The city council of Gloucester (Mass.) have followed the example of Provincetown and shaved down the salary of $700 a year.

The Rio Grande will run an all rail service division of the road south and east of Pueblo, Colo., leaving the city on Wednesdays and Saturdays of each week.

Raton, N. M., has a club combined of her principal citizens. The object is to encourage more home ideas and similar organizations.

The old government buildings at Fort Craig, Colo., will be sold at public auction by the government on May 1. The sale will be effected under $1,000 is received, of the amount each building was appraised at.

Sanitary Inspector Culley, of Grand Junction, says the Denver News, notified Secretary Greenwell of the state veterinary board that he has cattle here who have shown symptoms of Mr. Culley is of the opinion that these will be of infinite trouble.

Ed Harding, a farmer near Greeley, Colo., will this year garner fifty-five acres of potatoes, sixteen acres of wheat and ten thousand to alfalfa. Last year he only got 250 sacks of potatoes from twenty acres, but another patch of six acres gave him 1,100 sacks. His wheat crop was fairly good, 3,000 bushels from fifteen acres.

The chancellor of southern Colorado says the Pueblo News, are now paying 60 cents a hundred pounds for coal delivered at the county and the business is retained. A short time ago the factories were paying a dollar a hundred. Two plans values from 40 to $1.20 throughout the year minerals between and coalfield.

The city council of Hennessey (Okla.) accused the Junction Manufacturing company of all to recover $25,000 damages for erecting the prison on a charge of being one of the Junction Irish redcaps, resulting a great deal of interest in the Supreme Court at Oakland, Cal. Each day the court room is crowded and hold seats are at a premium.

The post office at Fairplay, Colo., was entered on Friday night for the fifth time in three years by what is believed to be an organized band of petty burglars. The thieves each time, with one exception, avoided property and funds belonging to the government. The local authorities are very much worried and are putting for reasons efforts to locate the offenders.

J. G. Waite, state senator from Boise county, Idaho, has sued the Statesman for $10,000 damages. The suit, says the Caldron county Argus, is the result of the publication of an article regarding recent gold nuggets which were in the Idaho exhibit at the World's Fair, which it was claimed Waite discovered and appropriated the money to his own use.

J. R. Thayer and E. R. Leonard have purchased a three fourths interest in the patent of the Frost gold saving machine, William Frost, the inventor, retaining the remaining interest, says the Idaho Daily Statesman. Mr. Leonard had the machine in use a few weeked it for a few days on Boise river, satisfying himself that the machine would do all that was claimed for it. Negotiations were discontinued and the remaining interest in the patent purchased. As soon as Mr. Thayer returns to the city the manufacture of the machines will be commenced.

A sad case of insanity has been brought to the attention of the lunacy commissioners at San Francisco, and Bonita claim is consigned to the insane asylum at Ukiah. The young man has been attending the Hastings College of Law and was making very rapid progress. He was to graduate this coming June. A short time ago his health began to fail him and his parents, who live in San Francisco, had him sent to Haywards to recuperate. The change, it was hoped, would be beneficial, but instead of getting better he got worse and in this way. Overstudy is the cause of his insanity.

The tug Vigilant had a narrow escape on Friday morning from being blown out of the water, with the death of all on board, says the San Francisco Chronicle. One of the firemen discovered a dynamite bomb in a stateroom of a steamer which he was just ready to unpack in the furnace. Had the bomb ever touched the fire it would have blown up the vessel and a portion of the crowded dock, where the tug was lying at the time. The fireman did not know what the destructive article was until he examined it more closely and he handled it very gingerly. He took it up on deck and gave it to the captain. It was ready for business and had come from Utah, so a portion of the time fuse had been burned. How it came there is a mystery.

Host Brothers & Dunbar of Chicago, says the Steelhouse, Idaho, Journal, are making extensive preparations to move the bars in the bed of Snake river, between the Shoshone Falls and the Blue lakes. The bars are from three to six feet under the water and the plan will be carried with centrifugal pumps. The machinery, consisting of boiler, engine and pumps arrived here on Wednesday from Chicago. A flatboat fifty feet long will be anchored in the middle of the stream, over the bar, and on this the machinery will be placed, and the dirt and gravel will be taken from the upper end of the boat. While this is a new system of mining bar, there is no doubt but that it will prove successful, and as soon as it is demonstrated a success, thousands of acres that bar, now under water, will be worked.

Mandrake Pills have a value as a household remedy far beyond the power of language to describe. The family can hardly be true to itself that does not keep them on hand for use in emergencies.
MANDRAKE
Is the only vegetable substitute for that dangerous mineral, Mercury, and while its action as a curative is fully equal, it possesses none of its pernicious effects.
In Constipation, Mandrake acts upon the bowels without disposing them to subsequent costiveness.
No remedy acts so directly on the liver, nothing so speedily cures Sick Headache, Sour Stomach and Biliousness as these
