as a journeyman in several offices for nearly two years, when he entered into partnership in the printing business with Mr. Francis Story. Giveley & Story printed Dr. Shepherd's Morning Post, reputedly the first penny paper published in the world, which, how-ever, had a brief existence of less than three weeks. Within six months the firm of Greeley & Story came to an end by the death of the latter gentieman, but with the addition of Mesars. Jonas Winchester and E. Sibbett the business was continued under the title of Gree- ly rid of the dia and turmoil of a memley & Co. In 1834 this firm commenced orable and an unhappy past.
