WOMEN WERE HURT.

Foolish Miner Throws Giant Fire Cracker and Lands in Jail.

Lee Anderson, a miner from Eureka, Is in Jail on the charge of drunkenness and also violating the fire ordinance, His arrest grew out of his brainless actions yesterday when he threw a giant fire eracker in front of Mrs. Kenneth C. Woolley and her aged mother as they were crossing Becond South and East Temple street.

As a result of the explosion. Mrs. Woolley's shirt waist was burned and the lady received burns on the breast. Her mother was not injured but her skirt was ruined. Mrs. Woelley fell to the pavement in a faint and it was necessary to carry her into a drug store and summon medical aid.

After hurling the cracker. Anderson tried to escape through the crowd, but Officer Joe Bush caught him and took him to the police station, where he is awalting arraignment on the charges referred to above.

It is claimed that Anderson was intoxicated at the time he threw the ex-plosive but whether he acted inten-tionally or not will be determined in his trial, which will be held heters Judge Diehl either this afternoon of

THE BIG ATHLETIC EVENTS.

In the Baseball Game the Home Team Shut Visitors Out in Spirited Contest -- Reflex Views.

Murray town is dropping back to the formal today after a glorious Fourth of July that did not end till nearly morning. The big crowd that gathered In the morning to see the parade and hear the speeches was increased in the afternoon, and one and all the people jestled together through the dust and enjoyed all that was to be seen. The day went back to the rapidly vanishing customs of the fathers of this generation, when games galore were known that now are only names. At 2 o'clock, however the crowd good naturedly lined up at Preeze's grove, and tried the egg race, the three legged race, raced after the greased ply and laughed at the man who won the prize for being

PRIZE DECORATIONS.

The decisions in judging the prize decorations were announced, and in each case proved to be according to the popular judgement. For the prettiest decorated place of husiness the Madison Hardware company received first place. The front of the store was draped in streamers, and between the pillars in front, a large liberty bell was erected, surmounted by an ancient shooting

The prettient decorated home was that of John Williams at the corner of State and Vine streets. Mr. Williams had included his front fence and shrubbery in his decorative scheme, and had centered the decorations on his house, from which streamers radiated from both sides to the street.

THE "FUNNIEST THING."

The funniest thing in the parade proved to be the police patrol which was closely seconded by the fire department turnout. The patrol held two officers who did much to make it effective, the smaller of the two being Ephraim Christensen, and the tailer an unknown. One branded "Mike" and the other marked "Mauss" on the back, attacked their original with bologny sausage billy clubs, and ordered him off the earth. The pair kept the crowd laughing most of the time.

ATHLETIC EVENTS.

The winners of the athletic events The winners of the athletic events were as follows:

MURRAY WON BALL GAME.

A dozen runs to none was the score in the Murray ball game with a Woods Cross team at the end of the ulnih inning yesterday afternoon.

The game was witnessed by a large and partisan crowd, who heartily cheered the Murray team in its effort to shut out the visitors without a single run, it took the most determined work to bring this about, but that was the kind of work Murray was doing on her first elly birthday. Wilkinson pitched for the smelter men and had good support except in a few instances of ragged fielding. It was his battle, and to him is due the credit of the shutout for except in a few instances of ragged fielding. It was his battle, and to him is due the credit of the shutout for Woods Cross mere than to any other one man. The eighth was a warmly contested inning in which Woods Cross made her last attempt to prevent the good long score. She placed three men on bases, and Murr at but succeeded in knocking a well placed grounder. Grant started in from third, but was dropped at the home plate by a well fielded and well thrown ball, this making the third man to go down.

Unipire Owler was fair, according to most beholders, but had some warm words with players and the rowd on some decisions on bases. He escaped with his life, however, and in the main gave good satisfaction:

The score:

1766—George Augustus Viscount Howe killed near Fort The conderogs, N. Y. His skeleton was found there in 1860.
Young Howe was with the van guard of the colonial army, led by Major Israel Putham, and he asked to be one of the first to meet the enemy, Putham said to him,
"If I am killed the loss will be of little consequence, while rour preservation is of importance to the army,
The gallant Howe answered:
"Putham, your life is as dear to you as mine is to me. I am determined to go."

Is Lying Seriously Sick at Residence o His Daughter in This City.

President Angus M. Cannon is a very sick man, though somewhat improved today over the condition that has prevalled for the past two weeks. About that time be was directing some work at Big Cottonwood when he was sudat Big Cottonwood when he was suddenly and violently attacked with filness and was carried to the home of a neighbor, where he was cared for until evening, when he was removed to this city, being taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mina C. Ellis, 74 North First West street. During the first few days he improved somewhat and, yieldsed to his determination to take a ride on a street car and in a buggy. The result was very painful and almost fatal as on Friday evening his condition became alarming and Drs. Cannou and Allen were summoned and remained with him thoughout the night. While the general symptoms are not very rethe general symptoms are not very re-assuring hopes are entertained for his recovery at an early date. Inaction of the liver is the primary cause of his present trouble.
