Railroad building in 1882 exceeded all former years, about 12,000 miles of new track having been laid. If we allow a strip of land ten miles wide along each side of these new railways to be benefitted, the aggredance. The engine left Fish Creek, gate of laud thus helped amounts to 153,000,000 acres, or 1,500,000 farms of 100 acres each. If these lands are was one engine and no cars. There increased in value only 59 cents per acre, a very low estimate, it amounts to over $75,000,000.
