FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY in Exchange Building, cor. Main and South Street. E. E. POTTER.

—Dr. Merryweather says: "A fat diet is a great humbug of the temper. It is a waste of consumption that does one nothing and permanently fatigues the body. As far as I am concerned, I am not the least bit interested in any kind of fat diet, and if any person would like to have a fat diet, I would advise him to eat a lot of fish, and especially salmon, because they have carnivorous stomachs. Our bodies are built up by the respiration by the consumption of fish, the world would be all the better for it. I am not medical man, and do not know what may be the result of that respiration, but I am told that many physicians are in agreement, and patients consulted by such a physician.
