DR. C. W. HIGGINS:
Dear Sir,—I feel and know now that I am gaining rapidly all the time, and I know not how to express my gratitude to you for relieving me of pain and misery. All doubt of you as a successful doctor, with me, disappeared with the neuralgia and catarrh in my head. Before I called on you I had been under the care of several other good doctors, but I got no relief whatever until I took your medicines. I have suffered several years with my diseases, but did not know what ailed me until you told me. I feel thankful for the cure that your medicines have given me, and will willingly recommend you to all others that suffer with any chronic disease.
I am your friend forever,
Mrs. M. B. WALLACE,
14th Ward, Salt Lake City.

THE HIBERNICAN.—Determined to find out whether or not the little Italian musician now in town are held in a kind of bondage by task masters to whom they give up their earnings, a number of Italian residents of this city had them all arrested to-day, and taken before Justice Fyfe. It is asserted by some of these Italian residents of Salt Lake that the little individual purporting to be a small Italian girl in the band is a boy dressed up in female attire, and that this is merely done to excite the public sympathy.
When they were before the court the little fellows made contradictory statements, but, as nothing could be elicited from them, they were discharged.

THE HIBERNICAN.—Howarth's Grand Hibernica, in conjunction with the new Irish comedy of "Kitty O'Connor," will be the entertainment to-night at the Theatre, and to-morrow night, and also a malice to-morrow.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
THE COURT.
The court appeared inclined to try the matter of contempt on its merits, but Mr. B. said he was satisfied that the matter of the order had merits enough to decide the case, because if the order were void his client could not be charged with contempt for non-compliance with it. If a person's pockets could be dipped into without his being notified of it, it should be known.
The court sustained Mr. Burnes' motion, deciding against the validity of its own order.

THE FEDERAL COURT-HOUSE.—Today Judge McKean made an order of Court, naming the Cliff House the Federal Court-House.

Warm and Windy.—The weather is pretty warm for September. Last night was very warm and windy. A body in bed did not need more than the thickness of a sheet over him to keep warm. There is something very unusual, if not unprecedented, in this valley at this time of the year, for these valleys have been specially noted for cold nights even in summer.

New Pleasure Boat.—A pleasure boat, called the Sea Gull, was launched in Salt Lake west of Centerville on Friday, and made his trial trip. It is owned and was built by Brother Thos. Whitaker, of that settlement. The party that went out with her speak well of her sailing qualities. She is 24 feet long, 8 feet 6 in. beam and carries between 40 and 50 feet of canvas. She is intended to run on the Lake for pleasure parties and will carry from fifteen to twenty persons very comfortably.

Third District Court.—The Third District Court opened this morning, for the unexpired term, James B. McKean, J., presiding. After the disposal of some minor motions, and the issuance of several orders of the Court, an adjournment was taken till Wednesday morning.

The Liquor Traffic.—The fight between the liquor dealers and the City authorities will soon be going on in the District Court. The issue of the Court is, whether or not the liquor dealers of this City pay per month, combinedly.
