

SOCIETY

and certificates of genealogy to each child, both being designed by Spencer Clawson for the occasion.

Among the prettiest events of the week were the card parties given by Mrs. Bird and the Misses Bird. A large number were present at the first function, 18 tables being played. The rooms were beautifully decorated with huge chrysanthemums in white and yellow, and refreshments were served.

SMART TWEED SUIT.

This is of heavy pepper and salt mixture, cut a comfortable walking length. The seams are stitched. The front seam, as also all edges on the coat, and the shaped strapping are stitched with white, also the black velvet collar. The foot of skirt is trimmed with eight rows of narrow black braid, stitched on. Horn buttons.

after the contest. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. Raymond and Mrs. Eddie.

Mrs. Bird and the Misses Bird were hostesses at a second delightful card party on Thursday. Chrysanthemums were the decorations, and the scores and tallies were picturesque figures done in black and white. Miss Manton, Mrs. Price and Miss Ellorbeck were the prize winners. Twelve tables were played.

Dr. Lorenz was guest of honor at a luncheon given yesterday at the Alta club by Dr. H. D. Niles, a number of the practicing physicians being among the others present. Last night Dr. Baldwin was host at a dinner given in honor of Dr. Lorenz, both being delightful affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Alder entertained at a Halloween supper last night, the decoration and other appointments carrying out the idea. The centerpiece was a pumpkin with lantern inside, and the souvenirs were tiny candy pumpkins. Chrysanthemums were the flowers used. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slade, Jr. and Mrs. Fred Slade, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Schettler, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Will Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood.

Miss Dern was hostess at a luncheon yesterday, given in honor of Miss Mamie Porter. The decorations were American beauty roses and white chrysanthemums artistically arranged, and covers were laid for 14. Present, besides the guest of honor were: Mrs. C. S. Price, Mrs. Diehl, Mrs. Albert Allen, Mrs. Cunningham, Miss McIntyre, Miss Jacobson, Miss McMillan, Miss Kinney, Miss Mary Kinney, Miss Dooley, Miss McGrath, and Miss McGulgan of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Richardson entertained the card-club at their home on Thursday night, the first prizes in the contest going to Mrs. E. A. Hartenstein and Dr. Leslie Snow, and the second to Mrs. Julia Taylor and Mr. Will Hedges. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hartenstein, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hedges, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Snow, Mr. and Mrs. James Barow, Mrs. Julia Taylor and Mr. B. S. Young.

Mrs. C. Stanley Price gave a delightful card party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Mamie Porter. The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums and refreshments were served after the contest. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Schoppe and Miss Culmer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hartenstein celebrated their china wedding on Tuesday evening in a delightful card party given at their home. The rooms were decorated throughout with cosmos, and delicious refreshments were served. Prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Brink, Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Wiscomb.

Misses Clare Midgely and Winnie Evans gave a Halloween party at the home of Miss Midgely last night. The rooms were prettily decorated with cosmos, chrysanthemums and greens, and the evening was spent with Halloween games, music and recitations. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Mrs. R. L. Tracy was hostess at the Country club today.

Mrs. Fred Hale entertained informally at a Kensington on Thursday in honor of Mrs. D. P. Early of Rockport, Ill., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Simons.

Miss Laura Madsen entertained the Kensington club at her home on Thursday afternoon. The decorations were chrysanthemums, and an enjoyable time was spent by all. Present were Mrs. Ringer, Miss Rose Meyer, Miss Alice Fisher, Miss Mary Ann, Miss Afton Kimball, Miss Carrie Hardie, Miss A. Nelson, Miss Hazel Beattie, Miss Crismon, Miss Lulu Penrose, Miss Louise Madsen, Miss Grace Freeze.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carpenter of Fort Dodge, Ia., who have been visiting with friends in this city yesterday for Los Angeles. Mr. Carpenter is a sister of Miss Kate and Mr. Albert Vorse, and a niece of J. A. Goodhue. Mr. Carpenter is a brother of ex-Governor Carpenter of Iowa.

Miss Sibyl Foote entertained a number of her young friends at a delightful Halloween party last night.

Mrs. D. S. Spencer was hostess at a delightful tea on Tuesday, the features of the afternoon being a musical program given by Profs. McClellan and Skelton and Miss Crismon, and a sewing contest in which prizes were awarded Mrs. J. D. Spencer and Mrs. Myra Rositter.

Mrs. D. S. Spencer entertained at a second pleasant affair on Thursday, the afternoon being spent at cards. The rooms were decorated in autumn flowers, and the scores and tallies were garlands of autumn leaves done in water colors. The first prize was won by Mrs. John Y. Rich of Brigham City, the second by Mrs. T. G. Webber, and consolation by Mrs. M. B. Whitney.

Mrs. H. R. Ayres entertained at 65 on Wednesday afternoon about 75 guests enjoying the pleasant affair. The rooms were beautifully decorated, great yellow chrysanthemums being used in the parlor, cosmos in the library, and American beauty roses in the dining room. The prizes in the contest were awarded Mrs. George Read, Mrs. Cosgriff and Mrs. Ready. Delicious refreshments were served afterward.

Among the Halloween hostesses were Misses Lulu Snow and Jean Taylor, who gave an enjoyable party at the home of Miss Snow.

Miss Dottie Bemis and Miss White entertained a number of their friends at a "poverty Halloween" party last night, at the home of Miss Bemis. Halloween games were enjoyed and a delightful time spent.

Miss Genevieve Clark was hostess at an informal card party last night.

Mrs. H. V. Croll gave a thimble party at her home yesterday afternoon.

Miss Harriet Jones of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Miss Bessie Rich of Pocatello were in the city during the early part of the week. Miss Virginia Jones entertained informally on Monday evening in their honor.

Mrs. John R. Ferbruche gave a Halloween party at her home yesterday.

Mrs. E. O. Lee entertained the members of her Bible class and a few other friends at a Halloween party last night. The rooms were lit with Jack-o-lanterns and Halloween games were the evening's amusement.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Corum on Thursday night, the social committee of the Christian Endeavor society of the Eastside Baptist church gave an enjoyable Halloween party, the evening pastimes including the usual games and other Halloween pastimes.

A new dancing club has been organized under the name of the "Sarabats" the officers including Dr. Wharry, Joseph Frant, Fred Nightingale and R. I. Chamberlin. The club will give a series of parties during the winter at the Ladies' Literary clubhouse, the first to take place early next month.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Adams have returned to their home in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Marks, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Solon Spiro, left yesterday for their home, to leave shortly for a Mediterranean trip.

Mrs. Frank B. Stephens is in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clinton, Jr., of Boise, Ida., are visiting Mr. Clinton's parents.

Mrs. Hoppaugh entertained the East Side card club on Wednesday at her home, the prize in the game being won by Mrs. George Steiner. The rooms were prettily decorated with cosmos and chrysanthemums, and the tallies were Japanese designs.

Mrs. J. S. Kinkadee is spending a few days with Mrs. McKinney. She will leave shortly for New York, where Mr. Kinkadee is established in business.

Miss Nan Short has returned from a six weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Wood of Denver.

Miss Holden of Los Angeles will arrive this week to visit her sister, Mrs. Walter Scott.

Mrs. A. D. Moffat of Butte will spend the winter with her daughters, Mrs. J. H. Patrick.

Mrs. W. T. Benson has returned from a three months' visit in the east.

Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle is home from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hawver have returned from their summer's stay at Soda Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adams will leave for the east today.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Warwick have removed from their residence on Third South to the Miller hotel.

Miss Lillian Martling, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. N. Warwick, left for her home in Kansas City yesterday.

Mrs. M. B. Whitney and Miss Preston have invitations out for a large reception to be given next Wednesday at Mrs. Whitney's home on C street.

Atty.-Gen. M. A. Breeden has returned from a brief visit to California.

SENIORITA ADELINA ALVAREZ CALDERON

The social debut of Senorita Adelina Alvarez Calderon, daughter of the Peruvian minister, will be a notable event at the capital. She is the only debutante in the diplomatic contingent this year, which adds to the importance of the event. She is 18 years of age, beautiful and vivacious.

New Mexico and Arizona. Mrs. Breeden and Miss Virginia Breeden remained in Los Angeles.

Mrs. F. E. Davey has returned from an eastern trip.

Mrs. John Y. Rich of Brigham City is the guest of Mrs. Crismon of East First South street.

Dr. A. H. McChrystal and Mr. E. C. Parsons leave for a hunting trip through Colorado early next month.

The next Red and Black party will be given Nov. 7.

Mrs. S. W. Morrison returns this morning from an extended trip east.

Mrs. Fabian and Miss Stella Fabian left this week for southern California.

Mr. O. C. Beebe gave a most delightful children's party on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Parsons have returned.

Mrs. F. T. McGurran, Mrs. Edward McGurran and Mr. Trumbo spent Sunday in Park City.

Mrs. G. E. Hubbard of Park City is visiting Mrs. S. F. Fox.

Will Jeffs of Michigan is visiting his brother, L. E. Jeffs.

Mrs. Heath of Park City is visiting Mrs. Kenyon.

Mrs. Meyer is spending a few days in Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Crismon are down from Portland to visit for the next two weeks, and are the guests of Mrs. Priscilla Jennings on B street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lynn will be at home for the winter at 504 south Main street.

Miss Florence Roundy leaves Sydney, Australia, for Salt Lake November 17.

Mrs. Joseph H. Young entertained the Sewing club and a number of others at her home on G street on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. D. Clark has returned to her home in Wyoming.

Miss Harriet Jones of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Miss Bessie Rich of Pocatello, were visitors in the city during the early part of the week.

Mrs. James Jennings will entertain at cards next Thursday.

Mrs. D. M. Lindsay has returned from Europe.

Miss Pearl Bolton leaves this week for California to spend the winter.

Mrs. Anna Tanner has returned from her eastern trip.

An enjoyable event of the week was the reunion held in honor of the memory of the late D. H. Wells on Monday night. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Annie Wells Cannon over a hundred of the family being present. A banquet, and program of music and recitations were features of the evening, the program being in charge of Junior F. Wells and given by members of the family.

Col. and Mrs. E. F. Holmes have returned from the east.

The Fort Douglas Social club gave a dance at the Fort on Wednesday night.

Mr. C. L. Knight has returned.

Miss Backman and Miss Lena Backman of Provo, were in the city during the week.

Miss Maud Thorne has gone east.

Mrs. George Cummings entertained at tea on Monday in honor of Mrs. Jack Williams. The rooms and table were decorated in pink, and hand-painted china, done chiefly in pink carried out

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Coombs entertained at an enjoyable affair on Thursday night in honor of Mr. W. T. Fletcher of Alberta, who, in company with Mr. Jesse Smith, leaves shortly for a mission to the eastern states. A feature of the evening was a program consisting of a piano solo by Miss Edith Woolley, a mandolin solo by master Walter Woolley, vocal solo, Miss Edna Evans, piano selections, Mrs. K. G. Mauser, piano and mandolin duet, Edith and Clifton Woolley, Song, "Ye Elders of Israel" and remarks by Messrs. Willard T. Fletcher, Jesse Smith, A. H. Woolley, D. R. Coombs and T. G. Tobason. Refreshments were served, and an impromptu testimonial in the shape of a purse contributed by those present was another of the pleasant features of the evening. The guests were: W. T. Fletcher and Jesse Smith of Alberta, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Sudbury, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carr, A. Pitt, E. Smith, L. Smith, H. Cannon, Messrs. R. Chapman, Wright, S. Beattie, V. Cutler, O. Leaver, F. Jones, S. Wilcox, R. Browning, P. Smith, S. Taylor, J. Russ, S. Fell, H. Harding, F. Davies, C. Chas. F. Simpson, B. Carrington, J. Atkins, B. Ellerbeck, J. McCune, D. Cannon.

One of the most delightful Halloween parties of the week was that given by Miss Hazel Cannon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mina C. Ellis, 74 North First West street. The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums and lighted with Jack-o-lanterns, while each gate post had its pumpkin lantern light. The chandeliers were shaded in red, and in an alcove in the lower hall sitting under a red globe was an Egyptian fortune teller who revealed past, present and future to the guests. Upstairs was a Bluebeard's chamber, and in the cellar was a wax corpse with ivory gossamer streaming from a murderous gash. On the table in the dining room was a basket carved from a large pumpkin twined with vines, and filled with grapes, and in the bay window stood a tub of apples, for which the guests fished, each apple containing a slip of paper upon which was written the fate of the finder. At 8 o'clock there was a ghost dance, and the rest of the evening was spent in amusing Halloween pastimes. Those present were Misses M. Gibson, I. Gibson, F. Chipman, G. Wright, E. Davis, C. Wilcox, G. Fell, M. Jones, K. Jennings, J. Smith, M. White, N. Kirtler, R. Smith, V. McDonald, N. Peck, H. Broberg, N. Carr, A. Pitt, E. Smith, L. Smith, H. Cannon, Messrs. R. Chapman, Wright, S. Beattie, V. Cutler, O. Leaver, F. Jones, S. Wilcox, R. Browning, P. Smith, S. Taylor, J. Russ, S. Fell, H. Harding, F. Davies, C. Chas. F. Simpson, B. Carrington, J. Atkins, B. Ellerbeck, J. McCune, D. Cannon.

Next Friday will witness the sixty-seventh birthday anniversary of Bishop Hiram Clawson, and the date will be memorialized in a notable fashion, taking place at the Eleventh ward schoolhouse, when it is expected that over a hundred descendants of President Clawson will be present. Among the features of the occasion will be the presentation of a genealogical tree done in scroll work to the guest of honor.

EVERY THING OF INTEREST FOCUSES AT GREENEWALD'S

WHERE TO BUY FORECASTS OF THE SEASON LOWEST PRICES FURNITURE OF EVERY DESCRIPTION FURNITURE MADE TO ORDER PROMPT AND CAREFUL DELIVERY BEST GOODS FOR LEAST MONEY REPAIRING

THE GREENEWALD COMPANY THE ARTISTIC FURNISHERS 27 AND 29 WEST 3RD SOUTH ST.

YOU ARE INVITED TO INSPECT OUR STORE VISITORS ALWAYS WELCOME

Telephone 462