

The week opened socially with the banquet given by the Sons of the Amerloan Revolution at the Commercial club, the decorations being elaborately carried out in the red, white and blue, with flags, American Beauty roses and carnations, while the colonial colors were prettily suggested in the buff blue. A program of toasts were given and 35 rere present to enjoy the feast.

Col. and Mrs. B. C. Lockwood entertained informally at a dinner on Tuesday, the decorations being in snowballs and lilacs and covers laid for them. The most second covers and covers and covers are covers. about 25 guests.

Miss Esther Allen was hostess at an informal tea at her home on Tuesday, the decorations being in purple iris and bridalwreath, and about a dozen present.

Mrs. Percival O. Perkins was hostess at a card and shower party on Wednesday in honor of Miss Beatrico O'Connor, the recens being beautifully decorated with bridal emblems in the way of festoons of hearts, bowls of bridal wreath and refreshments in heart designs. Snowballs and sweet alyssum were effectively used with these, and in the diningroom were pansles and illies of the valley, the table having a centerpiece of the dainty flowers. The prizes in the card contest went to Mrs. Biggar and Mrs. Belcher, and a guest prize to Miss O'Connor, Assisting were Miss O'Connor and Miss Alice McDonald and present were Mrs. A. C. Behl, Mrs. John Weir, Mrs. Gertrude Welch, Mrs. Henry Monheim, Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert, Mrs. Harry Godwin, Mrs. Belcher of Focatello, Mrs. Alfred Pierson, Mrs. W. O. Clelland, Mrs. Joseph Biggar, Mrs. Graham F. Putnam, Mrs. George T. Badger, Mrs. John C. Daly, Mrs. Theodore Meyer, Mrs. H. W. Davis, Miss Elsje Dickert, Miss Dalsy Raybould, Miss Mary Olive Grav, Miss Eva Richardson, Miss June Kimball, the Misses Riley, the Misses Elizabeth and Ethel McDonald, Miss Edna Balley, Miss Ina Rudy. Miss Ina Rudy.

Miss McCornick entertained informally at luncheon on Wednesday at the Country club in honor of Miss Maud Fitch.

Mrs. Arthur H. Bird entertained at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. J. B. Risque, who has recently come to Salt Lake to reside, the decorations being in spring blossoms and covers laid for 12 guests.

On Tuesday Mrs. Hugh Thomas was guest of honor at a bridge tea, her host-oss being Mrs. Schuyler C. Snyder. The rooms were decorated throughout with marguerites and the scores and tailies had the same designs. Prizes in the contest went to Mrs. B. F. Bauer. Miss Biggs and Mrs. Eugene Barnes. The hostess was assisted by Miss Elsie McMillan and Miss Vera Edwards.

Mrs. Elmer Jones entertained her lit-rary club on Wednesday in honor of er nicce, Miss Leda Pinkham of Kan-

Mrs. Fisher Harris gave an afternoon affair on Wednesday for Miss Georgia Savage, one of the prospective June

At Rowland hall on Tuesday a large tea was given by the ladies of St. Mark's guild, the decorations being

CONTRIBUTES TO BEAUTY, COMFORT AND HEALTH.

These are the original front lace Corsels-the only ones that correctly fit the figure and impart perfect grace to your gown. There are many points of supertority over the back lace corsets. The Gossard Coracts give Support where support is needed, We invite your inspection,

THE CHARLTON SHOP

Outfitters for Women.

Importers, Manufacturers, Re-

tallers. 122 Main St., Salt Lake. profuse and attractive and the affair in every way delightful.

Mrs. A. E. Klimball entertained the Sans Souci club this week.

This afternoon Mrs. John C. Cutler gives a matinee party followed by a dinner at the Alta club, the party dinner at the including 12 guests.

Wallace Bredemeyer entertained at dinner at the Wilson on Monday night his guests being the male mem-bers of the Richards-Parker wedding party of this week.

Mrs. Rudolph Konold entertained the ladies of the lift church at her home this week, the affair being a most enjoyable one throughout.

W. F. James will tertain her bridge club next Monday Mrs. D. C. Jackling entertained her bridge club on Monday. On Tuesday night Miss Bessie Hall

The engagement of Miss Pauline isher and W. A. Bringhurst is anounced, the wedding to take place in the near future.

corners, while flowers were all about the room. An orchestra furnished delightful music, and assisting the hostess during the arternoon were Mrs. H. J. Hayward, Mrs. S. M. Barlow, Mrs. W. B. Stanley, Mrs. J. C. Lynch Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Miss Norrine Thompson, Miss Marjorie Jacobs, Miss Jean Hayward and Miss Isabel Johnson.

The Henty Literary society held its second visitor's meeting, a the club's rooms, Twelfth East street, at 8 p. m., Thursday evening. After items of business had been attended to, a choice program was rendered, the following persons taking part, H. Chas, Miller, A. Thomas Davis, C. Stewart Gardiner and T. George Wood, Dainty refreshments were afterwards served. The visitors present were the Misses Ethel Griggs, Vera Badger, Agnes Busath, Mamie Price, Birdie Snowball, Lulu Burnham, Zella Gallacher, Annie Williams and Priscilla Davis.

An elaborate church wedding of the week was that which celebrated the wedding of Miss Della J. Richards and Lieut, S. M. Parker of Ft. Douglas on Wednesday, the event taking place at St. Mark's cathedral which was handsomely decorated with flags, palms and flowers. The bridal party consisted of four ushers, Lieuts. Mason, Kelleher, Robinson and Sickles, the bridesmaid Miss Merce Berkley, and the best man, Dr. Will L. Keller, and was hostess at a china shower party | bridesmaid Miss Merce Berkley, and in honor of Miss Edna Carter whose | the best man, Dr. Will L. Keller, and

HENRIETTA COSTUME, CREPE TRIMMED

For the period of first mourning this is an excellent model. The skirt is a round, sweeping length, cut circular, and finished with broad bands and folds of crepe. The bodice is of the benrietta, and there is a close-fitting Eton with wide cut armholes, all of the crepe. The hat and long veil are also of crepe.

lane on Monday.

Mrs. E. A. Greenwood was hostess at a luncheon on Monday in honor of her mother and sister who were here from Portland, Or., for a short stay. The tole was decorated in white and green and covers laid for white and gabout a dozen.

Yesterday Mrs. D. R. Gray was hostess at a tea in honor of Miss Dora lieerstecher of Helena.

Miss Irma Smoot gave a matinee party at the Orpheum on Tuesday fol-lowed by a luncheon at Fraklyn's in celebration of her birthday annivers-

Misses Amy and Isabel Osbourne entertained at Rowland Hall this week in nonor of the faculty, their function being a dinner and the de-corations and all details being most

Mrs. Walter G. Filer gives a lunch-een next Wednesday for Mrs. Richard Eskridge of Seattle.

Mrs. John C. Cutler gives a boxparty at the Sait Lake theater this afternoon, followed by a dinner at the Alta club, covers being laid for about a dozen. The decorations are in spring flowers and ferns and the place cards hand-painted in well of flowers. The guests include Mrs. Benj. Lockwood. Mrs. Bryant Wells. Mrs. Kenneson, Mrs. Rockman. Mrs. W. W. Riter, Mrs. Keogh, Mrs. Henry Clement, Mrs. Joseph Geoghegan, Mrs. Will Lynch, Miss Clement, Mrs. Riter.

Miss Georgia Savage was guest of nonor at a pretty affair this aftermon given by Mrs. A. H. Peabody, he rooms being decorated with spring lowers and a number of the close lends of the bride-elect being pres-

Miss Ethel Paul gave a delightful reakfast this morning lu honor of or cousin, Miss Florence Robbins those marriage takes place in the Mai, and Mrs. Smith of Fort Doug-las we be guests whonor at a large hop to be given by the officers and ladles of the post on next Friday.

Mrs. George T. Brice was hostess at a card party on Thursday the rooms being done entirely in spring blossoms with hawthorne, bridal wreath and snowballs. Bridge was the amusement, the prizes going to the winners at each table including Mrs. D. C. Jackling Mrs. L. C. Miller, Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. C. M. Bell. Mrs. J. B Cosgriff, Mrs. H. N. Mayo and Mrs. Herbert Chamberlain. Mrs. Brice was hostess at a similar affair yeaterday. affair yesterday.

Mrs. W. A. McEnery of San Fran-cisco was guest of honor at an in-formal card party on Thursday even-ing given by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bird.

An claborate affair of the week was the reception given by Mrs. Ezra Thompson on Thursday, the hours being from 3 to 7 and a large number of people being present during the afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the drawing room and library in hawthorne and bridal-wreath, the music room in white roses, and the dining room in pink carnations and ferns, the table having replicable of these with streamers marriage takes place in the near future.

The bridge club met with Mrs. Delano on Monday.

The bridge club met with Mrs. Delano on Monday. cloth over blue, the bride's boquet be-ing of marguerites all lilies of the valley, and Miss Berkeley's of daisles and for-get-me-nots. Beautiful music was played during the service and later an elaborate supper was served for the bridal party and near rela-tives at the home of the bride's par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards.

Fred Schoemacker, traveling auditor of the International Harvester company of Chicago, and Miss Florence Gill of Berkeley, Cal., were married Thursday evening, at the residence of General Agent S. J. Seal of the company, 416 Seventh East street, by Rev. Haworth of the East Side Baptist church. It was their intention to be married in San Francisco, but Mr. Schoemacker was studdenly called to Omaha by business. uddenly called to Omaha by business. The happy couple proceeded east to-

Next Wednesday Miss Florence Robbins and Mr. Milan L. Cranball will be married, the event to take place at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. A. S. Martin.

A quiet wedding of the week was that of Miss Dorothy Knudsen and Mr. Quinlan Sullivan, who were married at the home of Bishop Scanlon, Miss Anna Knudson and Mr. Andrew Knudson being respectively bridesmaid and best man. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Another quiet wedding was that of Miss Mary Ryckman and Thomas Allen, who were married on Tuesday, with Rev. C. E. Perkir officiating.

Miss Elsie Neilsen and Abner G. Field were married at St. Mark's ca-thedral on Wednesday and a wedding breakfast followed the ceremony.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Esther Schaal, daughter of Mrs. G. A. Schaal, of Terre Haute, Indie J. to Richard Arnold Oglesby of this city. The marriage will take place June 19 at the home of the bride's mother.

A pretty wedding of Monday was that of Miss Edyth A. Spencer and James L. Karr, which took place at the home of the bride's mother at 425 north Second West street. The ceremony was witnessed by about 20 of the relatives and intimate friends of the young couple and was followed by a wedding supper. John C. Sharp performed the ceremony, which took place at 5 o'clock. The bride was attended by her sister Mubel and Miss Theresa Sunderland as bridesmaids. Geo. J. Spencer, the bride's brober, gave her by her sister Mabel and Miss Theresa Sunderland as bridesmaids, Geo. J. Spencer, the bride's broder, gave her away, while R. A. Borney was best man. The bridal party entered the parlors as Miss Laura Hadley played the Lohengren wedding march and following the service the Mendelssohn march was played. White alid green were used in the parlors, pains and ferns in the reception room. The dining room was decorated with pink and green, and cupid place cards, with the monogram of the bride at I bridegroom were at each plate. Mr. and Mrs. Karr left on the night train for Los Angeles, but will return to reside here.

MUSHROOM HAT IN DULL STRAW

A mushroom with slightly undulated brim is trimmed in dead black roses wreathed about the grown, and rosettes of dull black ribbon caught through with black quills set at the back. A net vell with narrow crepe border may be worn with this hat, although it is counted better style where the crepe where her marriage to Mr. Officer will shortly take place.

Mrs. Percy Sadler leaves shortly for a trip to California.

Mrs. E. S. Ellerbeck and Miss Marge Ellerbeck have just returned from a long stay in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read will return about the 20th, accompanied by Miss "Bob" Ellerbeck, who finishes her school year at Stanford, and will return to Salt Lake for her vacation.

Mrs. C. B. Diehl has returned from a visit with her brother in Salida, Colo. Mrs. J. L. Duke of Chicago, who is on her way to California, is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. George Savage.

Miss Sarah Spalding has been spending a few days in Provo, the guest of Miss Gertrude Sanders.

Miss Maud Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Miller, will return from Stanford on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lynn Kemper is here from Omaha to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Buckingham. Mr. and Mrs. Joves Jack and sons and Mrs. Thomas L. Halliday have returned from Pass le 9, where they have spent the last few months.

Mrs. F. L. Albritton of Montana isvisiting her mother, Mrs. Bonnemort, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jennings and small son leave next week for New York, to be gone a me wh.

Miss Jenna Budd Geddes has gone to California for a month. Mrs. Kate Judge, who is visiting her sister in Fort Leavenworth, is expected home soon.

York for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Griffin of Denver is the guest of her sistir, Mrs. Edward Richards.

Mrs. W. Edward Fife left this week short time.

Miss Phoebe Hardin and Miss Alice Fisher are at Stanford during com-mencement.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Rooklidge will be at home at 1218 east First South street.

Miss Rose Youngerman, who has spent the past few months with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Youngerman, left this week for Los Angeles and San Diego, to visit relatives for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilfley wil be at home at No. 12 the Wilfley.

Mrs. Witcher Jobs, accompanied by Miss Sibyl Walker, has gone to California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cooper are now at home, 907 Third avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hartenstein will leave May 27 for an European trip. Miss Dalsy Raybould left during the week for California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bamberger have returned from New York, where they spent several months.

Mrs. W. A. McEnery of San Fran-cisco is spending a few days in the city, and is a guest at the Knutsford. Col. and Mrs. E. A. Wall and Miss Mary Wall leave today for New York and Washington, where Miss Mary Wall will join her sisters and sail for Europe for a three months' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kinney are back from Chicago, where they went on their wedding trip.

Mrs. Bishop, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walcott Thompson, will leave this week for her home in New Haven, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Bacon and family will leave early in June for the east to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage have

SRIENTAL A

after a few weeks spent with Judge and Mrs. C. C. Goodwin.

returned to their home in Goldfield,

Mrs. Joseph E. Caine is back after a visit of some time with her sister, Mrs. Dunbar in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ralph Pritchard left Tuesday evening with her small son for New York, where Mr. Pritchard will join them.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Zane are here from Chicago.

Mrs. John G. Felt leaves today for a month's stay at Long Beach.

Ogden, Utah, May 17.—The members of the Relief Society of the First ward and a number of friends gave a birthday party Monday, May 6, in honor of the eighty-second anniversary of Mrs. Elizabeth McDonald, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Elizabeth Bachelor, on Ogden avenue. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in a good social time, singing songs, speech making and partaking of a dainty repast. The most entertaining feature of the afternoon was the songs sang by Grandma Byole aged 86 years, Mrs. Mary Bramwell and the guest of honor, Mrs. McDonald who rendered several Scotch ballads. In behalf of the society Mrs. W. L. Burch presented Mrs. McDonald with an elegant hymn book. There were present of the Relief Society, Nancy L. Burch, Eveline C. Brown, A. Agatha Pratt, Mary A. Bramwell, Senior Grandma Boyle, Jane Banford, Annie B. Nelson, Annie R. Moyes, Mary Langlois, Frances, M. Brown, Mary A. Stephens, Harriett Stephens, Takabia Vanbrack, Martha Steele Jessie Bingham, Ella Wright, Allice Neuteboon, Mary Lickett, Isabelle Bachelor, Harriet J. Jackson, Ellar tha Steele Jessie Bingham, Ella Wright, Alice Neuteboon, Mary Lickett, Isabelle Bachelor, Harriet J. Jackson, Ellen Kessler, Ellen Tanner, Wealthy Ensign, Julia Welch, Elizabeth Unsworth, Christina Hunter, Lillian Barton, Helena Goddard. Among the guests assembled were three who came here in 1847 with the early ploneers, namely A. Againa Pratt, Nancy L. Burch, Harriett Stephens. . . .

Mrs. George Madson was hostess Monday afternoon at a delightful card party given Monday afternoon at the Virginia hotel. The pariors were tastefully decorated for the event.

Mrs. H. C. Bigelow received Tuesday afternoon at the Reed hotel in honor of Mrs. H. H. Spencer.

Mrs. Spargo entertained Thursday afternoon at her home for her daugh-ter-in-law, Mrs. John Sparge.

The Knights of Columbus council of the Utah, Idhao, Nevala Jurisdiction, held a convention in Ogden this week. Aside from the business transacted, a sociit time was enjoyed. Tuesday the delegates were guests of Judge W. L. Maginnis at a dinner served at noon at the Weber club. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon a sumptuous banquet was served at the Virginia hotel. In the evening a grand reception and ball was held at the club rooms, which was participated in by about 300 guests. Light refreshments were served.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. R. T.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. R. T. Hume entertained 24 of her lady friends at cards at her home on Twenty-fifth street.

Miss Lucy Morris of Salt Lake City is visiting in Ogden, the guest of Miss Olive Bullough

Dr. Carnahan and family returned home this week from California, where they spent the winter pleasuring.

Miss Coille Warning returned home Wednesday from San Francisco, where she has been visiting with relatives and Mrs. George W. Larkin, Sr., and daughter, Miss Zina Larkin, returned home Monday from Lehl, where they have been visiting with relatives and friends.

In the Salt Lake temple Wednesday, Miss Alice M. Sandford and William Stillwell, two of Ogden's most highly esteemed young people, were married.

DR. T. FELIX COURAUD'S

This is an exquisitely perfumed, antiseptic totlet pow-der. It is a household necessity for the nursery and totlet. It keeps the complexion clear and preserves the velvety texture of youth. It should be used freely after bathing, giving a delightful and refreshing effect. FERD. T. HOPKINS, N. Y. City,

COURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM. WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO.,

No. 8 Main St. By the Monument, SALT LAKE CITY.

Mr. Stillwell is keeper of the city parks, and the bride is a charming young lady of the Second ward. Their many friends join in extending congratulation for a long life and happiness and prosperity.

The members of the German congregation gave an enjoyable concert Thursday, night at the Presbyterian church, which was greatly enjoyed by a large crowd.

The Luther league presented the "Council of Nations" last evening at the church. A number of young ladies represented various nations, dressed in the costumes of the respective countries. An excellent musical and liter-

Mrs. William Eccles has invitations out for a card party to be given next Thursday at her home.

At the St. Joseph's Catholic church, Wednesday morning, Miss Francis Hyland and Mr. France Smyth, two of Ogden's most popular young people, were married by Rev. Father Cushnahan. A wedding breakfast was served, after which the bride and groom left on a wedding tour.

PROVO.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday with Mrs. Plaisted, as the guests of Mrs. Plaisted and Mrs. Newell. Mrs. Thornhill presented an interesting paper on architecture, and Mrs. Searls one on American national works. parks. Refreshments were served.

The Sorosis held an open session at College hall Wednesday evening and Prof. E. H. Eastmond delivered an able lecture on Everyday Art. Each member of the club was presented with an art souvenir from Prof. Eastmond.

A Skin of Beauty is a Jny Forever. DR. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Oream or Magical Beautifier

FEBD. T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

gram was rendered and refreshments

The Priscilla club was entertained Friday evening by Miss Achsa Eggertsen. After the rendition of an interesting program refreshments were served.

Miss Goldie Gillispie and Mr. Thomas S. Roylance, both popular young Provo people, were married at high noon Wednesday, at the home of the groom's brother, Hon. William M. Roylance, Bishop A. W. Manwaring officiating. There were present only a few intimate friends and relatives. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Roylance took the train for Salt Lake. They will reside in Provo.

Miss Laura Pearl Adams, of Parowan, is here visiting relatives and friends,

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Jones enter-tained Monday night, the occasion be-ing their tenth wedding anniversary. The Pallas club met Thursday with Miss Leah Pyne. An interesting pro-

Shopping Trips are enjoyable, but fatiguing;

a cup of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate for breakfast helps wonderfully, it is so sustaining as well as delicious. Before returning home don't forget to

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

I Ib Cans 35c.

1-2 lb Cans, 20c.

Week of Profitable Surprises for the Summer Girl at

BANKS'

Note the Kind of Merchandise that is Underpriced, the Very Things that are Most Needed for Summer Wear.

116 South Main St.

WHITE AND COLORED CHIP HATS, BLEACHED AND NATURAL LEGHORNS, TUSCANS, WHITE AND COLORED MILANS, fancy braids, chiffon, neopolitan and pyroxaline, Cubans, Javas and Panamas, duck and plain band straw sailors, trimmed or untrimmed. ALL GO AT

Our New York buyer has exceeded our capacity for this summer's selling, therefore price making begins next Monday to relieve our overcrowded reserve stocks.

Reduced Prices

Until the entire lot is run off. Bear in mind no old styles, but fresh goods, many received from the manufacturers within the past ten days.

The clearing out of surplus stock begins Monday morning, continues one week until Saturday, May 25th.

116 South Main St.