CARBOLIC ACID TAKEN IN MISTAKE

John N. Staker of Wilson Lane Meets With a Horrible Death.

CRIMINALS IN DISTRICT COURT.

Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. A. Conference Tomorrow—Funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth S. Read—Wedding.

John N. Staker of Wilson Lane, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon by drinking by mistake some carbolic acid. He thought the bottle contained some medicine and putting it to his mouth he took a swallow, but discovered his mistake before he had taken much of the drug. Antidotes were administered which relieved him and Dr. G. W. Baker of this city was telephoned for. The physician responded but had to drive several miles to the young man's home. The stomach pump was used and strong antidotes so that it is thought he will be all right again in a few days. The drug burned his mouth and stomach quite badly.

LATEL.
Dr. Baker was called out to Mr. Staker's home about 7 o'clock last evening, and again administered an antidote, and from all indications the patient was getting along nicely; but at 9 o'clock he took a sudden turn for the worse and had a craving for water. He arose to get a drink when he was seized with a pain and fell to the floor, dying in a few moments. His sudden death has caused a gloom over the entire community.

Mr. Staker was about 32 years of age. He leaves a wife and two small children to mourn his tragic end. The funeral arrangements had not been completed as this report closes.

SHEPPMEN AT OUTS.

Harry G. Green Charged With Pulling Gun on Mexican for Cause.

Special Correspondence.

Monticello, San Juan Co., May 11.—Harry G. Green, of the firm of Goodman & Green, shepherds of Moab, is having a preliminary hearing here today. He is charged with drawing a gun on Manuel Jaramillo, a Mexican shepherd in the employ of Carlisle & Gordon. The trouble arose about a week ago, when the Mexican brought his sheep to a spring belonging to Green and made his camp. Green asked him to move, which the Mexican in emphatic terms refused to do. Green produced a six-shooter and again insisted that the gentleman from Mexico should remove.

After considering the matter Mr. Jaramillo decided to leave without further trouble. Later his employer swore out a warrant for Green's arrest.

Green is one of the most extensive sheep growers of San Juan county, and is mayor of Moab, Grand county.

IDAHO.

Weekly Crop Bulletin and Weather Report.

United States department of agriculture, Idaho section, climate and crop service, weather bureau, weekly crop bulletin, for week ending May 14, 1904.

Boise, Idaho, May 14.—During the greater part of the week cool weather prevailed, with much clouding, and with varying in severity in different localities. The frost of the week was most severe, especially in southwest valleys. A greater portion of the state only light showers of rain occurred, and in southwestern counties irrigation was in progress. In Bear Lake, Owyhee and portions of Blaine county, heavy rain fell, retarding farming operations. Toward the close of the week the weather became warmer.

CROPS.

Fruit.—The frost of the 5th caused material damage to fruit in localities, having been most severe in the Boise valley, where strawberries, apricots, peaches, cherries and plums appear to have been killed considerably. Fruit trees are blooming, but are somewhat retarded by cool weather. Spring seedling is progressing rapidly; some corn was planted during the week.

Grass.—Hay crops made very satisfactory growth during the week, and promising excellent yields. The cutting of range grass is abundant except in sections where the range has been overgrazed.

Vegetables and Melons.—Considerable damage to tender vegetables resulted from the frost of the 5th. The week's planting of sugar beets continues; some early planted beets are coming up, but not rapidly. Melon planting is in progress.

Range.—Range sheep is gaining in flesh. Shearing of sheep is about completed in southwestern sections; a good clip was realized; the percentage of lambs is good.

WELLSVILLE.

BP. MAUGHAN'S BIRTHDAY.

Seventeenth Anniversary Appropriately Observed—Close of Schools.

Special Correspondence.

Wellsville, Cache Co., May 12.—On Saturday last the 70th birthday of Bishop Wm. H. Maughan of Wellsville, the "Grand Old Man" of our little burg, and one of the most esteemed citizens of the county, was celebrated. His life history from the period of early manhood is closely related with the settlement and development of Cache valley and to detail the main events of his career is to write a history of Cache valley itself. During his long life he has seen the growth of the valley from a remote and desolate spot to the present day, and his memory of his impressions of the growth of the valley is a valuable contribution to the history of the region.

From far and near the relatives of the Bishop came, to attend the celebration of his seventeenth natal day anniversary. The event was held in the local meetinghouse, where a special service was held, on which were several addresses, and a number of prayers were offered. A large number of guests were present, and the celebration was a most successful one.

Men in Utah's history have served a more busy life, mostly in the service of his fellowmen, than has William H. Maughan. Few, indeed, are there who have lived a greater life for good upon those amongst whom their lives have been cast, than he. During his long period of 40 years of service in the territory of this ward, he has won the respect of his people, and now they dispute with his family for a place in his regard. He is the proud progenitor of a large and noble posterity.

At the close of the celebration, an archal note of 207, from the pen of the years of accountability, his faithful Latter-day Saint—a record which justly gladdens the Bishop's heart.

All of his numerous friends who read this will join in the wish he expressed during the course of his remarks that his life may yet be spared for many years, for the use of his life has not yet been completely consummated.

After the infant child of Mr. Fred Darley, died suddenly on Tuesday afternoon, the funeral was held on Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

A large attendance is promised from the college, and a close and exciting game is anticipated.
