

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, Nov. 20, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The Difference.—The Junction complains of "short weights" in coal sold to the citizens of Ogden. Long waits is what we complain of here.

The Bigamy Case.—The case of Frederick Chandler, charged with bigamy, will resume at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, before United States Commissioner Sprague.

Seventies Meeting.—The Seventies will please take notice that their regular meeting will be held at the Council House, on Wednesday, December 1st, at 7 o'clock p. m. ROBERT CAMPBELL, Clerk. In behalf of First Council of Seventies.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Dr. William Ferguson, will take place tomorrow, at 12 m., in the Twenty-First Ward meeting house, instead of at residence. All relatives and friends of the deceased are respectfully invited to attend.

More Manti Fossils.—By the courtesy of Brother Junius F. Wells some specimens of the fossil remains of reptiles and ganoids, from Manti, have been received at the Museum. They were found by Brother Joseph J. Taylor, near the place where the great fossil saurian was found, which is now on exhibition at the Desert Museum.

Information Wanted.—Of Angus McKellar, formerly of Oban, Argyshire, Scotland. He left that place 20 years ago for Utah. His sister at Oban, and another at Newcastle, wish very much to hear from him. He can obtain further particulars respecting them by communicating with Peter Reid, 10th Ward, this city.

Seventies Organizations.—The Seventies of the first municipal ward will meet in the Eighth Ward Meeting-house, at 7 o'clock this evening, and those of the second municipal ward in the Seventh Ward Meeting-house (change of place necessitated) at 7 o'clock tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, for the purpose of effecting ward organizations of the Seventies in those wards.

Police Court.—The examination of the young men for assault and disturbance, was not concluded on Saturday afternoon. Two of the defendants demanded trial by jury, which was granted. One of these is being tried this afternoon, the other will have his case heard tomorrow. The three others, who are willing the police magistrate should determine in their case will be dealt with on Wednesday.

Concert To-night.—The first Carlees Orchestra Concert of this season takes place this evening at the Theatre. To what has been said of the entertainment, nothing need be or can be added. The public know just what to expect, and, as ever, will show their appreciation for a first-class performance, by giving it first-class patronage. Those who have not secured seats should go early, or else expect to promenade the aisles during the evening.

Kind Words.—Woman's World, a paper published in Philadelphia, has the following kindly notice of the literary production of a Utah writer:

"Fugitive Poems," by Mary J. Tanner, is the title of a volume of 128 pages that comes to us from Salt Lake, we have read that with much interest. While these little verses do not claim any deeper inspiration than that afforded by home and the domestic altar, they yet give evidence of a fidelity of observation of the heart, and a true woman's feelings and all that concerns the struggle of life. Many of them are touching and tender, while others are bold, and none are less good, although some of them of a personal character could have been spared to the advantage of the volume. It is printed on handsome paper in readable type, and bound in morocco—very substantial and pleasant gift for a friend. Published by J. C. Graham & Co., Salt Lake, Utah. Price $1.00.

For the East.—Hon George Q. Cannon, Utah's Delegate to Congress, expects to leave by the morning train for Washington, to begin his official duties at the nation's capital, for the coming session of Congress which commences on Monday the 8th inst.

He will be accompanied part of the way by President A. O. Smoot, of Utah State, who goes to visit his old home in Owen County, Kentucky, where he was born. One of his main objects, besides preaching the gospel, is to gather genealogical data of his family relations, who were among the first settlers of Kentucky. Owen County derives its name from an ancestor of Brother Smoot's, Col. Owen, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe. From him, also, Brother Smoot takes the name of Abraham Owen. He will also visit Virginia, the State where his forefathers settled on first arriving in America. He will be absent for several months.

He will also have for a travelling companion Elder John W. Taylor, son of President Taylor, for several years connected with the business department of the Deseret News Office, and one of the presiding officers of the State organization of Y. M. M. I. A. This will be his first mission away from home. He is a young man well known and highly respected for sterling worth and integrity, and his efforts for the gospel's sake, directed by the Spirit of God, cannot but result in much good to his cause.

We wish all of the brethren a pleasant and prosperous experience while away.—Brother Cannon in the political arena, Brother Smoot in the home and family life in the mountains of Utah. Brother Smoot's address, while absent, will be, care of W. R. Minish, Grants, Owen County, Kentucky.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

The customary Sabbath services of the Latter-day Saints were held in the Assembly Hall, yesterday afternoon, with the usual good attendance. The opening prayer was offered by Bishop L. W. Hardy.

President George Q. Cannon occupied the afternoon in a very interesting discourse. He solicited the faith and prayers of his listeners, that what he might say might be words of life and salvation to all. It was the privilege of the Saints in meeting together to enjoy the Spirit of the Lord in rich abundance, and to have things brought forth spontaneously, through the mouths of God's servants, which were most useful and appropriate to the occasion.

But without this Spirit, it was impossible for a speaker to make or to bring forth such things. It was a special mission of the Spirit of God. He is the only one who can search into the hearts of men and know their spiritual needs; whether they require reproof or commendation, reward or punishment, or know what kind of spiritual food is needed to benefit them most. This was why the ministers of many religious denominations, who make a practice of preparing in private the sermons they produce in public, and who try to derive from colleges the light and wisdom they should derive from God, were totally unfitted as instructors of his children or as mouthpieces for his revelations. The Almighty does not choose such instruments nor acknowledge the religious systems they represent. He has, in these times, instituted a system entirely at variance with such institutions, and chosen instruments of a very different character. He has called the humblest of men, mostly the ignorant and uncultured, and given them the Holy Ghost, in lieu of a college education, and sent them forth to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ in this party. Such are the Latter-day Saints to-day, and such they have been since the Church was organized. They not only preach the same gospel as that preached anciently, but in the same way and with the same results. This is the testimony of the thousands who now compose this Church. The gospel found them in various places, but to all it was the same. Its sound saluted their ears familiarly, like something they had forgotten, and the sound thereof was sweet. It was the voice of the Good Shepherd, and his sheep, though scattered, knew the voice, acknowledged its truth and divinity, and cheerfully yielded obedience to its requirements. Even before the gospel was preached, people in various parts of the earth were prepared to receive it. They had been praying for it for years, and when it came they recognized and accepted it gladly. This had been the case in all the countries of the earth which the leaders of the church visited. They had gone forth clothed with the power of God, to whom was the honor and glory for all they had done, for without his aid they could have done nothing. This was shown in the gathering of Israel in these days. How many would have left their homes, their associations, relations and worldly prospects and gathered to these Rocky Mountains, had it not been for the Spirit of God that descended upon the nations and inspired the honest in heart who had obeyed the requirements of the gospel, with an irrepressible and unquenchable desire to go to the land of Zion? Country, home, kindred, position and personal life were all forsaken, and such considerations, dear though they were, had dissolved like snow before the midday sun, in view of the great command of God to gather of Babylon to the land of His appointment. The love of God predominated over all other feelings, which were lost sight of in the presence of a far greater sentiment. The speaker still further descanted upon this topic, upon the great love which existed in the hearts of the Saints for each other, and other remarkable manifestations relating to the history and character of this Church. No man could claim that any of these results were due to his ability, strength or influence. God and his Church were quite independent of men or their actions. When Oliver Cowdery, who had said that if he left the Church it would fall, did leave it, what was the result? Oliver Cowdery fell, but the Church still lived and flourished. So it will be to the end. This Church will never fall. Its destiny is assured. It will live forever. The Saints are gathering here for a great and glorious purpose, and this work will spread and grow until every nation is represented within its pale. The living will work for each other and for the dead, until all are gathered in one, and the human race redeemed from the weight of the universal curse. It is for the Saints to be faithful to the church, their original purpose, never to permit the fire within them to die out, nor fear for the purposes of God, or doubt their literal fulfillment. We do our best to please God and keep his commandments, and leave the result to the wisdom of Him who rallies our destiny and doeth all things well. The speaker discoursed eloquently upon the eternal state of mankind, showed the beauties of the family relation as heaven as revealed to the Saints, and contrasted them with the fallacious views entertained by many respecting the same things. He then bade the people farewell, saying it was probably the last time he should address them in public prior to his departure for Washington, asked for their prayers during his absence, and then dismissed them all in the name of the Lord. The choir sang "Oh, say what is True." Benediction by Counselor Jos. E. Taylor.

Coal-Indian Shot.—From Saturday's Enquirer: Prove received its share five out of eight carloads of coal that came in from Pleasant Valley on Thursday morning. By 9 o'clock the following morning not a pound was left. We are promised a daily supply of three carloads hereafter.

A report has reached us of a fatal accident that recently happened in Thistle Valley, in this county. A couple of young Indians went out to hunt, and while riding on Thursday morning, one of the horses was killed and the rider fell from the saddle. The horse stepped on the ground, the rider around the hammer of the gun which was immediately discharged, fatally wounding the Indian. His companion, fearing no doubt that he might be charged with the killing, started off and has not since been heard of. The wounded man however lived long enough to relate the facts to a settler.

Hand Blown Off.—A man at Alta, the other day, while putting a cap on a giant powder candle, by an accidental explosion had his hand blown clean off. Dr. Benedict amputated two inches of the shattered stump, and the patient is progressing favorably.

Found Guilty.—Cole, the Ogden seducer, was found guilty on Friday afternoon. Sentence was reserved until to-day.

Postmaster Appointed.—Patrick Cusick has been appointed postmaster at Eureka, Juab County, Utah.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N. W. Palace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa, Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort and safety in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Instruct upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Ticket, and refuse to buy if it does not read over this Road. If you wish the best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your Tickets by this Route, AND WILL TAKE NO OTHER. d & w

RESCUED FROM DEATH. The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for its attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1878 I was taken with a violent BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not get out of bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung, and that I could not live more than a few days. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I came up home, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable. I got a bottle and used it, and to my surprise, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and day by day I felt better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Disordered Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED." I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. Sold by all druggists.

BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA cures pain in Man and Beast. For use externally and internally. The Universal Verdict Of all who have taken BROWN'S PAIN TONIC, is that it never fails to cure, ask your druggist for it. d & w

Its Economy to buy the Best. The vain attempts to imitate the "Royal Baking Powder" by other manufacturers during the past fifteen years, has proved wholly abortive. It is clear that the pure and brand that it is just as good as the Royal, while they are cheapened with flour, or drugged with the hurtful alum. The pure grape cream tartar from which Royal Baking Powder is made, is imported expressly for it from the wine district of N. France. Manufacturers of this brand with far seeing eyes have always used the best and most wholesome materials, and are said to be the largest users of cream of tartar in the world. d & w

A STRANGE PEOPLE. You know that there are strange people in our community—we say strange, because they seem to prefer to suffer and possibly die miserably, made so with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, Indigestion, Constipation, and General Debility, when SERRAVALLO'S GUMS is guaranteed to cure them. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Department, Wholesale and Retail, Salt Lake City, Utah. d & w

By Universal Accord, AVER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious and successful scientific investigation, and their extensive use, by Physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, proves them to be the best and most effective purgative ever devised, which they are. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use. In intrinsic value and curative power no other pills can be compared with them, and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them, when needed. They keep the system in perfect order, and maintain in healthy condition the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effectual, they are specially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derangements of which they prevent and cure so timely taken. They are the best and safest physic to employ for children and weaklings, and are immediately commended to all constitutions, where a mild, but efficient cathartic is required. d & w

Some weeks since, a man came in to the store, No. 7, Sixth Avenue, New York, inquiring for Mr. Crittendon, to whom he was shown. He appeared to be very much excited, and said that he had a story to tell of how his wife had suffered from an affection of the lungs, and, in fact, had been given up by the physicians to die. Through some friend he had induced a last resort, to try HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND and Tar, and using here her husband's language, he said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord, she could breathe with ease; and, by the time she had used six bottles she was up and around the house, able to do her own work." The man then related the story in detail, and thanked the recent proprietor of the popular article for a perfect cure of his wife. HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND and Tar is for sale by all druggists, and is a most valuable remedy, and is the most economical. Depot, Crittendon's, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York City.
