Cotton Exchange.

NEW YORK, 13.—The National Cotton Exchange began its convention to-day. The annual report of the executive council declares that during the last five years cotton culture in the United States has outstripped the most sanguine expectations. The problem of free labor has been virtually solved, and the South must be regarded as the future reliance of cotton manufacturers of both America and Europe. Taking the average of the past few years, but 31 per centum of the cotton crop is manufactured in the United States, 69 per centum going to feed the mills of Great Britain and the continent of Europe.

Vanderbilt's Intention.

The activity in Lake Shore stock by which a well known Californian is reported to have realized half a million and over, occasions many rumors on Wall street regarding Vanderbilt's intentions. The impression prevails that he will secure the release of a large sum he has to keep tied up in Lake Shore in order to maintain its control in connection with the Central. Meanwhile Lake Shore stocks goes steadily up and all Wall Street is growing excited.

The Swimmer Webb.

Captain Webb accomplished the feat of swimming from Sandy Hook to Manhattan Beach, Coney Island. He was expected at 6 o'clock, but reached the breakers at 2. Being thus ahead of time, he remained out till the appointed hour to fulfil the contract.

Will Resign.

A Washington dispatch says: It is understood Dr. Cobell, president of the National Board of Health, and Dr. Turner, secretary, will resign on the 19th inst.

Gold Return.

The steamship Scythia brought $265 000 in gold bars and American eagles to day.

Immigrant.

Five hundred immigrants arrived to-day, mostly for the west.

Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, 13.—Captain Eads, now here, has received a communication from the governor of California, asking him to accept the office of State engineer or take charge of the work of improving the Sacramento River. He confirms the report of the government engineer relative to the complete success of the jetty system at the mouth of the Mississippi, and expects the commission to improve the Mississippi will be equally successful if the same principles are applied. The members will examine the river from St. Paul to its mouth. The plan is to deepen the channel, prevent the banks from caving in, give it uniform width and protect the country on each side from the annual disastrous overflows caused by floods.

Frank T. Taylor, aged 19, and Robert D. Barnard, aged 16, a former clerk in the office of Casey Young, a Tennessee Representative, and the latter Young's nephew and private secretary, had a duel this morning near Bladensburg. Shots were exchanged when Mr. Young appeared and put an end to further hostilities. It was then stated the pistols were fixed with blank cartridges.

The State Department says Germany is disposed to regard favorably the proposals of this government for further joint consideration of the bi-metallic subject, and hopes the present efforts will result in a bi-metallic congress in which all the leading States of Europe will participate.

The United States Consul at Manchester, England, says the failure of crops is much more serious than is generally supposed abroad. The demand in England for meats and grain from the United States will be enormous. Business is greatly depressed.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 13.—Wool unchanged, medium grades in demand and command full prices, considerable inquiry for fine fleeces, fair business doing. California spring, 20 @ 30; super I. R. and X pulled, in fair demand, 35 @ 45.

Capsized.

It is reported here to-night that the yacht Startle, which had been hired by a party from Haverhill, Massachusetts, capsized off Minot's Ledge, in the harbor, this afternoon, and several were drowned.

Gone Down.

The cargo of the steamer Semiramide, sunken by collision, was comprised of 46,358 bushels of corn and 40 cases of domestic cottons.

Mrs. Sprague's Story.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 13.—An extract from a private letter from Mrs. William Sprague to a friend, given for publication, makes reference to the now notorious outbreak at the mansion, near Narragansett Pier she says: "Sprague's causeless persecution of the children's teacher is literally true as he tells the story. The attempt to complicate Conkling with this matter is absurd. The guests of the house were removed under Gov. Sprague's threats of murder to be done Mrs. Sprague explains the case against the trustee of the bankrupt estate, in which Sprague had sought legal counsel of Conkling, and says as her means of living at Canonchet had been cut off, she requested Conkling, who had already been consulted by Sprague, to see him and try to ascertain what results were likely to follow the proposed case that would benefit or provide for the children. Conkling had stopped at Canonchet for this purpose, and was awaiting Sprague's return when the outbreak occurred. If any hostile words were exchanged between Conkling and Sprague at Canonchet, they alone know what they were, for no one else heard them. What transpired in the village I do not know."

Mrs. Sprague refers in severe terms to her husband's life and habits, which long ago interrupted their marital relations and blighted their domestic life.

Arrested.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, 13.—Two men named Ben Marks and Dan McGinnis, were arrested in this city to-day on the charge of robbing the Merchants' and Mechanics' Bank, Galesburg, Ill. The robbery was committed on the 3rd of July last, and over $9,000 was taken, and until recently McGinnis has been news agent on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, and Marks has been known here as a professional gambler.

Arrested for Murder.

BALTIMORE, 13.—Felix Moonshower, of Emmettsberg, has been arrested for the murder and robbery of James Mentzill, with whom he went out gunning a few days ago.

He Will Attend.

INDIANAPOLIS, 13.—Secretary Thompson telegraphs that President Hayes will visit this city during the State fair week in October.

An Editor Named Donan.

LITTLE ROCK, 13.—Pat Donan has become editor of the Hot Springs Sentinel. He was editor of the Caucasian during the war, and although then an outspoken rebel, will be remembered as the man who, recently after a trip through the North, wrote a long letter to the press comparing the North and South to the great disparagement of the latter.

YELLOW FEVER NOTES.

MEMPHIS, 13.—Twenty-three new cases in all were reported to the board of health to-day, seven whites and 16 colored. Two additional deaths have occurred, Nettie Forbes and Carrie Doyle, the last named colored.

All the prominent sick were reported doing well to-night.

J. D. Plunkill, president of the State board of health, telegraphs from Nashville that the resignation of Hon. John Johnson, tendered this morning, was not accepted by the board.

The thermometer to-day has ranged from 68 to 83.

Baltimore, 13.—The Spanish steamer Enrique, has arrived from Havana with one case of yellow fever.

Mobile, 13.—Quarantine restrictions against New Orleans will be removed after Friday.

WESTERN.

"Lucky" Baldwin.

SAN FRANCISCO, 13.—E. J. Baldwin, whose distillery at Santa Anita Ranch, Los Angelos county, was seized and himself arrested for violation of the revenue laws, waived examination to-day, and was held to answer in the sum of $3,000. In examining witnesses in the case to fix the amount of bail, Baldwin's agents testified it had been a regular custom to refill the stamped packages for retail business, and that Baldwin said he was paying the Government well enough, and it stood him in hand to get the best of them when he could.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

European News.

LONDON, 13.—There is now in Thessaly, Epirus and Macedonia, 90,000 Turkish troops, exclusive of artillery and cavalry. These together with the forces at Adrianople and Constantinople, make an army of 160,000 men in European Turkey, more than would require to deal with Greece in the event of war, but the probable consequences of a rupture are not to be estimated by the number of troops. Information from Macedonia shows a Bulgarian rising may be easily procured there which would of course be a dangerous movement in Eastern Roumelia and Bulgaria.

There is extreme difficulty in finding a successor to Count Andrassy. Upon the choice of his successor will depend whether the Hungarians will continue their loyal devotion to the dynasty. Russia is the only power likely to be satisfied with the change.

All Russian war vessels have left Suliva.

In consequence of recent disturbances in Samos, the Prince has consented to a dissolution of the Senate, which is accused of malversation of public funds. A conflict with the people is thus averted.

Russia has formed an alliance with Persia.

It is expected the Spanish Cortes will reassemble about the end of October, when the projected marriage of King Alfonso with the Archduchess Marie, of Austria, will be discussed. After adjournment for the wedding, the proposed reforms in Cuba will be discussed.

CANADA.

Obstinate R. R. Hands.

QUEBEC, 13.—The transfer to the government of the Grand Trunk Railway between Point Levis and the River Du Loup, is completed, and the government was to commence running trains this morning. It appears, however, that the government has not engaged any train hands employed by the Grand Trunk Railway Co. These men, some 150, have refused to allow any trains to run until they are reinstated, claiming when the arrangement was made with the government, Hickson stipulated all the employees should be retained, but the government evidently has no such understanding. Quebec has been asked for a police force.

"The Wust Boy."

All the old women for blocks up and down Sixth Street called him "the wust boy," and Jim did much to win the title and keep it. He fought everything and everybody, harassed cats and abused dogs, and various attempts have been made during the last year to get him settled in the Reform School. "The wust boy" has made a new departure, and though it may not be lasting, as it is for the better, it will probably furnish opportunity for some other boy to step in and claim the unenviable title.

"The wust boy" cared nothing for the sight of crape on the knob and a funeral procession was as good as a parade to him. Surprise was therefore manifest on every countenance when he softly knocked at the door the other week and said:

"I hain't got no good clothes to go to the funeral, but I'd like to see the old lady's face agin afore she's covered up in the ground."

A motherly old lady in his neighborhood had passed away. So far as the public knew he hated her, as he seemed to hate all the rest, but the public didn't know. If Jim had condescended to explain he would have said:

"Well, yer see, one night when that big Tom Snip laid fur me and had me as good as mashed, this 'ere woman rushed out and pulled him off and slapped him agin the fence till his elbows echoed. Then agin she let me play with the children, and axed me in to dinner, and more'n once she's took up fur me and said the neighbors didn't give me a fair show."

They let him in to see her dead face, half expecting to see some ghastly trick on his part and never dreaming that he would lean over and kiss the cold cheek, and that tears would come to his eyes.

"Where's the children?" he asked as he turned from the coffin.

"Up stairs, poor things."

"It's going to be tuff on 'em, isn't it?"

"Yes; they will see hard times, poor darlings."

"There's a little bit of a fellow 'mong 'em what's named after me," continued "the wust boy;" "what'll it cost a week to pay his way?"

The women smiled at the idea, but seeing how earnest Jim was, one of the women replied:

"Oh, about fifty cents, I guess."

The boy went out without a word, and in the course of half an hour another lad handed in a piece of wrapping paper in which was enclosed a silver quarter. On the paper was scrawled the words (the work of three or four boys):

"I hoap she's gon to hevvin, 'an I'll talk car' of little peter at fifty cents a weak. Hear's the fust installment. GIM."

The next day he sent in the balance, and last week the "installment" was promptly forthcoming. Jim has a boot-black's kit and has gone to work, and the old women who called him "the wust boy," now look look after him and exclaim:

"Well, now, but who'd a-thought that boy had a soul in him!"—Detroit Press.

DOCTOR'S ERROR.—A popular doctor in Boston, while escorting a lady home the other evening, volunteered to relieve her cough and sore throat by giving her a troche. He told her to allow it to dissolve gradually in her mouth. No relief was experienced, and the doctor felt quite chagrined the next day when the lady sent him a trouser button, with a note saying that he must have given her the the wrong kind of troche, and he might need this one.
