GREAT INTEREST IN EISTEDDFOD

Entries for Contests Are Coming In from All Over the Country.

TWENTY FOR SOPRANO SOLO.

One is Received from Miss Ruth Parry of Scranton, Pa.-Local Citi. zens Unsolicited Offer Prizes.

Interest in the forthcoming national Eisteddfod grows apace, a fact which makes it extremely gratifying to its promoters-the Sait Lake City Cambrian association. Although the festival s more than four months away, entries for the smaller contests are coming in from all parts of the country, and that the preliminary judges will have their hands full in determining who are eligible for final contest honors is now a foregone conclusion. Only three of any number entered can appear before the public and receive an award. It is estimated that there will be at least 20 entries for the soprano solo contest alone, to sav nothing of the other 14 or more numbers on the program. In order to show the far reaching effect of the Elsteddfod an entry of the past week came from the far east. It was from Miss Ruth Parry of Scranton. Pa., who writes the corresponding to. Pa., who writes the corresponding It was from Miss Ruth Parry of Scranton, Pa., who writes the corresponding secretary, saying; "Please enter my name as a competitor for the soprano solo contest, No. 10. I shall be in Salt Luke early in September, accompanied by my parents, and would like you to arrange at least one rehearsal with your official accompanist."

CITIZENS IN LINE.

CITIZENS IN LINE.

In this connection it is interesting to note that Mr. Max Florence, manager of the Elite theater, unsolicited, sent the following communication to the Clumbrian association, under date of June 3: "I cut the program of your Elisteddfod out of the Saturday News' of March 21, and since then have been wondering what I could do to help your cause. In the east I believe it is customary for someone to offer a prize, and, if there are no objections, I shall send you my check for $39, and would like to have the same awarded the winners of the first and second prizes or the soprano solo contest." It is perhaps needless to say that Mr. Florence's offer was accepted by the Cambrians with a hearty vote of thanks.

Mr. J. F. Boes of this city also sent in a communication to the society during the week in which he made the offer of a gold medal to be given the leader of the successful military band. Mr. Boes' offer was accepted with a vote of thanks.

NEW YORK SINGERS COMING.

Another feature of the week was the receipt of a letter from Mr. W. S. Randolph, general passenger agent of the New York Central lines, with head-quarters in Albany, N. Y., addressed to Mr. T. F. Thomas, chalrman of the as-Mr. T. F. Thomas, chairman of the association's transportation committee, stating that the Philharmonic club, a chorus of 75 voices, of Utica, N. Y., was desirous of entering for the male chorus contest, and would make the trip provided satisfactory rates could be obtained. Mr. Randolph urged that the matter of rates be taken up at once with the following rads: The Western Passenger association, the Central Passenger association, the Trunk Line association and the Trans-Continental lines. Mr. Thomas wrote to each of lines, Mr. Thomas wrote to each of the roads and feels confident of favor-able action, especially when it is re-called that all the western roads be-tween Denver and Salt Lake have granted a rate of one fare for the round trip.

LARSEN MAKES DISCOVERY.

Seeking Naturalization Finds Records Show No Fees Paid.

A man by the name of Nick Jorger Larsen appeared at the county clerk's ing out his final citizenship papers, but found that there was no record of the payment of $4, which he claims to have paid to Deputy Clerk Gideon A. Gibbs on Feb. 6, of this year. Larsen was greatly perturbed because of the absence of the payment from the record, as he was unable on that account to secure his naturalization papers. He made complaint to County Clerk J. U. Fidredge Jr. and an investigation was Eldredge, Jr., and an investigation was Eldredge, Jr., and an investigation was begun.

Mr. Gibbs denies emphatically Larsen's story, and says he does not remember anything about it. He says if Larsen did pay $4 it would show on the books, as a duplicate of the book record was made every time final papers were issued. Gibbs left the office of the clerk about two weeks ago, when a federal inspector found some irregularity with the naturalization records, of which Gibbs had charge. Applicants signed the register in the wrong place, and the inspector advised that the papers be cancelled, but Gibbs says there is nothing wrong in that, and that he explained it to the satisfaction of the inspector at the time.
