PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE. AMERICAN.

Wired from Washington. Washington, 24 — This evening's Star has the following: Consul-General Mueller, whose report upon the eling of the German government towards the United States is likely to lead to diplomatic correspondence between the two countries and probably to a demand on the part of Germany for Mueller's recall, comes from the same town with Representative Foran of Ohio, who knows him very well. Mr. Foran says the report is very enaracteristic of the writer, who, he asserts, is a man of very advanced liberal views and believes in a Repub-lican form of government. He is what is known as a "Forty-eighter," having been obliged to leave Germany, his native country, on account of partici-pation in the revolution of '48, when the Liberal Germans strove for a constitutional form of government. In this country his republican ideas have had full growth as well as antagonism to a monarchial government. When he went back to his native land as a representative of this country, he carried wirh him all the American ideas. Foran says further he would not have been received by the German government when appointed by President Cleve-land, but for the fact that during the Franco-Prussian war he visited the Fatherland and though an ardent re-publican his sympathies in that struggie were with his own people, and he rendered the German soldiers valuable service in the hospitals and elsewhere. On account of this the German government extended to him a pardon for previous effenses against the government, so that when he was appointed Consul General to represent the United States there was no objection raised against him. It is felt to be pretty certain, says the Star, that Germany will demand Mualler's recall and this government will have to com-ply, but Bayard will not do so without making it pretty plain that we do not recognize the right of any nation to restrict the liberty of speech of any American citizen and that it is not held by the United States to be an offense to entertain Republican ideas. t is thought that this episode will render our relations with Germany still more strained and that she will be placed on our list with Austria. Randall, Hewitt, Crisp, Hising last session of Congress, will re-port to the House of Representatives after the holidays that all the steel needed for armor plates, either for ship or land fortifications and all the steel ingots needed for manufacture in guns for the navy for coast defenses, can be manufactured in this country.

Washington, 24.—The following is the reply of Secretary Bayard to the Chinese Minister enclosing the check of $500 as a contribution to the proposed monument lu New York to the memory of General Grant DEPARTMENT OF STATE,

Washington, D. C., Dec. 22.

Dear Mr. Minister:—It gives me great pleasure to acknowledge your Excellency's note of the 21st inst., accompanied by your check for $500 m aid of he completion of the monument proposed to be erected in New york to the memory of ex-President U. S. Grant. Let me for myself and for all my coan-trymen—and not in a merely formal way, but with much feeling—express my own and their gratification in this evidence of the widespread human sympathy for the American people in aiding them to perpetuate the memory of one who was their chieftain in a nilitary and in a civil government. 1 beg you to convey to the illustrions viceroy Ll, an expression of my high speciation of his gift of $500, and accept my equal thanks for your own contribution of $200. The total sum shall be transmitted to the enstedians of the monument fund, in New York, with a copy of your letter, and with remaining counts accept my equal thanks for your own contribution of $200. The total sum shall be transmitted to the enstedians of the monument fund, in New York, with a copy of your letter, and with regether. The Works will be granted a new trial. newed acknowledgment of your proof of sympathy and friendship to the peode of the United States and one of their most heroic representatives, am my Dear Mr. Minister, very sinerely yours. That Perilous Storm at Panama, New York, 24.—Capt. Peter Norde-felt and crew of the Swedish barken-tine Karnan, which was destroyed in the harbor of Colon, during the storm of December 3rd, arrived in this city to-day by the Pacific Mail steamer City of Para. To a reporter Captain Nor-denielt told the following story: We arrive I at Colon November 25th with a cargo of coal. We had discharged a tew tons in the afternoon of December 2nd, when the wind began to blow from the southwest. A heavy swell from the sea compelled the lighter to leave the ship and seek shelter nearer the shore. The wind at three o'clock had shifted to the northwest and the rain fell in torrents. The sea became angrier every moment. Find ing the ship was beginning to drift we hrew out another anchor. This did not hold us, so at 7 o'clock we let go the third auchor. We paid out all the chain we dared, but as there was a vessel loaded with explosives lying just at our stern we had to be mighty careful. at 10 o'clock the sea broke over the ship. Mountains of water tumbled over us and for a time it did not look as though we could keep affoat till When daylight came climbed up into the rigging and looked about. The sea was scattered with wrecks and about six vessels were going to pieces on the reef. Just be-yond the bar I saw a vessel bottom upward, with a number of men clinging to it for life. Concluding that we were going to sink with our cargo, we put out signals of distress. In the afternoon we observed an American three-masted schooner drifting directly toward our ship. Seeing a collision was inevitable we set sail and ran the ship ashore. We struck a reef and cat the rigging overboard. The American schooner Veteran drifted against our ship and part of her rigging fell over upon our decks. I sent one of our sailors ashore with a line. A crowd there received him. We then took our long boats and went ashore. Here we found Captains Pierson of the Swedish bark General Nicholas, and Signor Oxholm of the stranded Norwegian bark Douglass Castle. These insisted on taking out our boats and making the attempt to save the lives of the crew of the British bark Synton. They were the British bark Synton. They were unsuccessful at that time, but next day they reached the vessel and rescued the captain's wife, child and three sailors. I wenty-two vessels and sixty lives were lost in that storm. SAN FRANCISCO, 21,—This afternoon the bursting of one of the bollers at the Spring Valley water works of this city, situated on the shore of Lake Me reed, a short distance from here, No cause can be assigned for the ex-

CHICAGO, 24.-Preparations for the national convention of third and fourth-class postmasters in this city Feb. 15, 1886, are almost complete The orranizers are out in an claborate German square miles in South Africa circular to-day in which the importance of the convention is urged and the needs of postmasters outlined. DENVER, 24.—A Springer, New Mexico, special to the Tribune-hepublicane says: Six masked men rode into Springer late last night, captured the county jailor, took the keys from him, broke into the cell, took out Theodore Baker, charged with murdering Frank Unruh, a wealthy ranchman, with whose wife Baker is supposed to have been criminally intimate, and hung him to a telephone pole near the jail. The jailor in the meantime escaped and gave the alarm. A orief skirmish drove of the mob and Baker was cut down just in time to save his life. Springer is the place where the mob ttacked the officers of the jail last March and in which fight four outlaws were killed. Great indignation is ex-pressed by the law-abiding citizens over the last outrage, as they are en-deavoring to rid the county of the mob element largely predominating for ANOTHER COLONIAL ENTERPRISE of novel character which is now in successful operation. Three or four years ago, he says, several hundred thousand tramps infested Germany and drew from the people many millions annually bestowed in charity. Clergyman first suggested the plan of colonizing these people, and with the aid of men of wealth, secured tracts of waste, or partly cultivated land, if Westphalia, where was organized a "workmens' colony." Local committees were everywhere formed to counsel the withholding of alms and bestowal of an equivalent sum to the new colony. Tramps were compelled to emigrate to the colony in large numbers. There they were washed, provided with clothing and furnished with employ-ment as farm laborers. Gradually as farm laborers in the progress of colonization they found work at their respec-tive trades and many of them became u-eful members of society. The rest tound their way to the work-house. the Emperor and many influential men of the Emperor took a deep interest in the matter and at present such colonies are established in all the colonies and states of Germany. Mr. Raine discusses exhaustively the conditions of German trade industries and influences including the matter of the colonies and influences including the colonies and including the c influences, including the new protective policy of government which is affecting them. He finds that manufacturers are complaining more of low prices than of want of opportunities to dispose of their goods. Prices obtained do not yield desired profits, but nearly all branches of manufacture have plenty of work and new industrial es-tablishments are being created.

Mysterious Murders in Austin Texas.

Austin, Tex., 25. - Two terrible crimes were committed in this city last night after midnight, which will un-doubtedly result in three deaths and no telling how many lynchings. During the past year Austin has been horrified every few weeks by some dastardly attack on servants, women, both white and colored. Fully a dozen servants have been outraged and eight murdered within this period. The crimes all bore evidence of being perpetrated and planned by the same person. Every effort has been made to apprehend the criminals, and skilled detectives have been engaged.
Many negroes have been arrested and put through rigid examinations, but nothing came of the efforts. Many citizens and some officers held to the theory that the crimes were perpetrated by some insane individual who cunningly devised how he could shed women's blood without apprehension. About midnight last night W. H. Hancock, a well-to-do carpenter, residing at 203, Water street, was awakened by groans. Entering his wife's chamber adjoining, he found the vacant bed covered with bloody spots. He fol-lowed the trail out of the front door around the house and into the back yard where he found his wife weltering in a pool of blood. She had been struck twice across the head and face with a blunt axe and her skull fractured. Although still alive, physicians say the lady will surely die from her wounds. Mrs. Hancock is aged 40 and still handsome. She bore an unblemished character. In the midst of great excite ment produced by this outrage, the citizens were appalled at learning of a still greater crime perpetrated about Block.

At one o'clock Mrs. I'hlilips, residing at 308 Hickory Street, was awakened by cries of her grandson. Entering her son James Phillips' room, she found the infant on the bed covered with blood and Philips lying senseless from a terrible blow across the head. Ella Philips, his wife, was missing. A frightened neighbor followed the bloody trail again, and found the body lying in the back yard of the adjoining premises. Death had resulted from a blow on the forehead with an axe. Across the body lay heavy rails. Her

The excitement on the streets during the day has been very great. Christimas was forgotten. The mayor called a meeting of citizens at the State House. Nearly 1,000 attended. A committee of public safety was organized. The feeling over these last outrages is intense. A house-to-house search for the bloody handed murderers will probably be made. rs will probably be made Burned to Death in New York.

New York, 25.—A fire started this morning in a two-story frame dwelling on 168th street, near Kings Bridge Road, occupied by Patrick Driscoll and family. They were in bed and were awakened by smoke pouring into the rooms. Driscoll finally found his way out and gave the alarm. When the firemen reached the scene the entire structure was nearly consumed. Driscoll, his wife Mary, and son Patrick were seriously burned while escaping. Three of Driscoll's children were burned to death; they were John, Julius and Mary, aged 17, 14 and 7. The charred remains were found after the fire was subdued.
