, was absolutely worthless and the sale a fraud; that the defendant never received the title; that the plaintiffs are indebted to him in the sum of $2,500, for money loaned, stamps sold, but never paid for, rents paid, etc., and that the defendant claims he has been defrauded, and proposes to sue the plaintiffs for the amount due him by them. The council for the defense claims "failure of consideration."

At 12:45 the case was undecided.

MORE CASES.—Two more cases of smallpox are reported, this time in the 4th Ward. We are informed the patients are daughters of Mr. Davies. Dr. Clinton went to the residence of the latter this afternoon, for the purpose of adopting necessary measures to prevent the spread of the contagion.

EASTERN NOTES.

A new Texas meat company has been organized to can all the beef they can raise and raise all the beef they can.

It is a commentary on the present lawless state of the city that a party in our best society, not long ago, the attendant in the gentleman's dressing room discovered that almost every overcoat in his charge had a loaded revolver in its pocket.—N. Y. Mail.

The Jenkins of the New York Tribune reviews the late inauguration ball in the following free and easy style—"Let no one who has not seen an inauguration ball imagine that he knows anything about democracy and republican institutions. Foreign diplomats promenaded beside a gentleman who once had the honor of blacking boots for a living, and mademoiselle in a thick cloak and bonnet brushed against mademoiselle in lace and pearls, and was entirely contented and happy. Here was the strange vision, for America, of a party of negro men and women attired like birds of Paradise, behaving with the utmost ease and grace, and promenading with people of fairer tint. There were graceful young men of society, pinks of perfection jostling persons who smacked of what Mr. Ingram beautifully called the "broad and boundless percarers," and who were thoroughly unspoiled by withering conventionalities. The most remarkable men of their country wandered about affably with their soul subduing intellects strained to the point of keeping up one noble smile."

DIED.

At South Pass City, March 16, RICHARD SHERLOCK, aged 30 years, 2 months and 23 days.

In Salt Lake City, Feb. 24th, 1873, of teething, RAY GODWIN, son of Elias and Mary L. Morris, aged 8 months and 4 days.

☞ We notice the arrival at the Townsend House, of Mr. Geo. Tiffany, the agent of the old established house of Fellows, Holmes & Clapp, 21 Maiden Lane, New York, whose advertisement will be found in this paper. They are not only the oldest, but the most popular house in the trade; and Mr. Tiffany is the most popular agent on the road. d&wle

THE VERDICT!!

THE LEADING MUSICIANS
OF THE TERRITORY,
RENDER THE FOLLOWING VERDICT:

Of all the varieties of Organs, with which we are acquainted, we unhesitatingly recommend the

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN,

As the BEST and sure to give Purchasers perfect Satisfaction.

JOS. H. RIDGES, Designer and Builder of the Salt Lake Great Organ.
GEO. CARELESS, Conductor of Tabernacle Choir.
ORSON PRATT, Jr., Teacher of Music and Organist of Catholic Church
C. J. THOMAS, Conductor of Theatre Orchestra.
JOHN CHAMBERLAIN, Organist.
MARK CROXALL, Captain of S. L. Brass Band.
EBENEZER BEESLEY, Captain of Martial Band.
C. YORKE TAGGART, Piano Tuner.

TESTIMONIAL FROM PROMINENT CITIZENS:

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING PURCHASED Mason & Hamlin Organs TAKE PLEASURE IN STATING THAT THEY HAVE GIVEN US Perfect Satisfaction, AND WE CORDIALLY RECOMMEND THEM FOR THEIR Pure AND Brilliant Tone, Variety of Effects AND Expression.
