

NEW JERSEY.

Trenton, 8.—Reports received indicate a democratic majority in the next legislature in joint ballot, of five. The senators will probably stand, republicans 12, and democrats 9; Assembly, democrats 34, republicans 26.

Newark, 8.—The first district elects Ferrell, democrat; second, Brewer, republican; third, Kean, republican; fourth, Hovey, republican; fifth, Phelps, republican; sixth, Fiedler, democrat; seventh, McAdoo, democrat. In the Assembly the democrats have a clear majority on joint ballot.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Concord, 8.—Revised and corrected returns from 225 towns give Hale 37,540; Edgerly, 36,174; scattering, 911. Hale's majority probably cannot be reduced below 250. The Senate stands, 11 republicans and 4 democrats; one district makes no choice, and two districts are in doubt. The republicans will have about 65 majority and four out five councillors. Haynes and Hay, republican candidates for Congress are elected.

NEVADA.

San Francisco, 8.—A Virginia City dispatch says: Adam's election is conceded by almost 1,000 majority. Congressmen close, but Cassidy's re-election regarded as sure.

A Reno, Nev., dispatch says: Powing, republican candidate for Congress is defeated by 500 to 700 and has given up the fight.

MISSISSIPPI.

Jackson, 8.—Jeffers, republican, is elected to Congress in the "Shoe-string" district.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, 9.—The following congressmen are elected: 1st, Geo. W. Covington, democrat; 2nd, T. C. Blair, republican; 3rd, Hoblitzel, democrat; 4th, Findlay, democrat; 5th, Hatton, republican; 6th, McComas, republican, who defeats Montgomery Blair.

ALABAMA.

Mobile, 8, 12.—A special to the Mobile Register conclusively indicates a clean democratic congressional delegation.

Montgomery, 8.—The only real contests in the State for congressmen were between Herndon, democrat, and Smith, republican, in the first; Herbert, democrat, and Rice, republican, in the second; Shelly, democrat, and Craig, republican, in the fourth; and Prior, democrat, and Shelby, republican in the eighth. All have gone democratic.

ARIZONA.

Tucson, 8.—G. H. Ouray, democrat, congressman, and W. B. Horton, Superintendent of Instruction, democrats, are elected, by about 750 majority. Both branches of the legislature are democratic by a large majority.

ARKANSAS.

Little Rock, 8.—Returns from all parts of the State do not change the general results. All the democratic candidates for Congress are elected.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, 8.—Almost complete returns give Pattison a plurality of 27,000. This city gives Beaver 4,604, Davies 6,896, Greer, 6,681, Rawle 5,681, Brosius 8,502. The State democratic ticket is elected.

Official and estimated returns from every county in the State except Elk and Forest, give Pattison, democrat, for governor, 32,122 plurality.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, 8.—The democrats elect governor and congressman by a small majority.

Complete returns from the entire State give Stockler, democrat, for governor, a majority of 1,535. Lore, democrat, for Congress, has a majority of 2,200.

LOUISIANA.

Shreveport, 8.—Very little interest was taken in the election here to-day, and only about a one-fourth vote was cast. Jones is elected additional district judge. The republicans concede the election of Hunt, Ellis, King, Blanchard and Huron, democrats, to Congress.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, 8.—Congressmen certainly elected, democrats, G. D. Wise, third; Tucker, sixth; Barbour, eighth. Coalitionists, Libby, second;

Hooper, fourth; Paul, fifth; Bowen, ninth; at large, John S. Wise.

Unofficial returns for the fifth district indicate the election of Cabell, democrat. Returns from the seventh show a very close contest between Offerall, democrat, and Paul, coalition. Estimated and official majorities give Offerall 24 majority, with Highland county to hear from, which may go for either. John S. Wise, for Congress-at-large is certainly elected. S. Cooper, coalition for Congress in the fourth district, is elected.

VERMONT.

Montpelier, 8.—A joint assembly of the Senate and House elected Homer Royce Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and T. P. Redfield, Jonathan R. H. Henry, Powers Wheelock, G. Veasy, R. Staff, and J. L. Powell, Justices of the Supreme Court.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, 8.—The following Congressmen have been elected: first district, John Winans, democrat; second district, D. H. Sumner, democrat; third district, Burr Jones, democrat; fourth district, P. V. Deuster, democrat; sixth district, Richard Guenther, republican; seventh district, G. M. Woodward, democrat; eighth district, Wm. T. Price, republican; ninth district, Isaac Stephenson, republican; a democratic gain of four.

NEBRASKA.

Omaha, 8.—Returns still continue to come in slowly. Careful estimates place the republican majority on the State ticket at from 12,000 to 15,000, which is a reduction of about 13,000, owing to the defection of German and other foreign republicans, who have taken this method to punish the party for favoring prohibition. Anti-monopolists have also drawn largely from the republican ranks.

The woman suffrage amendment is defeated by an overwhelming majority.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, 8.—Five hundred and forty voting places in the State show a republican loss on the State ticket of 8,690; democratic loss 2,241; net democratic gain 6,449, which would indicate a democratic majority in the State of over 10,000. If the balance of the State yet to hear from continues the same relative decrease as compared with the vote of 1881, it will give a decrease in the republican vote of 4,000; and of the democratic vote of 5,200. The democrats have a clear majority in both houses of the Legislature. The congressional delegation stands: democrats, 8; republicans, 4; a democratic gain of four. Orth is defeated for Congress.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, 9.—Returns up to 1 a.m. indicate the congressional delegation will be evenly divided, viz.: Democrats—second district, Finerty; eighth, Haley; eleventh, Neece; twelfth, Riggs; thirteenth, Springer; sixteenth, Shaw; seventeenth, Moulton; eighteenth, Morrison; nineteenth, Townsend; twentieth, Murphy. Republican—first district, Dunham; third, Davis; fourth, Adams; fifth, Ellwood; sixth, Hitt; seventh, Henderson; ninth, Payne; tenth, Lewis; fifteenth, Cannon; fourteenth, Rowell. This shows a republican loss of three and a democratic gain of four, owing to the new district. The democrats admit a doubt as to Haley's election in the eighteenth district, and the republicans do not concede Murphy's in the twentieth. The control of the State legislature on joint ballot is now in doubt, with chances in favor of the democrats.

IOWA.

Ottumwa, 8.—At 12 o'clock the Republican State Central Committee say the returns are too meagre to estimate accurately. The Republican states that Hall, secretary of state, will have a majority of 20,000. The entire republican delegation is elected, with perhaps the exception of Farwell, in the second district. Returns from that district are conflicting, the democrats claiming the election of Murphy.

MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis, 8.—Congressman Washburne estimates his majority at no less than 3,000 in the fifth District. Nelson, republican, is unquestionably elected, making the Minnesota delegation solid republican by a somewhat reduced majority, and it is estimated three-fourths of the republican members favor the re-election of Windom.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Total vote of Massachusetts, about one town, gives Butler a plurality of 13,392. Returns show a plurality on the republican State ticket, except Bishop, of about 16,350. The Executive Council will stand seven republicans, and one democrat. Total Greenback vote in the State 3,200. The following are the Congressmen-elect: First District, Robt. T. Davis, republican; second, John D. Long, republican; third, A. A. Collins, democrat; fifth, Leopold Morse, democrat; sixth, H. B. Lovering, democrat and Greenbacker; seventh, Eben F. Stone, republican; eighth, Wm. A. Russell, republican; ninth, Thos. Lyman, Civil Service Reform, endorsed by democrats; tenth, W. W. Rice, republican; eleventh, Wm. Whittling, republican; twelfth, Geo. D. Robinson, republican; the democrats gain three.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, 8.—The second district is claimed by the democrats but not conceded. The fifth district is democratic, the remaining eight probably republican. Governor Jerome is defeated. The rest of the republican State ticket is elected.

The fuller returns to-day do not change the result on the State ticket. The republicans lose their governor by 3,000 or 10,000 and carry the rest of the ticket by an equal or larger majority. The legislature is republican on joint ballot beyond a doubt. In congressmen, the democrats from present appearances, carry Mayberry in the first district; Eldredge in the second; Yapple in the fourth; Houseman in the fifth; Winans in the sixth; Carlton in the seventh. The republicans save the remainder unless the ninth joins he stampede.

MISSOURI.

St. Louis, 8.—Estimates of the democratic committee are as follows: First district, Hatch; second district, Alexander; third district, Docky; fourth district, Burns; sixth district, Cosgrove; seventh district, Buckner; eleventh district, Bland; twelfth district, Morgan, all democrats; thirteenth district doubtful, but the democrats claim the fourteenth district. The majority on the State ticket is estimated at 60,000.

It appears now that Missouri will have a solid democratic delegation in Congress.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., 9.—Returns tabulated up to 3 o'clock this morning give the following majorities in congressmen: White, republican, first district, 286; Wakefield, republican, second district, 4,582; Straight republican, third district, 6,032; Washburne, republican, fourth district, 2,642; Nelson, republican, fifth district, 3,868. Returns from the second, third and fifth districts are incomplete, and later returns will increase the majorities of the legislature; as made up this morning it stands, Senate, republican, 34, democrats 10, independent and greenback 3. House republicans 86, democrats 28, independents 3.

NEW YORK.

New York, 9.—The Times this morning says the majority for Cleveland for governor is over 190,000.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, 9.—Returns for the State Legislature are complete, showing the following complexion: Senate, 19 republicans to 19 democrats; democratic gain of four; Assembly, 52 republicans, 42 democrats; two of the Assembly are independent republicans.

New York, 9.—The following is the city vote on the constitutional amendments to make the canals of the state free. For the amendments 114,054, against 630.

Cincinnati, O., 9.—The Congressional committee appointed to inspect and report upon the condition and needs of the Mississippi River from Cairo to New Orleans, left this city this morning on the steamer Guiding Star.

Omaha, 7.—Clear warm weather prevails in all parts of the State and a large vote is being polled. The woman suffragists have coffee and sandwiches at the polls.

Chicago, 7.—After a bright morning, the afternoon is cloudy and warm with indications of a full vote being polled, which if continued is favorable to the republicans.

New York, 7.—Large numbers of persons have been arrested for false registration and illegal voting, by the United States marshal.

The democratic vote is heavy so far as known—many republicans not voting, and the Germans going solid for democratic candidates.
