THE People's Party Municipal Convention meets this evening at 7 o'clock, in the City Hall, to complete the nam ing of candidates to be voted for at the election on Monday next.

THE law and motion docket was called in the Third District Court this morning, but owing to there being but few attorneys in attendance, the setting was deferred till this afternoon.

THIS afternoon J. W. Woolfenden, who has been for several years engaged at the Western Union Telegraph office in this city, died suddenly at 60 w. First South Street. Dr. Harrison was in attendance, but all efforts to prelong his life were unavailing. Owing to the lateness of the hour we were unable to obtain full particulars.

MEETING OF LIBERALS

To Consider the Subject of M nority Representation.

An informal in etling of the Liberals of this city assembled at the Chamber of Commerce at 2 p.m. today, and had a very turbulent time, but finally managed to bring order out of chaos. Governor West was elected chairman and Charles Rand secretary.

Judge McBride made a report from the committee who had conferred with representatives of the People's Party, favoring the proposition of a fusion ticket containing the names of four noa-"Mormons" for officers. He was followed in a speech by C. C. Goodwin, who favored the proposition.

Then came T. R. Jones with a rabid speech, in which he declared he wanted no rights from tyrants except such as he could wrench from them, etc., and denounced the proposition to form a citizens' ticket as a deep laid scheme on the part. of the "Mormons" to pave the way for gaining State government. He advocated the making of a straight Gentile ticket and showing the relative strength of the two parties.

Col. Sells made a few remarks, the tenor of which it was difficult to catch in the midst of the confusion, but he seemed to be in favor of peace. He was followed by Henry W. Lawrence, who was violent in the extreme in his denunciation of the "Mormons," and any proposition coming from them. Claimed that the "Mormon" majority of voters in the city did not exceed 500, while the Gentiles represented fully 5) per cent of the city's revenue, and that the Gentiles in less than two years could elect their own men in spit of the "Mormons."

Parley L. Williams followed in a similar strain, and asserted that the "Mormons" were unwilling to have such names as Henry W. Lawrence on the ticket, because, as they claime i, he was an apostate, but in reality because he stood up for prin-

Governor West made a vigorous and logical speech in which he exhibited the fallacy of the arguments indulged in by the previous speakers and illustrated the advantages of the fusion preposed from a business point of view, declaring that if the rabid opponents of the measure could have their way they would roll back the tide of prosperity which is now coming this way and undo what the business men of the community had been laboring to effect for the past year. He was followed by Judge McBride, who descried politics in municipal matters and declared that when muncipalities had been given over to politics it had resulted in a vigilance committee had to be or-

THE GRAND JURY.

Eleven Inquisitors Secured from the First List.

The February, 1888, term of the Third Judicial District Court opened at 11 o'clock this morning, Judge Zaue on the beach. The first business was that of securing a grand jury to operate for the term, and with that object in views the following responded to their names and came forward:

1) J. H. Woodman, 12 Henry Day,
12 George H. Pope,
51 Walter Davidson,
197 Robert Scott,
23 Robt. T. Burton, Jr.
45 Fred Bennett,
64 Wm. Burton

Wm. Spicer, Sflas N. Richards, Nephi Draper, N. A. Scribner, 31 Edwin J. Rushton, 24 Wm. J. Horne, 37 Joseph Oberndorfer, 133 Smith Ehenger.

Mr. Woodman was the first one examined by Mr. Peters. He answered the usual statutory questions satisfactorily, and gave a magative reply to Mr. Peters' inquiry, "Do you believe it right for a man to have more than one wife?" He was accepted. Mr. Day said he did not believe polygamy to be wrong when there was no law against it, and was excused. Mr. Pops did not new believe polygamy to be right; he had formerly believed it to be proper, but had repudiated it; he was still a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day

Saints, but could not say he was in good standing; he also believed that cohabitation with more than one wife was wrong; if there was no law to the contrary, he thought polygamy would pe right. Mr. Davidson was not a believer in polygamy, and was accepted. Ex-Deputy Marshal Scott, of Tooele, was also accepted. Mr. Burton said that he did not be lieve in polygamy, and never had done so; he was not a member of the Church; passed. Mr. Scribner was not a believer in plural marriage, and was accepted. Mr. Rushton believed plural marriage to be a correct doctrine where there was no law prohibiting it, and was excused.

Mr. Draper was in a similar frame of mind, and was excused.

Mr. Spicer was a believer in plural marriage. Excused. Mr. Richards believed in that religlous doctrine when there was no law against it: excused.

Mr. Bennett was an odd number and passed satisfactorily as to his religious belief. Mr. Ehenger and Mr. Oberndorfer were accepted on similar grounds.

Mr. Horne did not believe in polygamy; did not think it right under any

Mr. Burton wanted to be excused because he was deputy assessor for Salt Lake County; the court refused the application. This exhausted the first call, and the following came forward:

135 Isaac Elkington, 136 Edward Laird, 114 J. F. Snedaker, 1ft Chas. W. Watson, 110 A. S. Keller, 125 Chas. P. Sharp.

Mr. Elkington was not a believer in polygamy; accepted.
Mr. Snedeker did not now believe polygamy to be right; be was a member of the Church; If there was no law against polygamy, he thought it might be right; he was excused.

Mr. Laird believed plural marriage to be right if no law existed against it; excused.

Mr. Walson did not believe it right and was accepted. Mr. Keller was a believer and and was excused. Mr. Sharp was in a similar frame of nind, and shared the same fate. The following were then called:

This exhausted the list. The follow failed to answer:

155 Amos Masher, 99 Rufus Walker

The officers were instructed to bring in the absentees. Mr. Hammond was a constable and Mr. Waite was excused for his belief in the rightfulness of plural mar-riage when there was no law against

Up to the present butleleven jurors had been accepted, and the following names were drawn from the box and a venire issued, returnable Tuesday Feb. 7, at 10 a.m.

The eleven jurors were excused til a. m. tomorrow.

The same committee reported a substitute for the bill in relation to the selection and payment of jurors, promising to prepare another bill embodying the features of the original bill and other similar ones. Adopted.

Moyle, from the educational committee, made a report recommending that the 7th inst. at 3:30 p. m. oe fixed upon as the time for visiting the University.

It announced that the resolutions of the Association, against a reduction of the tariff on wool, had been prominently laid before Congress, and recommended that the Legislature memorialize Congress upon the subject.

He knew of only one officer absolutely necessary to the government of a territory, and that was the treasurer. He presumed that the treasurer was at the bottom of all governments, but the auditor, marshal, school commissioner, and all other officers might be dispensed with. This was in answer to Thurman's opinion that certain fundamental officers might be held to be sp-polative by the executive, while the minor officers were not. He charged that on Thursday the People's members refused to admit that the reform school directors were officers but that they had receded from this ground on Friday, by admitting that they were. This conceded he held that it could not be denied that the governor had the right to appoint
