Shims, Alabama, has sixty settled wells with sixty different kinds of water.

The inventor of the monitor, Captain John Ericsson, is a hale and hard working octogenarian.

The Philadelphia News suggests that the eighty-five-cent dollars be donated to the statue of Liberty.

The cholera continues to advance eastward, and is raging in Egypt with increased virulence. Fugitives are said to be flying in all directions, and in many cases are carrying infection with them.

It is said that the Confederate bands bought in this country are shipped to a London house, which in turn disposes of them to Amsterdam buyers. American sharpers beat the Dutch.

The Mail and Express says: It is asserted that almost none of the merchant princes of New York City are native Americans, the most widely known and prosperous shopkeepers being Irish, or Scotch, or Londoners.

An observing pedestrian has made the startling discovery that the reason why woman cannot succeed as well as man in the walks of life is because when she is on the walks one hand is usually employed in holding up her dress.

There is a misapprehension as to the date when the new law making letter postage two cents goes into effect, many people supposing the first of July to be the date. The change in the internal revenue law abolishing revenue stamps on bank checks, matches, etc., applies now, but the letter postage will be three cents until the 1st of October.

IS POLYGAMY THE CAUSE?

NOTHING that has occurred in this Territory for a long time has given so much joy to the small clique of "Mormons" as the sensational stories of Utah depravity that occasionally startle the American public, as the assault and robbery at the Savings Bank in this city on Tuesday. This wild delight of those "Christian" creatures is occasioned by the fact that the offenders are connected with prominent "Mormon" families. It is so rare that an occasion of this kind occurs that they take unrestrained advantage of it. They are intoxicated with exuberant hilarity. They point at the outrage as conclusive evidence of the evil tendencies of polygamy. They claim that the two guilty men are "polygamous offspring," brought up without the influence of home or the care of tender parents, and intimate that robbery and assault and all kinds of crime are the natural outgrowth of polygamous relations and teachings.
 People who use their own reasoning faculties will receive these statements and deductions with doubt, and the wise and fair-minded will reject them as inconsistent and illogical. But there are a great many people who do not exercise personal judgment to any great extent, and therefore it may be well to touch on a few reflections for their benefit.

First, let the facts be understood:
 On Tuesday afternoon, July 10th, the Assistant Cashier of Zion's Savings Bank, Mr. R. H. Schellert, was struck on the forehead with an iron rod in the hands of David P.
 Rich, who gathered up all the loose coin he could hurriedly seize and decamped. He was assisted by a companion known as Adolphus Smith.
 The particulars of the assault and robbery appeared first in this paper.
 The same night both the robbers were captured, "Smith" in the room of his sweetheart, and Rich in a house of ill repute. Most of the money (not quite $200) was recovered.
 Rich is the son of a leading "Mormon," the other is an adopted son of another prominent "Mormon." Neither of them is what is commonly denominated a "polygamous child."

The truth of the foregoing is known to many. The contrary is known to none. Those who publish charges against the parental influence of the young man's home, manufacture their cowardly slanders, and thereby exhibit themselves in their true character; there are no words in a decent dictionary which will do justice to their degraded and deplorable poltroonery. And their false logic rebounds upon themselves.
 The glee that "they manifest" because one "Mormon" Apostle's son has committed a crime is a ghoulish and suggestive of the infrequency of such occurrences as to show the reverse of what they try to establish, and to stamp them as unworthy of any respect whatever.

We suggest for the consideration of those who may have been to any extent deceived by the absurd and malignant suggestions of those unprincipled persons, the fact that the "Mormon" monogamous, elements of Utah, while forming about one-tenth of the population, furnish about nine-tenths of the criminals, the delinquents of our jails and prisons, and that it is very rare thing for the offspring of polygamous parents to sink down to the level of crime and infamy which are peculiarly the concomitants of monogamous civilized society. The inference needs no pointing out.
 The argument which the illogical assailants of our best people attempt to make proves a great deal too much; it is a commonplace which they ought to have sense enough, if they haven't decency enough, not to disclose.

The very novelty of the thing has made so much excitement and caused so much comment. Which is the more reasonable, to say that this crime is the direct result of polygamy, or that a wayward child of a polygamous family has been led astray and has copied after the pattern of monogamous society? Neither of these conclusions would probably be arrived at by logical and just persons, but if one of them is essential, is not the latter, the more rational of the two?

A "Mormon" boy has contracted bad habits, and, influenced by drink, has committed a grave crime; therefore polygamy is the cause of bank robbery and drunkenness. Who ever heard such logic before? "Well, but his father is a Mormon Apostle." Just so. And are there no sons of "Christian" clergymen, archbishops, reverends, D. D.'s and preachers of morality who go to the bad? Are there any religious societies in Christendom, the teachers and representatives of which have no bad sons, no children who will not listen to the advice and follow the leading of exemplary parents?

Just look for a moment at the legitimate consequence of the infamous reasoning of these "Mormons", fathers. If this crime is the result of polygamy, then all the multifarious crimes of Christendom, which are so numerous, awful and scandalous as to horrify the sensitive soul at their mere mention, are the result of monogamy. It's a poor rule that only works one way.

The attacks and sneers and shameful epithets hurled at the father of the young man now in prison, are characteristic of those who use them, but would not be tolerated anywhere else on the face of this broad earth. An aged gentleman, who has been helpless in bed for many months, whose life has been so honest and fair and kindly and above reproach (except on the one question which pretended moralists, but corrupt scoundrels, use as a convenient excuse for their scurrility) that people of all creeds speak of it with respect, is blamed and defamed with scurrilous vileness because a wild son has disgraced himself. Can anything become com-temptible? Is there any law of meanness to which such dirty dogs as have done this can descend?

As a matter of fact, "Mormon" parents are required by their religion to teach their children everything that is recognized as moral, virtuous and religious in the Christian faith.
 If they do not pursue this course, it is contrary to their religion. The latter-day revelations and discourses of leading men in the Church team with instructions as to the duty of parents in this regard. The general absence in strictly "Mormon" towns and villages of the crimes so common in Christendom, is evidence that our youth are so instructed and that they profit by parental teaching. It is only to be expected that some will despise counsel and fall into evil ways. And in those cities where the customs and vices of the "Gentiles" have been introduced, it is not remarkable that boys and girls who have been taught better will go astray and do wickedly. But to charge this to the parent or the creed that continually instructs them to the contrary, is the very essence of inconsistency and injustice and can only proceed from an anti-"Mormon" source.

In this particular case, the teachings and spirit and influence of the young man's father have been exercised to lead him in the path of rectitude. His course has been in spite of, not in consequence of, his training. This morning we received from him the annexed communication, which we commend to the personal use of just people:

SALT LAKE CITY, U. T.,
 July 12, 1933.

To whom it may concern:
 This is to certify that the difficulty in which I now find myself is caused by disobeying the good counsel and good advice given me by my parents. I desire to be understood, and do solemnly affirm before God and man, that no teaching or example of my parents, or of the leaders of the Church to which they belong, has ever given me license to do wrong, or to follow the bad habits which have blinded me to reason at times, so that I laid myself liable to such disgrace as that in which I have now fallen. I solemnly urge other young men to shun the temptations which have overcome me, and am particularly in failure, not only to do better myself and set a proper example, if I do not shall give me strength, but to do all I can to awaken the same feeling of reformation in others of my acquaintance.

I again repeat that none but the best of teaching and example have been given me by my parents, and those who had a right to mark my course in life.

D. P. RICH.

Horrible Quadruple Tragedy.
 DWIGHT, Ill., 13.—Andrew White, a wealthy farmer living near this place, was recently placed in a private insane asylum owing to the impairment of his mental faculties caused by close attention to details of his business. He there became strongly convinced with the hallucination that his wife and children desired to rob him of his property. He escaped from his retreat a few days ago proceeded to his home and arriving there in the middle of the night watched till morning, when he called to his wife to come and welcome him. His wife and three children, aged respectively 10 and 12 years, came at once and he allowed each to caress him. He then drew a revolver, shot and instantly killed his wife and followed this by murdering his two children. He then made the tragedy complete by killing himself.

Instantly Killed.
 LEMONTILL, 13.—The Eureka stone quarry, four miles south of this city, was the scene of a tragedy yesterday afternoon by the falling of a high derrick. While lifting a block of stone weighing three tons, one of the supporting wire guy-rope slipped, causing the derrick to fall among a crowd of fifty workmen, four of whom were directly under the timbers and were instantly killed.

Death from Yellow Fever.
 DECATUR, Ill., 13.—Information has been received here of the death by yellow fever of General Jesse H.
 Moore, U. S. Consul at Callao, Peru.

Attempted Suicide.
 CHICAGO, 13.—Last evening Lizzie Robinson, niece of Kaleb, the San Francisco banker, made the second attempt at suicide. Last night she was found lying in the basement of the building at 122 South Clark street, and almost insensible. A bottle partially filled with laudanum was clutched tightly in her hand, and when removed to the hospital it was supposed her case admitted of no remedy. She revived, however, and at two o'clock this morning, though not yet out of danger, the chances were said to be in her favor. Lizzie Robinson is about 40 years of age, and for the past five years has been an inhabitant of Clark Street. For the past two years she has lived at 291 South Clark Street, a place until lately frequented by women of the town.

Destruction by Flood and Fire.
 BLOOMINGTON, Ind., 13.—Last night the new department of the Indian University was discovered on fire. The laboratory was soon in flames and shortly afterward the library and museum. The latter contained the famous Owen collection and Dr. Jordan's collection of fishes. The library contained 15,000 volumes. The building was entirely destroyed. The fire was caused by a lighted candle in the library room. The cause of the fire is believed to be a gas leak from a gas pipe. The loss is $300,000; insurance $50,000.

Harrisburg, Pa., 13.—The most damaging flood yet known to this place. Last night about eight o'clock two angry clouds met just north of the town, and rain poured down in torrents. Black Run, a small river running through town, became a mighty river, spreading over some of the principal streets. Shocks of wheat from the neighboring fields, hogs, chickens, small houses, and endless drift came pouring through the main thoroughfares. Many private homes were flooded and greatly damaged. It is impossible to estimate the damage. Pavements, sidewalks and footbridges were swept away and the streets fearfully damaged. The whole population was out on the streets till past midnight.

Fatal Powder Explosion.
 WILMINGTON, 12.—Twenty-five hundred pounds of powder exploded in the press room of Dupont's Powder Works this morning. Thomas Pearl, foreman of the press room, and Patrick Haley, laborer, were killed.

 lative to the second Suez canal, arrived at between De Lesseps and the British government.

London, 13.—The newspapers ceptance of the agreement entered seps will not be forced upon Parlia-

 A dispatch from Hong Kong, dated the 12th inst., reports Tongkah in a state of anarchy. The French have captured and hanged many rascals, and of whom have hovered about and endeavored to force the outposts. Nevertheless the latter are still fired upon nightly.
