McPherson introduced a bill to suspend the coinage of silver dollars. It provides that on and after the passage of the act, the coinage of silver dollars shall be suspended; that the Secretary of the Treasury be directed not to reissue any U. S. notes of a denomination less than $5; to destroy all U. S. notes of less denominations than $5, and to cease engraving or printing all such notes. It authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, upon the deposit of silver bullion in such sub-treasury as he shall designate, to issue to the depositor thereof silver certificates having upon their face the weight and market value of the metal so deposited, calculated in U. S. gold dollars at the rate of twenty-five and eightenths grains to the dollar. The Secretary is also authorized and required on the presentation of any silver certificates issued under the provisions of the act to legal holders thereof, to redeem the same by delivering to the depositors silver bullion of the weight and fineness certificates.

The following bills were introduced in the Senate to-day and referred.

By Wilsen-Providing that railway postal clerks shall hereafter be appointed for a probationary term of from three to nine months, and if the record of service and conduct made in that time is satisfactory, their permanent appointment shall be made subject to removal for cause.

By Dolph-Making Portland, Oregon, and Port Townsend, Washington Territory, ports to which the act in relation to the immediate transportation of dutlable goods applies.

By Miller, of New York-Authorizing the President to piace Brevet Major-feneral Wm. W. Avrill on the retired list of the army with the rank and pay of colonel

Also, a bill providing that the words "Confederate Cruisers," in the act reestablishing the court of commissioners of Alabama claims, shall be construed and held to include, for all the sels, officers and crews of vessels, or organized expeditions acting as such by authority of the late so-called Conlederate government, or any of its of-icers, by which the vessels or largoes of loyal citizens of the United States were captured or destroyed on the high seas; and that the act be construed to include any waters within the admirality jurisdiction of the United States. It further provides that any case already heard involving the question of "Confederate cruisers" shall be reopened and reheard upon due notice.

On motion of Cobb, the Senate amendments to the House bill forfeit-ing the unearned land grant of the At-lantic and Pacific Railway Company, lantic and Pacific Railway Company, were non-concurred in.

On motion of Randall, the House went into committee of the whole (Cox of New York in the chair) on the bill making temporary provision for the naval service. No amendment was offered to the bill and no discussion had, Randall merely making a brief statement that the total appropriation for support of the navy for the current fiscal year was $16,636,166, a reduction of $258,268 from the appropriation of the previous year. the previous year.

The committee rose, the bill pass and it e House resumed consideration the inter-State commerce bill.

Seymour, a member of the committee on commerce, supported the bill of the committee. He said Reagan's substitute was so strict as to interfere with the laws of trade.

Long, another member of the committee, next addressed the House, affirming that legislation on the subject of inter-State transportation was desirable and demanded; but the destinable and demanded; but the destinable and demanded; but the destinable and demanded or a subject at which an impassioned orator could fire his gun with louder report for a small load of powder than the railroad system. J. M. Miller was chosen messenger to Washington.

Austin, Texas, 3.—The Democratic Presidential electors met in the State capital to-day, and cast their thirteen votes for Cleveland and Hendricks. A spirited contest was had for the office of messenger: to Washington. W. S. Robsen, of Fayette was chosen after twenty-five ballots. Eight candidates sought the honor of messenger. The electors sent a telegram to President-elect Cleveland, congratulating him on his 128,000 majority in Texas.

Sacramento, 3.—California's eight electors to-day cast their ballots for Blaine and Logan. Hon. Henry Edgerton was chosen as messenger to Washington.

A Triple Tragedy in Georgia. Macon, Ga., 3.—A horrible tragedy occurred last night at Camilla. Before daylight, unknown parties entered the house of Stephen Godwin and killed him while in bed. They also killed Mrs. Malinda Gregory and son in their heds. Money was not taken. Godwin's horse and buggy and shotgun are missing.

Galveston, 3.—A News Nechesville special says: A tragedy occurred here last evening, resulting in the death of L. V. Simpson and Dr. Calhoun Lawrence. Both were well known citizens. The difficulty grew out of the settlement of a small debt. Simpson fired first, mortally wounding Lawrence in the abdomen. Lawrence fired three shots, each taking effect, the last one penetrating Simpson's heart. Lawrence expired some hours after the shooting.

New York, 3.—Trial of the suit brought in the Kings County Supreme Court by Mrs. Phones Scovil, wife of the absconding stenographer or "confidential" clerk of Lord, Day & Co., to have the deeds of her real estate to the Mercantile Trust Company set aside, on the ground that she signed the reon the ground that she signed the pa-pers under duress, was resumed to-

Mrs. Scovil testified that the officers of the Trust Company came to Black Rock, Conn., on the 27th of July, 1884, where she and her husband were, and brought them to a hotel in this city; that they forced her husband and herself to sign the deeds, and that they furnished her husband with money to leave the country, and told him detectives were looking for him.

Turbulent Mob of Orangemen. St. Johns, N. F., S.—The attack of Orangemen upon the Redemptionist Fathers continued three days—Wednesday, Friday and Saturday last. They were brutally driven out of Conception Bay, amid hootings, stone petting and violence. Great indignation exists among the Roman Catholics. Protection of the United States government for its citizens has been invoked.

Mexico, via Galveston, 4.—President Diaz has raised sufficient funds for the temporary needs of the treasury and to pay the government! employes in full. He has also made arrangements with the National Bank to reduce the custom house subsidy now being paid the bank from 60 to 15 per cent. This will leave the greater part of the customs revenue at the disposal of the government. American railway substidles, amounting to 14 per cent. of the customs, will be maintained. The American debt of $300,000, coming due this month, will be met. President Diaz has such assurance from the bank.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS. A Berlin dispates says England has opened negotiations with the African Association with the view of obtaining formal recognition.

Advices from the Gold Coast of Africa state that trade riots had taken place at Winachan, twelve men being killed and a number wounded. The rioters were finally arrested.

A Hamburg firm has started a trading company with a capital of $500,000, to operate in a district in Africa, between the River Benone and the coast. The explorar Flegel will act as pioneer for the company.

The Vereins Bank of Bremen has suspended. The former manager committed suicide in prison and the present manager is under arrest. The suspension was caused by the stoppage of business of the firm of Brunings of Bremen, who were large shareholders in the bank.

The remains of the woman found under a pile of ashes in the cellar of the Carleton House, William Street, New York, Tuesday, are believed to be those of Johanna Smith, aged 20, missing since June 27th, 1883. Her brother says he is positive, from the clothing, that the remains are those of his sister.

Key West, 3.—The Florida News says of the tobacco clause in the Spanish treaty: If the treaty is ratified by the Senate, with this clause. Key West is a doomed city. It would chose up every cigar factory, force about 7,000 of our citizens out of employment, and entail a loss of about $3,000,000 in property.

St. Petersburg, 3.—Seventeen An-archists, one of whom is a woman, have been arrested here. Documents of a revolutionary and criminal character were found in their posses-

Boston, 3.—James P. Frost, city editor, and Daniel J. Saunders, local reporter, refused to divulge to the grand jury the source of the information contained in an article relating to certain recent developments in connection with the Lane murder which occurred in Donchester 12 years ago. The grand jury asked for their commitment for contempt and the judge has the matter under advisement.

ten per cent. In wages, to take effect next Monday, have decided to accept without opposition.

The laborers at the Crescent Steel Works, who were reduced from $1.25 to $1 per day, have also accepted.

Washington, a.—In the Swaim court martial the books of Bateman and Co. were produced, and the cross-examination of J. Stanley Brown was proceeded with. He explained at length various transactions in the stocks account of General Swaim, and the further testimony of witness was post-poned intil to-morrow. Adjourned.

San Francisco, 3.—It is reported that the C. P. R. S. Company has discharged 1,100 men within the last three months, and that 400 more have been discharged at Sacramento in the last three days. General Manager Towne was interviewed by an Associated Press reporter and stated that a majority of them were those who had been employed in repairs and construction, and their services were no longer necessary.

Albany, 3.—Cleveland will attend a charitable entertainment at the Academy of Music in New York to morrow for the benefit of the fund. He will go by the Hudson River road by special train, leaving here in the forenoon, and will be accompanied by his sister Miss Cleveland; his private Secretary and wife; Erastus Corning and wife; Mayor Banks and wife, and Samuel Cassidy, of the Governor's Staff.

New York, 3.—Following is the sali-ent portion of Judge Wallace's decis-ion in the suit of the American Bell Telephone Co. against Daniel Draw-baugh, who claims to have been the original inventor: "Concededly Bell was the original inventor of the tele-phone system, which, with the essen-tial means for its application, is de-scribed in its first patent, and the im-proved apparatus described in its second patent.
