DESERET EVENING NEWS: MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1906.

ministers were present and delivered addresses on the importance of the work to be undertaken by the colored people and the interest the people in

Discusses Truancy Question and De-

general should have in the same. Og-den has a large colored population. Most of the men are employed on the railroad, and have families living here, and they are desirous of getting a house of worship of their own, where they can have a colored minister to preach to them. A neat little sum was raised yesterday, but they will need a great deal more before they can go ahead with the work

INTERESTING LECTURE ON At the session of the Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. Associations of the Fifth ward held last eveningt he ward church was several very beautiful solos were sung by Prof. Charles Kent and Miss Mayme Carter. Elder Young's interpretation Cafter. Edger Young's interpretation of Goethe's production was listened to with great interest by all present. He beautifully compared "Faust" with the life of man, showing the two spirits that influence all mankind, the one to the doing of good and the other to evil.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Healy announce the engagement of their daughter Hel-en to John C. Lynch, of Tonopah, Nevada, Owing to the illness of Mr. Healy the wedding will be a quiet one. It will occur Wednesday, Feb. 7. The bride-elect is one of Ogden's most charming and popular young ladies, and a leader in society, and Mr. Lynch

Ogden, Feb. 5 .- John Howard was given a preliminary hearing Saturday before Judge Murphy on the charge of burglary in the second degree, it be-ing alleged that he entered the Montana Ing alleged that he entered the Montana rooming house and stole therefrom an overcoat belonging to John Alexander, a brakeman. The hearing resulted in the defendant being bound over to the district court in bonds of $500. He is now in the custody of the sheriff.

Job Pingree of the Amalgamated Sugar Job Pingree of the Amaigamated Sugar company will meet with the farmers in the following districts: Monday, Feb. 5, 2 p. m., Far West; Tuesday, Slater-ville; Wednesday, Lynn; Thursday, Harrisville; Friday, Warren, and Sat-urday at the office of the company in Codan board of education Friday evening, when Superintendent William Allison report-ed that 210 pupils had entered the school at mid-year. Reference was especially at mid-year. Reference was especially made to the Quincy school, where the attendance had increased beyond the capacity of the building. The matter of installing an additional room at the latter school was referred to the teach-ers' committee, with power to act. The sanitary committee repored that the city is free from contagious disease. The board refused to grant the proba-tion officer a salary for his services as tion officer a salary for his services as truant officer. It ordered the secretary of the board to address a communication to the mayor and city council re-questing that the city increase the offi-cer's salary. The treasurer reported cash on hand in the sum of $28,658.52, and a number of bills were allowed. BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

APPOINTRMENT VETOED.

J. W. F. Volker and wife left for California yesterday where they will spend a few weeks pleasuring.

Prof. Thomas E. McKay of L ment Saturday and Sunday in Ogden visiting with relatives,

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wak-er J. Richardson died yesterday at Slaterville and was buried today in the Ogden City Cemetery,

The Y. L. M. L association of the Fourth ward has arranged for an en-tertainment to be given in the ward hall Wednesday evening.

Tonight "Cousin Kate" will be played at the Grand Opera House, and to-morrow night Lewis Morrison will ap-pear in "Faust."

E. B. Crandall, general baggage agent for the San Pedro line, is in Ogden for a short time weighing mall.

KANAB. AUGORA GOAT ASSOCIATION.

New Industry for Southern Utah-Scarlet Fever Abating.

Special Correspondence.

Kanab, Kane Co., Jan. 30 .- Eiders William Bunting and George Mace returned from missions last week, the former has been laboring in Colorado and the latter in the British mission.

After being closed four weeks on account of scarlet fever, the three high-er departments of school began work again yesterday and it is hoped the other grades will be able to start next Mon

If the past three days' delightful weather continues the farmers will be at work putting in crops.

GOAT ASSOCIATION.

President E. D. Woolley and Benja-Freshend E. D. Woonley and Benja-min Hamblin just returned from Leeg Ferry, Ariz., where they have been in-vesting in a herd of goats. The "goat men" met yesterday and organized un-der the name of the Utah Angora Goat der the name of the Utah Angora Goat association, and elected the following officers: Benjamin Hamblin, president; David Robinson, vice president; F. A. Lundquist, secretary; J. R. Hamblin, E. D. Woolley, Jesse N. Johnson, Frank Little and John M. Ford, board of di-rectors. Frank Little, E. D. Woolley and F. A. Lundquist were appointed a committee on constitution and bylaws. William Swapp, James Bunting, Ed-ward Little, Charles Pugh, Williard Ford, and E. K. Pugh, each have a new dwelling under way, and when finished these homes will make Kanab look much better. It is hoped that this spirit of improvement will prove as conspirit of improvement will prove as con-

FUNERAL OF PROF. ALBERT MILLER. Touching Tribute to the Memory of a Beloved Music Teacher and Citizen.

SAD DEATH OF LITTLE BOY.

County Fair Association Effected-Farmers Organize---Prof. De Mott's Lecture-Wedding Chimes

Special Correspondence. Provo, Utah Co., Feb. 5 .- The funeral services over the remains of Prof. Albert Miller in this city, Saturday, were among the most impressive ever held here. The entire student body of the Brigham Young university and the faculty, numbering over 1,000, formed in procession at the university, and preceded by a band, formed of the University band and many local musicians, marched to the residence and from there accompanied the remains to the Tabernacle.

Tabernacle. The speakers' stand at the tabernacle was beautifully draped in white and evergreens, and many beautiful floral offerings placed on the casket evidence. ed the love and esteem of many friends. Members of the faculty, the stake presidency, and other prominent citi-zens were seated on the stand. President Joseph B. Keeler presided. The services opened by the academy choir singing, 'Come, ye disconsolate,''

Prayer was offered by Elder H. E. Smart.

A. L. Booth was the first speaker. He referred to the conversion of Prof. Mil-ler to the Gospel, and his high standing in the ward, and its organization, where deceased was an active member. President J. B. Keeler also paid a high tribute to the work and worth of Elder Miller. Elder George Webb of Elder Miller, Elder George webb of Lehi also spoke feelingly of his asso-clation with Miller. Prof. A. C. Lund, representing the music department of the University gave a beautiful life's sketch of the deceased. He referred to Prof. Miller's birth in Germany, of humble parentage, and told of his struggle to enter and told of his struggle to enter a school of music, where he repaidly ad-vanced. On entering the German army he was assigned to the music division, where his progress was rapid. After being released from the army he investigated the Gospel, which he ac-cepted and embraced. His wife also became devoted to the Gospel and join-ed the Church. The two came on to Utah and settled first in Lehi. The speaker met Prof. Miller several times In Lehi, and was convinced that he had found a man who could become very useful in the music section of the university, where Prof. Miller was soon employed and enjoyed the confidence and good will of his associates from the beginning. President George H. Brimhall paid beautiful tribute to the pure and noble life of the departed and said that President Joseph F. Smith had shown much concern during the illness of Elter Miller, and sympathized with the family and relatives of the deceas-The choir sang "Nearer My God to Thee," and benediction was offered by President David John. A large cortege neluding the students' procession, followed the remains to the cemetery, where the grave was dedicated by Elder J. L. Brown.

SAD ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Saturday forenoon Mr. H. W. Aird's -year-old son Wallace lost his life in most unexpected and distressing manner. A well was being dug on his nanner. father's place on Provo bench and a father's place on Provo bench and a large excavation had been made around the well. The child was playing on the ground and came near the curb of the well, when he was admonished to go away because the earth might cave. He did this and sat down above the excavation some 16 feet away. As he did so the ground on which he was sit. did so the ground on which he was sit-ting slid down into the excavation carrying with it and completely bury-ing the child. Neighbors and men from Provo dug in the large mass of soll to recover the body for about 12 hours, and towards 11 o'clock Saturday evening the remains of the unfortunate child were found at a depth of about 20 feet. Funeral services were held icday at the home of the parents and tomorrow the remains will be taken to Heber for burial.

to Heber for burial, Mr. and Mrs. Aird formerly iived in Heber where Mr. Aird was county superintendent of schools of Wasatch county. He is now a teacher in the Lincoln district. The shocking acci-dent has created a feeling of deep sym-pathy among the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Aird and the public, general-by.

$50,000 COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION.

An enthusiastic meeting of delegates to the Utah County Fair association convention from all parts of the county was held Saturday afternoon in the Commercial club rooms. Mayor James M. Creer of Spanish Fork was elected M. Creer of Spanish Fork was elected chairman, and Grant C. Bagley of Pro-vo, secretary. James Clove moved that a Utah county fair association be or-ganized under the above name. The motion was unanimously carried. Grant C. Bagley moved that the as-sociation be organized and incorporated under the laws of Utah, and that the organization he along the lines of he organization be along the lines of he Weber County Fair association. This motion also carried unanimously.

Articles of incorporation were then adopted, providing for a capitalization of $50,000, in shares of $1 each, and the following officers and directors were elected: R. R. Irvine, Provo, President; Stephen L. Chipman, American Fork, vice president; Joseph T. Farrer, Provo, treasurer; and J. C. Anderson, Provo, secretary. secretary Work will be commenced at once on the ground obtained through the ef-forts of the Provo Commercial club from the First Ward Pasture company with a view to having a race track built and buildings erected for a fair this year. The delegates present, representing municipal corporations and commercial bodies in the county, were all earness in their desires to make the project a success, and brought encouraging re ports from the several towns, showin that this feeling is general. Several prominent delegates, who for various reasons could not attend, sent communications expressing their interest in movement and assuring their cooperation.

FARMERS EFFECT ORGANIZATION.

3 America. The headquarters of the so-clety is in Indianapolis, ind., and its pur-poses and objects as set forth in the arti-America. clety is in Indianapolis, Ind., and its pur-poses and objects as set forth in the arti-cles of incorporation, are to secure equita-ble and profitable prices for all products of the farm, garden and orchard, includ-ing livesloca and dairy products and poul-ity. The organization as a local union of this society-was-decided upon after consid-erable discussion of two reports presented by the committee on organization. The majority report recommended an inde-pendent organization, at least for the prescht, leaving the matter of affiliation with the society of equity to be deter-mined later. The ininority report, which was adopted, was presented by A. N. Holdaway, and favored organization as a union of the society. The officers are Levi A. Colvin, president; Walter Scott, vice president; F. C. Johnson, secretary Geo. T. Peay, Jr., traasurer, A. N. Hold-way, E. S. Hinckley, Jorgen Hansen, Christian Rasmussen, F. A. Peay, Geo. W. Gee and Geo. W. Ekins, directors; A. N. Holdaway, E. S. Hinckley and N. W. Billings, organizers.

PROF. DEMOTTE'S LECTURE.

PROF. DEMOTTE'S LECTURE. Trof. John B. DeMotte's lecture in col-lege hall Saturday evening on "The Harp of the Senses or the Secret of Character Building," was attended by a large audi-ence and was theroughly enjoyed. Some of sound waves were given by ald of the stereopticon, leading up to the impre-sions made upon the brain by the thought and acts of the Individual. Prof. De-Mote vividly partrayed the effect of frequent acts of good and evil upon the brain 4.5 that by constant repetition they would be performed automatically, show-ing the givent difficulties that were en-countered in overcoming bad habits and wrong action. The lecture, while scien-intensely interested, and better, all were brainted, and strengthened in their un-derstanding of the heauty of right living. MARRIAGE LICENSES.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Marriage licenses have been issued to the following couples: George H. Ludlow, 22, of Henjamin, and Elizabeth Prior, 23, of Spanish Pork. Eliza McDaniel, 22, and Alice Olsen, 19, both of Alpine. Robert B. Day, 24, of Raymond, Canada, and Effic M. Ross, 22 of Lebi.

DIVORCE GRANTED.

A divorce on the ground of crucity has have been granted to Clara Davis of Spanish Fork from James Albert Davis, Flaintiff was awarded the custody of a minor child.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

The joint teachers institute of Utah and Juab counties and Provo city will hold their monthly session in Nephi on the 17th. State Supt. Nelson, Dr. Byrom W. King and Prof. E. H. Eastmond will address the teachers. The Independent Telephone company has placed telephones in all the public schools.

schools. Chief probation officer. S. M. Brown, who is also a teacher in the public schools, is enlisting the co-operation of the teachers in the matter of applying the reforms contemplated by the juvenile

George Rust, General Manager, Idaho, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming. Offices in Progress Building, Sait Lake City, Utah.

