DYSPEPSIA

Up to a few weeks ago I considered myself the champion Dyspeptic of America. During the years that I have been afflicted I have tried almost everything claimed to be a specific for Dyspepsia in the hope of finding something that would afford permanent relief. I had about made up my mind to abandon all medicines when I noticed an endorsement of Simmons Liver Regulator by a prominent Georgian, a jurist whom I knew, and concluded to try its effects in my case. I have used but two bottles, and am satisfied that I have struck the right thing at last. I felt its beneficial effects almost immediately. Unlike all other preparations of a similar kind, no special instructions are required as to what one shall or shall not eat. This fact alone ought to commend it to all troubled with Dyspepsia.

CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET,
Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.

By carefully examining DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earth; and that it consists exclusively of Cream of Tartar and Bi-carbonate of Soda.

The Baking Powder examined I purchased at Barnes & Davis, in this city.

A SURE CURE FOR THE PILES—You need not suffer from this most distressing disease again in all your life. Emall's Balm acts as a poultice and lubricator, absorbs the tumors and allays the intense itching at once. No caustic, no acid, no pain. A. McGibbons Esq., 10 Poplar street, Allegheny, Pa., writes: "I had itching and bleeding piles so bad I could not sit, stand or walk without intense suffering. I doctored with many physicians, and tried all the (so called) cures that I ever heard of, in vain (paying out hundreds of dollars), until I used Emall's Magic Balm, or Ointment. After the first application I enjoyed the best night's sleep I had for ten years, and two boxes have cured me completely." ☞ Wherever introduced Dr. Emall's Balm takes the lead, and has the largest sale of any Pile remedy in the world. EVENING NEWS.

LITTLE BARRELS OF WINE.

PECULIAR GIFTS IN SOME OF THE RITES OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Archbishop Corrigan has in his possession four small barrels. Two of them were given to the late cardinal by Bishop O'Farrell of Trenton when he was made a bishop, and the other two came from Bishop McNierney of Albany on a like occasion. The latter two are made of glass with appropriate inscriptions, and have hoops of silver. The others are also handsome, and bear the date of the presentation. All when presented were filled with wine.

It has for centuries been the custom upon the installation of a bishop in the Roman Catholic church for him to present two barrels of wine to the officiating prelate. When the custom began it was a substantial offering, for then the barrels were of goodly size and filled with choice vintage; but, as the social conditions became changed and barrels of wine were no longer considered gifts appropriate to the occasion, the barrels were made mere ornaments, and the original reason for the custom was forgotten by all except the students, who were curious enough to investigate.

The church has many customs associated with its ceremonies which are retained merely out of respect for their founders and not because of their own sanctity. As the bishop gives two barrels of wine, so the priest gives a wax candle to the prelate officiating at his ordination. At the recent canonization of the new saints in Rome many of these customs were made prominent in the ceremonies. After the pope's speech the cardinals presented him with these gifts in the names of the new saints: A thick wax candle, two loaves of bread, one covered with silver and one with gilt; three cages, one containing doves, one pigeons and the third canaries and greenfinches; and two small barrels of wine.

Father Kelly, one of the cathedral priests, said that the birds were used in a peculiar manner. "At the offertories of mass," he said, "the master of ceremonies cuts the strings which keep the doors of the cages closed, and the birds fly out. In this part of the ceremony the birds are supposed to represent the souls of the saints which have left their bodies and have taken their flight to heaven."

Father Lavelle said that some of the other customs had probably originated in the early history of the church. Much of the income of the church then came in the shape of products of the soil, for nearly everybody was then engaged in agricultural pursuits or derived his income from the efforts of those so engaged. The presents given to the officiating prelate were, therefore, such as the donor would himself receive and appreciate. The custom of giving loaves of bread originated, he thought, from the custom of the faithful in those early days of bringing all the products of the soil to the priest to be blessed.

When a number of Catholics conclude that a departed member of the church has been sufficiently good to entitle him to the honor of ranking with the saints, they petition the holy see to cannonize him. Sometimes the petitioners are relatives of the departed. Whoever they are, from them, of course, come the gifts that are presented to the pope.—New York Sun.

Literary Notes.

"Ouida," has the place of honor in The Woman's World for April, and writes feelingly "Apropos of a Dinner." "Lace making in Ireland" is the subject of the paper which follows "Ouida's" eloquent outburst. Then we are introduced to "Swiss Goblins," and after the Goblins we plunge into the practical subject of "Culture vs. Cookery." To a great many readers the most attractive paper of the number will be that on the "First Nights at the Paris Theatres." A frontispiece shows the foyer of the Theatre Francaise on a first night. Winchester is described as "A City of Memories." "The True Story of Clement Ker" is continued; Lady Lindsay contributes a short story; there is some poetry and then comes the "Literary and Other Notes," by the editor, Mr. Oscar Wilde.—Cassel & Co., New York, 35 cents a number, $3 50 a year, in advance.

The leading article in the North American Review for April is a singularly interesting account of the life of "the Hohenzollern Kaiser," written by the Hon. John A. Kasson. The noteworthy series of articles on different forms of religion is continued, the contribution published in the present number bearing the title "Why am I a Moslem?" The author, Ion Abbas, is familiar with the learning of the west, and has traveled much, studying men and religious systems in many lands, but he is still a Moslem, recognizing in Islam "one of the many avenues through which the Creator of the universe leads his people to the Temple of Truth." Lieut. Frederick Schwatka presents very clearly and very fully the principles of International Law concerned in "The Fur Seal Fishery Dispute." In an article on "The Burning of Columbia," Capt. A. E. Wood, Fourth Cavalry, cites facts coming under his own cognizance which prove that the fire was in progress before the Union troops had crossed the Congaree to enter the town. An account of the surprising development of Electrical Science in our time is given by Mr. Thomas Commerford Martin, under the title "Gilbert's Fables"—the parase in which Lord Bacon expressed his contempt for the fruitful investigations made into the phenomena of Magnetism and Electricity by one of his contemporaries, Dr. Gilbert. To the series of articles on "Possible Presidents," is added one on General Sherman, written by an ardent admirer of that great soldier.

Rossiter Johnson writes of "A Perilous Balance"—the balance of parties; and Duffield Osborne offers a half-serious, half-playful "Defence of Pugilism." Finally, there is a Symposium of eighteen contributors on "The President's Panacea." The views of leading representatives of various industries here shew how their several interests are likely to be affected by a change of the tariff laws. The department of "Notes and Comments" and "Literary Notices" are notably full and interesting.

Puck: "May I ask you a question, Miss Dora?" he demanded, with a deep meaning in his voice.

"You may, Clarence," she replied, wearily. "But if it is the same one you asked Lulu Caldene last week it may interest you to know that Lulu and I are both in the matrimonial trust this year, and the combination is holding together so far."

"DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED."

The young man fell dead!

A friend had pointed a revolver at him.

"He didn't know it was loaded!"

We often hear it stated that a man is not responsible for what he does not know. The law presupposes knowledge and therefore convicts a man who excuses crime by ignorance!

"If I had only known," has often been an unfortunate man's apology for some evil unknowingly wrought, but in a matter of general interest as for instance that laudanum is a poison, that naptha is a deadly explosive, that blood heavily charged with a winter's accumulations of the waste of the system,—it is one's duty to know the fact and the consequences thereof. Our good old grandmothers knew for instance, that the opening of spring was the most perilous period of the year.

Why?

Because then the blood stream is sluggish and chilled by the cold weather, and if not thinned a good deal and made to flow quickly and healthfully through the arteries and veins, it is impossible to have good vigor the rest of the year. Hence, without exception, what is known as Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla, was plentifully made and religiously given to every member of the family regularly through March, April, May and June. It is a matter of record that this prudential, preventive and restorative custom saved many a fit of sickness, prolonged life and happiness to a vigorous old age, and did away with heavy medical expenditures.

Mrs. Maggie Kerchwal, Lexington, Ky., used Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla "for nervous sick headache of which I had been a sufferer for years. It has been a great benefit to me." Capt. Hugh Harkins, 1114 S. 15th St., Philadelphia, Pa., says "it purified my blood and removed the blotches from my skin." Mrs. Anrea Smith, Topton, Berks Co., Pa., says she "was entirely cured of a skin disease of the worst kind," by Log Cabin Sarsaparilla. Bad skin indicates a very bad condition of the blood.

If you would live and be well, go to your druggist today and get Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla and take no other—there's nothing like it or as good—and completely renovate your impaired system, old-fashioned preparations of roots and herbs.

Warner, who makes the famous Safe Cure, puts it up, and that is a guarantee of excellence all over the known world. Take it yourself and give it to the other members of the family, including the children. You will be astonished at its health-giving and life-prolonging powers.—[ADVT.

SURGICAL OPERATION.

Removal of Stone from the Bladder by the Knife.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saugerties (formerly of Kingston), N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physicians for what they called Stricture of the Uretha. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., (proprietor of the medicine now being introduced in this city, called "Favorite Remedy,"—Editor) who found his trouble to be URINARY CALCULI, or Stones in the bladder. The Doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife, and then gave his great Blood-Purifier, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect. Had this and similar cases used Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" in the early stages of the complaint the formation of stone would have been prevented, and thus avoided so dangerous an operation. While Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all Kidney and Bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of Bilious Disorders, Constipation of the Bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseparable from the constitutions of women.

To Avoid Mistakes, the public are requested not to forget the following points: 1st. Name is Favorite Remedy. 2d. It is made at Rondout, N. Y. 3d. Costs only $1, 6 for $5. 4th. The proprietor, Dr. David Kennedy, has no other address than Rondout, N. Y.

How a Dying Child Was Saved!

CICERO, HAMILTON CO., IND., Sept. 15, 1887.—The following is a true account of what your S. S. S. has done for our little daughter, Hazel, now four years old. When 12 months old a lump appeared on her heel, which slowly grew larger. The family physician thought it was caused by a piece of broken glass or needle, but failed to bring anything to light. The child became feebler all the time, seeming to lose the use of her leg, and finally quit walking entirely. The middle finger and thumb of either hand became enlarged, the flesh becoming hard. The hip joints became involved, so that when seven moons old she could not stand, having lost the use of leg and arm. Partial curvature of the spine also followed. The nervous system was wrecked, muscles contracted, and there was general wasting of flesh and muscle. At eighteen months of age she was placed under the treatment of a prominent physician of Boston, Mass., but at the end of ten months she had declined to such a degree that she was in a dying condition. This was in April, 1886. We took the child away not knowing what to do. In this dreadful dilemma we were over-persuaded by friends to try "one bottle" of Swift's Specific, which we did, and before it had all been taken we saw a chance for the better in her symptoms. We kept it up, and have done so to this day, and will keep it up, if the Lord will, for many days to come, for it has brought our dying Hazel to life, to vigor, to strength and health again. The ashen hue of her cheeks has changed to a rosy tint. She is able to walk anywhere, her languor and melancholy have passed away, and she is now a blithe, cheerful, happy romping child. Should you wish to increase your testimonials of proof of the virtue of S. S. S., our names and what we have said is but a portion of what we owe to you, should you wish to use them.

Kindly yours,
